and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross

Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01

The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996

Like a Hammer Shattering Rock Megan McKenna, 2013-02-05 Renowned Catholic author Megan McKenna celebrates her 50th book with a controversial interpretation of the Gospels of Mark Matthew Luke and John and what they mean for the Church and society today In many ways modern audiences have become so familiar with the gospels that we've stopped listening and integrating their wisdom into our everyday lives Acclaimed author Megan McKenna explores the messages of the four gospels in the context of daily life when they were originally written and interprets their meaning for our modern world While some argue for the development of new gospels for the 21st century McKenna argues that we haven't paid due attention to the ones we already have in many cases we've ignored sections of these teachings entirely and twisted their meaning to suit our own agendas McKenna breaks it down gospel by gospel and shows us how the lessons of Jesus's apostles continue to resonate Christian Initiation of Children 2009 - 2010: Weekly Resources for Ages 5 - 14 - Celebrating the Lectionary, The Cumulative Book Index, 1999 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2004 A Celebration of Love Tamera Humbert, 2010-03-26 This is a collection of poetry and sermons throughout the Anglican year
