Haultain,2024-11-24 Aphorism are seldom couched in such terms that they should be taken as they sound precisely or according to the widest extent of signification but do commonly need exposition and admit exception otherwise frequently they would not only clash with reason and experience but interfere thwart and supplant one another Issac BarrowThe very essence of an aphorism is that slight exaggeration which makes it more biting whilst less rigidly accurate Leslie

StephenThere are of course girls and girls yet at heart they are pretty much alike In age naturally they differ wildly But this is a thorny subject Suffice it to say that all men love all girls the maid of sweet sixteen equally with the maid of untold age There is something exasperatingly something or otherish about girls And they know itwhich makes them more something or otherish still there is no other word for it A girl is a complicated thing It is made up of clothes smiles a pompadour things of which space and prudence forbid the enumeration here These things by themselves do not constitute a girl which is obvious nor is any one girl without these things which is not too obvious Where the things end and the girl begins many men have tried to find out Many girls would like to be menexcept on occasions At least so they say but perhaps this is just a part of their something or otherishness Why they should want to be men men cannot conceive Men pale before them grow hot and cold before them run before them and after them swear by them and at them and a bit of a chit of a thing in short skirts and lisle thread stockings will twist able bodied males round her little finger It is an open secret that girls are fonder of men than they are of one anotherwhich is very lucky for the men Girls differ and the same girl is different at different times When she is by herself she is one thing When she is with other girls she is another thing When she is with a lot of men she is a third sort of thing When she is with a man But this baffled even Agur the son of Jakeh As a rule a man prefers a girl by herself This is natural And yet is said that you cannot have too much of a good thing If this were true a bevy of girls would be the height of happiness Yet some men would sooner face the bulls of Bashan Some foolish menprobably poetshave sought for and asserted the existence of the ideal girl This is sheer nonsense there is no such thing And if there were she could not compare with the real girl the girl of flesh and bloodwhich as some one ought to have said are excellent things in woman Other men equally foolish have regarded girls as playthings I wish these men had tried to play with them They would have found that they were playing with fire and brimstone Yet the veriest spit fire can be wondrous sweet Sweet Yes On the whole a girl is the sweetest thing known or knowable On the 6 whole of this terrestrial sphere Nature has produced nothing more adorable than the high spirited high bred girl Of this she is quite awareto our cost I speak as a man The consequence is her price has gone up and man has to pay high and pay all sorts of thingsices sweets champagne drives church goings and sometimes spot cash

Writing Fashion in Early Modern Italy Eugenia Paulicelli, 2016-02-17 The first comprehensive study on the role of Italian fashion and Italian literature, this book analyzes clothing and fashion as described and represented in literary texts and costume books in the Italy of the 16th and 17th centuries. Writing Fashion in Early Modern Italy emphasizes the centrality of Italian literature and culture for understanding modern theories of fashion and gauging its impact in the shaping of codes of civility and taste in Europe and the West. Using literature to uncover what has been called the animatedness of clothing, author Eugenia Paulicelli explores the political meanings that clothing produces in public space. At the core of the book is the idea that the texts examined here act as maps that first pinpoint the establishment of fashion as a social institution of modernity and second gauge the meaning of clothing at a personal and a political level. As well as Castiglione's The Book of the Courtier and Cesare Vecellio's The Clothing of the Renaissance World, the author looks at works by Italian writers whose books are not yet available in English translation such as those by Giacomo Franco, Arcangela Tarabotti, and Agostino Lampugnani. Paying particular attention to literature and the relevance of clothing in the shaping of codes of civility and style, this volume complements the existing and important works on Italian fashion and material culture in the Renaissance. It makes the case for the centrality of Italian literature and the interconnectedness of texts from a variety of genres for an understanding of the history of Italian style and serves to contextualize the debate on dress in other European literatures.

Mirror, Mirror Elaine Hatfield, Susan Sprecher, 1986-01-01 Mirror, Mirror examines the hidden truth about good looks. Through extensive research of scholarly studies and popular culture, the authors provide a lively and comprehensive view of what behavioral scientists have learned about the effects of personal appearance. A wealth of illustrations and photographs give visual support to the evidence presented. The book explores the view that people believe good-looking individuals possess almost all the virtues known to humankind; consequently, they treat the good-looking and ugly very differently. Mirror, Mirror reviews the stereotypes held about people with specific characteristics and explains the impact of height, weight, and attributes such as hair color, eye color and facial hair on the course of social encounters The authors show that through time these reaction patterns have their effect and that good looking and unattractive persons come to be different types of people To show the relative nature of concepts of beauty the authors also present examples of what other cultures consider attractive A Handbook for Workshops on Sex Equality in Education Mary Ellen Verheyden-Hilliard,1976 GO TO Guide for CLAT & other Law Admission Tests with Passage based Questions 3rd Edition Disha Experts,2021-11-13 GO TO Guide for CLAT other Law Admission Tests with latest pattern Passage based Questions as the name suggests is a One Stop Solution for all your requirements for all the Law Admission Tests CLAT AILET SLAT etc The new edition is now empowered with 2021 CLAT AILET Papers The DISTINCT and MOST VALUABLE feature of the book comprises newly created passage based questions on General Knowledge Logical Reasoning Puzzles Problem Solving Elementary Mathematics Data Interpretation Data Analysis exactly in the LATEST pattern of CLAT which will not be found in any other book till date The book also covers the Passage based Questions in the various sections as per the latest pattern of CLAT The book covers different sections of the exams divided into more than 50 chapters Legal Aptitude 8 chapters English Language 10 chapters Logical Reasoning 16 chapters Elementary Mathematics 15 chapters General Knowledge 5 chapters A separate section Indian Constitution and Polity divided into 10 chapters has been provided in the book to help aspirants master the topic Special emphasis has been laid on this section for the purpose of building the aspirants basic foundation for the Legal Aptitude section It will help the aspirants understand every legal aspect implication and relevance of Indian Constitution and Polity so that cracking the Legal Aptitude section of CLAT becomes a cakewalk for them The book covers Previous Years Questions of CLAT as well as AILET from 2015 2021 in the respective chapters of the different sections A large number of questions for extensive practice have been given under every chapter with the solutions provided at the end of the chapter In all the book contains 3300 MCQs GO TO Guide for CLAT & other Law Admission Tests with Passage based Questions 2nd Edition Disha Experts,2020-02-04
