After Life Tobias Hecht, 2006-04-05 DIV Ethnographic novel based on research in Northeast Brazil centered around interviews with a 17 year old transgendered youth who subsisted on the street for eight years through begging and prostitution div Begging as a Path to Progress Kate Swanson, 2010-07 In 1992 Calhuas an isolated Andean town got its first road Newly connected to Ecuador's large cities Calhuas experienced rapid social spatial change which Kate Swanson richly describes in Begging as a Path to Progress Based on nineteen months of fieldwork Swanson's study pays particular attention to the ideas and practices surrounding youth While begging seems to be inconsistent with or even an affront to ideas about childhood in the developed world Swanson demonstrates that the majority of income earned from begging goes toward funding Ecuadorian children's educations in hopes of securing more prosperous futures Examining beggars organized migration networks as well as the degree to which children can express agency and fulfill personal ambitions through begging Swanson argues that Calhuas's beggars are capable of canny engagement with the forces of change She also shows how frequent movement between rural and urban Ecuador has altered both masculinizing the countryside and complicating the Ecuadorian conflation of whiteness and cities Finally her study unpacks ongoing conflicts over programs to clean up Quito and other major cities noting that revanchist efforts have had multiple effects spurring more dangerous transnational migration for example while also providing some women and children with tourist friendly local spaces in which to sell a notion of Andean authenticity Lucia Robert Gay,2012-06-20 Favelas or shantytowns are where cocaine is mainly sold in Rio de Janeiro There are some six hundred favelas in the city and most of them are controlled by well organized and heavily armed drug gangs The struggle for the massive profits from this drug trade has resulted in what are increasingly violent and deadly confrontations between rival drug gangs and a corrupt and brutal police force that have transformed parts of the city into a war zone Lucia tells the story of one woman who was once intimately involved with drug gang life in Rio throughout the 1990s Through a series of conversations with the author Lucia describes conditions of poverty violence and injustice that are simply unimaginable to outsiders In doing so she explains why women like her become involved with drugs and gangs and why this situation is unlikely to change The Global History of Childhood Reader Heidi Morrison,2013-03-05 The Global History of Childhood Reader provides an essential collection of chapters and articles on the global history of childhood The Reader is structured thematically so as to provide both a representative sampling of the historiography as well as an overview of the key issues of the field such as childhood as a social construct commonalities and differences globally and why the twentieth century was not the century of the child for most of the world s children The Reader is divided into four parts Theories and methodologies of the history of childhood Constructions of childhood in different times and places Children s experiences in different times and places Usage of the past to articulate solutions to problems facing children today Topics covered include theories and methodologies in the global history of childhood sources for writing a global history of childhood education gender disability race class and religion the individual in history and emotions violence labour and illiteracy With introductions that contextualize each of the four parts and the articles further reading sections and questions this is the perfect guide for all students of the history of childhood Global Perspectives on Rural Childhood and Youth Ruth Panelli,Samantha Punch,Elsbeth Robson,2007-11-21 This thematic collection of articles with case studies and co authored commentaries contributed to by leading scholars advances debates about rural childhood Based on international research and theoretical innovation it examines the socio cultural contexts faced by the young comprise a conjoining of disciplines sociology anthropology psychology social geography history philosophy and socio legal theory all have something to add to the field and are represented within the collection A Brief History of Brazil Teresa A.
