THE UP THE HILL PROJECT

Mission Statement

To provide an inclusive and supportive opportunity at Flinders University which enables people who have an intellectual disability to access the University environment, develop social skills and social networks and to experience a range of educational opportunities and activities.

Application Forms – 2015 Academic Year

The following information is required by the Up the Hill Project to assess an applicant's eligibility for a placement with the Up the Hill project. Suitable applicants will be required to attend an application interview. Applicants will be contacted about their application within 6 weeks of lodging an application form. All information will be kept strictly confidential.

Placement of applicants is made through a consultative process between the Project Director and the Project Coordinator based on a number of factors including:

- (a) the availability of student mentors
- (b) the suitability of available courses and academic support staff at the time of application
- (c) the overall suitability of placement for the applicant within the University environment.

Once placed in the Up the Hill project, participants are usually offered a placement for three years.

Knowledge for a Sustainable World Halvorsen, Tor,Ibsen, Hilde,2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent In the context of higher education many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale the vision is steadily gaining momentum forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under researched parts of the world Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross continental teaching and research collaborations This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross continental and cross disciplinary academic collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join Visualising China in Southern Africa Juliette Leeb-du Toit,Ruth Simbao,Ross Anthony,Rui Assubuji,Ying Cheng,Malcolm Corrigan,Romain Dittgen,Esther Esmyol,Philip Harrison,Patricia Hayes,Binjun Hu,T Tu Huynh,Nicola Kritzinger,Mark Lewis,Khangelani Moyo,Stary Mwaba,Marcus Neustetter,Kristin NG-Yang,Gemma Rodrigues,Shuo Wang,Yan Yang,Lifang Zhang,2023-03-01 China and Africa have long shared a history of allegiance and contact points through global political forces from the time of colonialism and the Cold War With China s rise as the new superpower its presence in Africa has expanded leading to significant economic geopolitical and cultural shifts While issues such as trade aid and development have received much attention Chinese and African encounters through the lens of the visual arts and material culture is a neglected field Visualising China in Southern Africa Biography Circulation Transgression is a ground breaking volume that addresses this deficit through engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production that prefigures the current relationship The essays are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture Visualising China in Southern Africa confines its focus to southern Africa yet even within this region the context is complex Ethnicity and nationalism the lingering influence of Cold War allegiances and colonial configurations all continue to play a role The various visual cultures discussed in this volume emphasise the commonality of these categories but also point towards other shared histories that transcend the nation state category The collection includes scholarly chapters photo essays interviews and artists personal accounts organised around four themes material flows orientations and transgressions spatial imaginaries and biographies The artists photographers filmmakers curators and collectors in this volume include Stary Mwaba Hua Jiming Anawana Haloba Gerald

Machona Nobukho Ngaba Marcus Neustetter Brett Murray Diane Victor William Kentridge Kristin NG Yang Kok Nam Mark Lewis the Chinese Camera Club of South Africa Wu Jing Henion Han and Shengkai Wu The Oxford Handbook of the Zambian Economy, 2024-08-23 This handbook offers a comprehensive and authoritative account of the Zambian economy including past and current trends The Zambian economy has evolved from simple and fragmented agrarian activities at the turn of the 20th Century into a wide range of organized and regulated modern economic activities today While the economy has largely revolved around the mining industry since the early 1920s when the extraction of copper and other mineral ores on the Copperbelt begun there has been a gradual broadening of economic activities over time with services now accounting for almost two thirds of gross domestic product GDP This book shows that since colonial times one of the persistent items on the economic development agenda in what is today known as Zambia has been the need to diversify the economy to reduce dependence on mining in terms of foreign exchange earnings and public revenue While the need to diversify the economy has been well acknowledged by successive Zambia governments including the current government achieving this goal has proved to be elusive so far By presenting a collection of well researched and empirically supported chapters on the key areas of the Zambian economy this volume gives readers a good sense of where the Zambian economy has come from where it is at the moment but also highlights the challenges and prospects for economic growth

Natural Resource-Based Development in Africa Nathan Andrews,J. Andrew Grant,Jesse Salah Ovadia,2022-03-01 There is no question that Africa is endowed with abundant natural resources of different magnitudes However more than a decade of high commodity prices and new hydrocarbon discoveries across the continent has led countless international organizations donor agencies and non governmental organizations to devote considerable attention to the potential of natural resource based development Natural Resource Based Development in Africa places a particular emphasis on the actors that help us understand the extent to which resources could be transformed into broader developmental outcomes Based on a wide variety of primary sources and fieldwork including in person interviews and participant observations this collection contributes to both scholarly and policy discussions around the governance and economic development roles of local entrepreneurs transnational firms civil society groups local communities and government agencies in Africa s natural resource sectors Natural Resource Based Development in Africa explores the impact that these actors have on regional trends such as resource nationalism and local procurement policies as well as grassroots related issues such as poverty livelihoods gender equity development and human security

The Scandal of Continuity in Middle East Anthropology Judith Scheele,Andrew Shryock,2019-09-12 Despite a rich history of ethnographic research in Middle Eastern societies the region is frequently portrayed as marginal to anthropology The contributors to this volume reject this view and show how the Middle East is in fact vital to the discipline and how Middle Eastern anthropologists have developed theoretical and methodological tools that address and challenge the region s political ethical and intellectual concerns The contributors to this volume are students of Paul Dresch an anthropologist known for his incisive work on Yemeni tribalism and customary law As they expand upon his ideas and insights these essays ask questions that have long preoccupied anthropologists such as how do place point of view and style combine to create viable bodies of knowledge how is scholarship shaped by the historical context in which it is located and why have duration and form become so problematic in the study of Middle Eastern societies Special attention is given to understanding local terms contested knowledge claims what remains unseen and unsaid in social life and to cultural patterns and practices that persist over long stretches of time seeming to predate and outlast events Ranging from Morocco to India these essays offer critical but sensitive approaches to cultural difference and the distinctiveness of the anthropological project in the Middle East

Explorations in African History Veit Arlt,Stepahnie Bishop,Pascal Schmid,2015-07-01 This collection of essays documents the growth of African history as a discipline at the University of Basel since 2001 It thus pays tribute to fourteen years of research and teaching by Patrick Harries at the Department of History and the Centre for African Studies Basel The Festschrift covers a broad range of topics from mine labour to missionary endeavour and the production of knowledge reflecting some of his core research interests The contributions engage with Patrick Harries oeuvre with reference to the authors own scholarship or vice versa Some directly address his publications while others take his teaching correspondence remarks or intellectual life more broadly as a point of reference They all pay tribute to a brilliant and inspiring scholar a great teacher and a kind person
