Each of the 12 chapters is devoted to one widely used sentence structure and its variations. Chapters are broken down into the following easy-to-follow components: Clear presentation of model sentences; Breakdown and explanation of the grammar of key sentence patterns; Controlled practice exercises such as filling in the blanks and imitating model sentences; Free practice exercises using the target sentence structure to create your own sentences; Reading comprehension practice of narrative text and dialogues for consolidation. Online audio files recorded by a native speaker are available for all key Japanese dialogues, and all texts are written in Japanese characters with romanized Japanese and English translation, making the book accessible even for students who have not yet mastered Japanese script. The book is illustrated throughout with drawings that reinforce the meaning of the written text. Japanese Grammar A Workbook for Self Study is ideal for anyone studying for the JLPT N3 test or the AP Japanese Language and Culture test. It is perfect for post-beginners who want to move quickly to the next level and for intermediate students who want to review and perfect their grammar skills.

Reed, Rob Amery, Eric Bouvet, Kayoko Enomoto, Hui Ling Xu, 2020-09-28. This volume encompasses the range of issues encountered by language scholars who teach and research in departments of languages and cultures within the higher education system, predominantly in Australia, but touching other universities worldwide. Related studies on language planning methodology or pedagogy have focused on one or more of these same issues but rarely on their totality.

Intersections as a metaphor running discreetly through the essays in this volume connects them all to a lived reality The field of languages and cultures as it is practised and reflected upon in Australian universities is essentially an interdisciplinary and interconnecting space one in which linguistic and disciplinary diversities meet and join forces rather than collide or disperse along different pathways The international and local studies featured here focus on language planning new pedagogies and language reclamation and link to meeting points and commonalities They show that language scholars are increasingly finding themselves on common ground as they tackle issues of policy and practice affecting their field whether within their institutions within the tertiary system or within the framework of government policy
