Zarrilli, 2012-10-12 Psychophysical Acting is a direct and vital address to the demands of contemporary theatre on today's actor Drawing on over thirty years of intercultural experience Phillip Zarrilli aims to equip actors with practical and conceptual tools with which to approach their work Areas of focus include an historical overview of a psychophysical approach to acting from Stanislavski to the present acting as an energetics of performance applied to a wide range of playwrights Samuel Beckett Martin Crimp Sarah Kane Kaite O Reilly and Ota Shogo a system of training through yoga and Asian martial arts that heightens sensory awareness dynamic energy and in which body and mind become one practical application of training principles to improvisation exercises Psychophysical Acting is accompanied by Peter Hulton's downloadable resources featuring exercises production documentation interviews and reflection Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, Reference Reed, 1995-12 Acting after Grotowski Kris Salata, 2020-04-06 For whom does the actor perform To answer this foundational question of the actor's art Grotowski scholar Kris Salata explores acting as a self-revelatory action introduces Grotowski's concept of carnal prayer and develops an interdisciplinary theory of acting and spectating Acting after Grotowski Theatre's Carnal Prayer attempts to overcome the religious/secular binary by treating prayer as a pre-religious originary deed and ultimately situates theatre along with ritual in their shared territory of play Grounded in theatre practice Salata's narrative moves through postmodern philosophy critical theory theatre performance ritual and religious studies concluding that the fundamental structure of prayer which underpins the actor's deed can be found in any self-revelatory creative act Jerzy Grotowski and Ludwik Flaszen Juliusz Tyszka, 2021-08-26 The book contains three accounts of five public speeches and conversations with the public of two outstanding figures of theatre and performance Jerzy Grotowski and Ludwik Flaszen from 1993 to 1997 Their speeches concern their output and their current research The content of Ludwik Flaszen's speech is very closely related to the output of Jerzy Grotowski The accounts are written on the basis of the author's detailed notes The main subject of these narratives is their author who quotes the speaking characters in the third person In this way all texts acquire a subjective character akin to an essay while remaining faithful to the overall message and content of the speeches and conversations cited in them Juliusz Tyszka also uses this form of narration to describe the interpersonal context of Flaszen's and Grotowski's talks including the content and tone of the questions asked the reactions of listeners etc There is also room for short concise characteristics of these two outstanding people and their interlocutors who are themselves sometimes also notorious This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of theatre and performance studies and professionals in experimental theatre and performance Encountering Ensemble

Acts of Resistance in Late-Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet, 2019-10-29 In Acts of Resistance in Late Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet presents a close analysis of the theatre practice of two ground breaking artists Richard Foreman and Jenny Kemp active over the late twentieth and the early twenty first century In addition he tracks the development of a form of epileptic writing over the course of his own career as writer director Murphet argues that these three auteurs have developed subversive alternatives to the previously dominant forms of dramatic realism in order to re think the relationship between theatre and reality They write and direct their own work and their artistic experimentation is manifest in the tension created between their content and their form Murphet investigates how the works are made rather than focusing upon an interpretation of their meaning Through an examination of these artists we gain a deeper understanding of a late modernist paradigm shift in theatre practice
