praised as a virtue and has been denounced as a vice In no case if we except the perpetual study of newspapers which cannot fairly be called reading is the vice or the virtue common It is more innocent than opium eating though like opium eating it unlocks to us artificial paradises I try to say what I have found in books what distractions from the world what teaching not much and what consolations Adventures Among Books, by Andrew Lang. 3d Impression Andrew Lang,1911 Play
