Edinburgh Medical Journal ,1950 Make / Believe John Hartley,2025-01-23 This book illustrates that mediated popular culture and science based knowledge systems entangled and compromised as both have become are still a robust crucible for system change for the future when they combine forces Planetary crises require responses from everyone This means that collective action is not simply a scientific or political problem It is a problem of culture and media But modern politics journalism and science were not designed for global climate action They ve divided humans into competitive and often hostile we and they groups Identity news and knowledge are all weaponized Culture makes groups groups make knowledge and knowledge makes enemies What can be done to prevent global conflict and the drift to war Make Believe turns to popular culture and social media to argue for an alternative storyline While the Great Powers are making new enemies emergent classes led by children are using planetary connectivity to make new worlds A digital planet generates new kinds of strategic stories for pan human action based on difference intersectionality and cooperation for a sustainable Earth system Make Believe shows how alternatives to the Great Game of global contestation are gathering strength in unlikely places among women children lifestyle and pop culture Popular digital media literacy is now a prerequisite for the remediation of the planet German Moravian Missionaries in the British Colony of Victoria, Australia, 1848-1908 Felicity Jenz,2010-01-01 Focusing on the six decades that German Moravian missionaries worked in the British colony of Victoria Australia this book enriches understanding of colonial politics and the role of the non British other in manipulating practice and policy in foreign realms Central to the transnational nature of the book are questions of identity and of how individuals and the organisations they worked for can be seen as both colluders and opposers within nation state borders and politics It analyses the ways in which the Moravian missionaries navigated competing agendas within the colonial setting especially those that impacted on their sense of personal vocation their practices of conversion and their understandings of the indigenous non Christian peoples in the settler society of Victoria Bankers' Magazine, Journal of the Money Market and Commercial Digest ,1932 Encomium Emmae Reginae Alistair Campbell,1998-08-13 The Encomium Emmae Reginae is a political tract in praise as its title suggests of Queen Emma daughter of Duke Richard I of Normandy wife of King Ethelred the Unready from 1002 to 1016 and wife of the Danish conqueror King Cnut from 1017 to 1035 It is a primary source of the utmost importance for our understanding of the Danish conquest of England in the early eleventh century and for the political intrigue in the years which followed the death of King Cnut in 1035 It offers a remarkable account of a woman who was twice a queen and of her determination to retain her power as queen mother This reprint which contains the definitive text and translation of the Encomium Emmae Reginae first published in 1949 traces the basic outline of Queen Emma s career and transports us to the heart of eleventh century politics by defining as clearly as possible the historical context in which the Encomium was written

Confronting the Curse Cullen S. Hendrix, Marcus Noland, 2014 The political economy of natural resource wealth poses two interrelated challenges for American foreign policy both involving governance issues in countries that are abundantly endowed with natural resources The potentially negative impact of natural resources on development is captured in the phrase the resource curse The implications are the greatest for the commodity producers themselves ranging from complications for macroeconomic management to political authoritarianism and in the extreme the precipitation of violent civil conflict For US policy the resource curse presents challenges with respect to coping with state failure and associated transborder phenomena The issues extend to broader geopolitics Resource abundance confers financial and political power on producers China s emergence as a major importer and investor in extraction willing to accommodate authoritarian producers exacerbates the challenge potentially undercutting international efforts to encourage greater transparency and improved management of natural resource wealth This issue is of particular importance for US policy toward Africa

Possession Bain Attwood, 2015-02-04 It contemplates why these agreements were forged how the Aboriginal people understood their terms why government repudiated them and how settlers claimed to be the rightful owners of the land Bain Attwood also reveals the ways in which the settler society has endeavoured to make good its act of possession by repeatedly creating histories that have recalled or repressed the memory of Batman the treaties and the Aborigines destruction and dispossession and charts how Aboriginal people have unsettled this matter of history through their remembering
