The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna, 2007-12-18 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians      El Adviento y la Navidad, día a día Megan McKenna, 1999 MEGAN MCKENNA vuelve a caminar con nosotros durante los días del Adviento y la Navidad como ya lo hiciera anteriormente durante la Cuaresma La polifacética y popular escritora norteamericana hace que las lecturas del leccionario de estos tiempos fuertes cobren nueva vida a través de sus relatos y reflexiones. Sus palabras nos muestran cómo centrar nuestras vidas en el trabajo por la paz y la justicia en el mundo mientras esperamos la venida de Jesús el Hijo de Dios entre nosotros. Este volumen incluye los comentarios a las lecturas diarias y dominicales del Adviento, la Navidad y las fiestas de la Inmaculada Concepción, Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, la Sagrada Familia y Epifanía con un relato que centra con penetración y agudeza cada jornada. MEGAN MCKENNA, doctora en Teología por el Graduate Theological Union de Berkeley, California, ha enseñado en Chicago, San Francisco, Dublín, Albuquerque, Dayton y San Antonio. En esta editorial ha publicado La Cuaresma día a día y pronto verá la luz Mar a sombra de gracia. The Heart of Christmas

Christine Leonard, 2001-01-01 The Heart of Christmas is for all who struggle with the seasonal commercialism of Christmas. The book uses the biblical themes of expectation, joy, love, and peace as its framework. It adds the traditions of the Christmas story and the grace of giving and draws together insights and reflections from people in all walks of life, some famous, other just ordinary Christians. Each day offers the reader a chance to reflect with a meditation or comment on the Bible passage related to everyday life. This is followed by a further reflection from one of the guest contributors adding perspective from his or her own experience. Each day concludes with a prayer. The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2003 Come,

Lord Jesus! Geoffrey Rowell, Julien Chilcott-Monk, 2003-09 This collection of daily readings is a devotional companion for Advent, the 12 days of Christmas. Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa-related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa. The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa, a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one-paragraph description and evaluation. Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal's history. The core intention, both of the journal and of this compilation, is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent. Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas. The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross-section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations, including the secular as well as the religious. The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars, theological educators, libraries, ministry leaders, and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world, but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there. Living with Hope J. C. Polkinghorne, 2003-01-01 In these refreshingly unconventional meditations, scientist John Polkinghorne connects the perspectives of science and religion in honest and thoughtful reflections for Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany. Giving new meaning to the penitence of Advent and the hope of the Christian faith, he considers God's ultimate purposes along with scientific knowledge of the fate of the universe. Complete with Scriptural references and prayers. Living With

Hope encourages Christians to think about the beginning and end of the world and to come to discover what it means to truly affirm God's purpose in creation
