Advertising at the Crossroads Max Geller, 2013-06-26 Advertising today is not only under sterner scrutiny by the various federal regulatory and judicial bodies but is also facing an ominous storm of public criticism because of certain abuses One of the big questions troubling advertisers agencies and media is whether advertising will be subject to increasingly stringent governmental controls or whether it will forestall such action by mature self regulation In Advertising at the Crossroads the author has attempted to face the issue squarely and realistically and to point out several constructive measures that advertising must initiate in its self interest First published in 1952 Routledge Library Editions: Advertising Various, 2021-07-14 Routledge Library Editions Advertising brings together as one set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print classics from a variety of academic imprints With titles as varied as Advertising and Psychology Advertising in the 21st Century Outdoor Advertising and The Economics of Advertising this set provides in one place a wealth of important reference sources from a wide range of authors expert in the field Routledge Library Editions:

Psychiatry Various, 2021-07-28 Psychiatry is a medical field concerned with the diagnosis treatment and prevention of mental health conditions Routledge Library Editions Psychiatry 24 Volume set brings together titles originally published between 1958 and 1997 The set demonstrates the varied nature of mental health and how we as a society deal with it Covering a number of areas including child and adolescent psychiatry alternatives to psychiatry the history of mental health and psychiatric epidemiology Routledge Library Editions: Cultural Studies Various Authors, 2021-05-13 This seven volume set reissues a collection of out of print titles covering a range of responses to modern culture They include in depth analyses of US and Australian popular culture works on the media and television macrosociology and the media and otherness Taken together they provide stimulating and thought provoking debate on a wide range of topics central to many of today's cultural controversies Routledge Library Editions: Education in Asia Various, 2021-07-14 This set of reissued books examines education in Asia from a variety of different angles From the westernisation of early twentieth century Chinese education to the impact of the Communist revolution to education and society in Korea to Asian women's experiences of education this set collects some key texts by a range of original thinkers The Oxford Handbook of Music and Advertising James Andrew Deaville, Siu-Lan Tan, Ron Rodman, 2021 This Handbook explains how music contributes to the advertising that the public encounters on a daily basis Chapters examine how the soundtracks of promotional messages originate how we might interpret the meanings behind the music and how commercial messages influence us through music

Books in Print, 1994 Food Marketing and Selling Healthy Lifestyles with Science Lauren Alex O'Hagan, Göran Eriksson, 2024-09-17 This book sets out to historicise our understanding of contemporary trends by studying the long relationship between science food and drink marketing and the promotion of healthy lifestyles It aims to bring together contemporary and historical research from a multimodal perspective considering how scientific discourse and ideas about health and nutrition are channelled through visual and material culture Using examples of advertisements commercials and posters the 16 chapters in this book will foster a cross disciplinary and cross temporal dialogue uncovering links between past and present ways that manufacturers have capitalised upon scientific innovations to create new products or rebrand existing products and employed science to make claims about health and nutrition They will thus demonstrate the continuity of science in food and drink marketing even if fundamental ideas of nutrition have evolved over time The book provides crucial new insights into the significance of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as a period of innovation in food and drink marketing and showcasing how many of the marketing strategies employed today in fact have a far broader historical trajectory It will be of great interest to students and scholars of Critical Food Studies Media and Communication Studies History of Science and Medicine and Cultural Studies as well as nutritionists dieticians sportspeople in addition to policymakers and practitioners working in the area of food and drink marketing
