four years later he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps preparing to serve the obligated four years payback for his free education. It seemed like a good plan but life often has little respect for planning. Within three years he was on Okinawa separated from his wife and their two newborns for a thirteen month deployment. On his return he joined the faculty at the Army Artillery and Missile School. Then it was another thirteen months away this time in Vietnam. At the time when the city states were acquiring their distinctive institutions epic found the greatest of all its exponents in Homer and lyric poetry for both solo and choral performance became a genre which attracted poets of the first rank writers of the quality of Sappho Alcaeus and Pindar whose influence on later literature was to be profound. This volume covers the epic tradition the didactic poems of Hesiod and his imitators and the wide ranging work of the iambic elegiac and lyric poets of what is loosely called the archaic age.
