After Pomp and Circumstance Vered Vinitzky-Seroussi, 1998-06-08 Menacing nerve racking uncomfortably intrusive the high school reunion has become a dreaded encounter with past and present for many Americans It is a moment of both heightened self awareness and public presentation insisting that we account for ourselves not merely to our own satisfaction but to the satisfaction of others as well For sociologist Vinitzky Seroussi the high school reunion presents an ideal forum in which to explore the ongoing construction of identity in American society and perhaps to ascertain just how we have managed to make sense of our lives from then to now As autobiographical occasions reunions prompt us to examine our own life narratives the stories we tell ourselves about who we are and how we have come to be that person But at the same time they can threaten the integrity of those very stories subjecting them to the scrutiny of others whose memories of the past and ourselves may be altogether different from our own Reunions then engender a fragile community held together by the resources of a shared past yet imperiled by the tensions of competing histories Inevitably for both those who attend and those who choose not to the reunion forces a kind of biographical confrontation an unavoidable and often pivotal engagement between a carefully constructed personal identity and the socially prevalent standards of success and accomplishment Though many see in today s culture the gradual demise of personal identity Vinitzky Seroussi s carefully researched study reveals something quite different After Pomp and Circumstance explores a struggle we all experience the desire to resolve the tension between public conceptions and internal understandings to maintain a sense of continuity between past and present lives and to lay claim to both an integrated self and a unified life history

,1924 Standing in the Shadows of Street Legends Vernon Lucas,2010-06-01 I have heard it said that we all shall pay for the sins of the father Someone once told me that when the next generation has it rough its because they are reaping what the generation before them has sowed This is what Creole people would call Blood Magic in the Basement or so Ive been told I am Vernon Lucas II and my father was a kingpin in the heroin drug trade I cant say that my adult life has been easy but at least as a child I never really wanted for anything Ive been told that since my family has helped to poison many people in America with illegal drugs that I was cursed to suffer in my adult life for their sins I almost believed that for a time I felt very restless in my adult life and very few goals that I set for myself ever worked out for me I felt ashamed and even embarrassed by my family until I began to research the reasons why they did what they did in the first place My father and his brothers came from very humble beginnings His mother my Grandmother was a field hand housewife and her husband my Grandfather was a share cropper as well as a bootlegger They lived loved and struggled in the segregated south of the early 1900s There have been rumors about how mean my Grandfather was but by the time I had to live with him he was much kinder and gentler My Fathers brother Frank Lucas was at least 20 years older than he was so it was natural for him to look up to my Uncle Frank as not only an older brother but also as somewhat of a Father figure Frank left home at a very early age to make his own way in life and turned to a life of crime out of necessity He became one of the best at what he did It was just a matter of time before my father eventually followed in his footsteps I am by no means condoning what they did in the 60s the chicken or the egg Meaning Was my lifes emotional instability inherited or was it caused by the way I had to live You be the judge I am hoping this autobiography serves some as a manual as well as entertainment through self education So in synopsis what Im trying to convey is that the Lucas family is so much more than this gangster image Back Yonder Marvin
