Be My Enemy:

Be My Enemy Christopher Brookmyre, 2011-06-16 The fourth book in the Jack Parlabane series from author Christopher Brookmyre It was a junket a freebie A team building weekend in the highlands for lawyers advertising execs businessmen even the head of a charity Oh and a journalist specially solicited for his renowned and voluble scepticism Jack Parlabane Amid the flying paintballs and flowing Shiraz even the most cynical admit the organisers have pulled some surprises stalkers in the forest power cuts in the night mass mobile phone thefts disappearing staff disappearing guests there s nothing can bring out people s hidden strengths or break down inter personal barriers quite like not having a clue what s going on and being scared out of your wits However when the only vehicular access for thirty miles is cut off it seems that events are being orchestrated not just for pleasure And that s before they find the first body Thereafter finding out who your colleagues really are is not so much an end product as the key to reaching Monday morning alive Enemy of My Enemy T. Clement Robison, 2012-09 Facing a military court martial for the murder of a Vietnamese soldier Army Sergeant John L Coletrane is offered a plea bargain if he agrees to return to South Vietnam for one final combat mission The agreement would save him from the gallows but the near suicidal mission could cost him his life Suppressing his prejudices he is ordered to team up with another Vietnamese soldier and required to use all his jungle knowledge and skills to defy the odds reach the objective and complete the mission after discovering a secret that forces a soldier to make one of the most difficult decisions of his life This is a bold story of courage loyalty and honor My Enemy's Daughter: a Novel Justin Maccarthy (M.P.), 1869 My Enemy's Daughter Justin McCarthy, 1869 My Enemy Is My Guest J. Massynghaerde Ford, 2010-04-01 This is a very readable and clear exposition of Luke s presentation of Jesus as an advocate of nonviolence It rests on a profound knowledge of the political background in the first century and also of modern Lucan scholarship One does not need to agree with all of the author s suggestions in order to accept her basic thesis that Luke s Jesus exemplifies his own Insistence on loving and forgiving one s enemies I Howard Marshall Emeritus Professor of New Testament Exegesis University of Aberdeen Scotland For Professor Josephine Massynghaerde Ford authoress of a learned and challenging commentary on Revelation Luke is the preacher of philoechthology highlighting far more than his predecessors Jesus s love of the enemy She marshals impressive and interesting evidence from comparison with the other Synoptics from contemporary Jewish texts orthodox and sectarian and from the general conditions of that turbulent period The work is full of original valuable ideas such as the relevance for this Gospel s overriding purpose of a sharp contrast between the Infancy narratives reflecting traditional revolutionary expectations and the actual message of Jesus Her analysis of the evangelist s redactional activity is circumspect sensitive and rich in new insights Not the least by product of her thesis is convincing fresh Illustration of Luke s stature as a social political and historical thinker and as a subtle accomplished writer not to mention his humanity This is an excellent lively and timely book David Daube University of California Berkeley Ford invitingly presents Luke s pacifist portrait of Jesus against a predominant militant background of Israel's messianic hopes Her extensive citations from BCE first century Jewish literature and her scholarly study of Luke's Gospel make this a seminal contribution Her work breaks new ground pointing toward fresh emphases in both historical Jesus and Lucan redactional studies In a special way her book speaks to both biblical scholars and lay Christians ready to say no to the mushroom cloud in the name of Jesus the messianic king Willard M Swartley Professor Emeritus of New Testament Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries Elkhart Indiana Placed as I am within sight of Bethlehem to the South and Jerusalem to the North I look out upon a society where the stark choice is between killing enemies or loving them Professor Ford's fascinating study of the Lucan Jesus provides a convincing motive for choosing the latter nonviolence forgiveness and acceptance of our enemies into covenant community Donald Nichol former Rector of the Ecumenical Institute Tantur

Through My Enemy's Eyes Salim J Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2014-02-01 This book addresses the universal theological dimension of reconciliation in the context of the Israeli Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian divide Palestinian Christians and Israeli Messianic Jews share a belief in Jesus as the son of God and Messiah Often though that is all they have in common This remarkable book written in collaboration by a local Palestinian Christian and an Israeli Messianic Jew seeks to bridge this gap by addressing head on divisive theological issues as well as their political implications such as land covenant prophecy and eschatology which separate their two communities The struggle for reconciliation is painful and often extremely difficult for all of us This unique work seeks to show a way forward

COMMENDATIONS In a world that wants to see only one side of every conflict and this one especially where people believe only their own propaganda and where many Christians inhabit hard shells of theological political and apocalyptic certainties this book is a bravely different voice Rather it is two voices talking carefully honestly graciously respectfully and truthfully to each other as sisters and brothers in the Messiah should This is a unique conversation in which each partner Messianic Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Christian gives full expression to all that they are and think and feel about themselves and the conflict in their land We are treated to some stretching theological debate and some honest self criticism But above all we come to share the hope and courage that shines through the pain and struggle

Christopher J H Wright International Ministries Director Langham Partnership UK The Palestinian Israeli divide may be the most intractable conflict of our time With great courage honestly facing the turbulent political historical and theological landscape which authentic reconciliation must engage Munayer and Loden open up fresh space Given the divides between their communities this book is a remarkable achievement a cry of hope from the land where Jesus walked
