JG BALLARD

THE ATROCITY EXHIBITION

Introduction by Hari Kunzru

Atrocity Exhibition J G Ballard

William Boyd

Atrocity Exhibition J G Ballard:

The Atrocity Exhibition J. G. Ballard, 2001 First published in 1970 and widely regarded as a prophetic masterpiece this is a groundbreaking experimental novel by the acclaimed author of Crash and Super-Cannes. The irrational all pervading violence of the modern world is the subject of this extraordinary tour de force. The central character's dreams are haunted by images of John F Kennedy and Marilyn Monroe dead astronauts and car crash victims as he traverses the screaming wastes of nervous breakdown. Seeking his sanity he casts himself in a number of roles: H-bomber pilot, presidential assassin, crash victim, psychopath. Finally through the black perverse magic of violence he transcends his psychic turmoils to find the key to a bizarre new sexuality.

The Atrocity Exhibition J. G. Ballard, 1990 When the Atrocity Exhibition was originally printed in 1970 Nelson Doubleday saw a copy and was so horrified he ordered the entire press run shredded. Two years later Grove Press brought out a small hardback printing retitled Love and Napalm. Export USA Now Re/Search brings out an illustrated large format edition of this notorious work augmented with four recently written stories plus extensive annotations written by the author never before published which clarify and illuminate this exhilarating prophetic masterpiece. Book jacket J.G. Ballard, William S. Burroughs and David Cronenberg Mary-Clare Condon, 2002

The Empire's of J. G. Ballard David Ian Paddy, 2015-08-25 J G Ballard once declared that the most truly alien planet is Earth and in his science fiction he abandoned the traditional imagery of rocket ships traveling to distant galaxies to address the otherworldliness of this world. The Empires of J G Ballard is the first extensive study of Ballard's critical vision of nation and empire of the political geography of this planet. Paddy examines how Ballard's self-perceived status as an outsider and exile, the Sheppertonian from Shanghai, generated an outlook that celebrated worldliness and condemned parochialism. This book brings to light how Ballard wrestled with notions of national identity and speculated upon the social and psychological implications of the post-war transformation of older models of empire into new imperialisms of consumerism and globalization. Presenting analyses of Ballard's full body of work with its tales of reverse colonization, psychological imperialism, the savagery of civilization, estranged Englishmen abroad and at home, and multinational communities built on crime, The Empires of J G Ballard offers a fresh perspective on the fiction of J G Ballard. The Empires of J G Ballard: An Imagined Geography offers a sustained and highly convincing analysis of the imperial and post-imperial histories and networks that shape and energise Ballard's fictional and non-fictional writings. To what extent can Ballard be considered an international writer? What happens to our understanding of his post-war science fictions when they are opened up to the language and logics of post-colonialism? And what creative and critical roles do the spectres of empire play in Ballard's visions of modernity? Paddy follows these and other fascinating lines of enquiry in a study that is not only essential reading for Ballard students and scholars but for anyone interested in the intersections of modern and contemporary literature, history and politics. Jeanette Baxter, Anglia Ruskin University, Shanghai. Made my father arriving in England after WW2 he was a person of the world who'd witnessed extremes of human experience and remained the outsider observing life from his home in Shepperton 1930s Shanghai Paris of the East was a mix of international sophistication and violence unfettered capitalism and acute poverty American cars martinis and Coca Cola a place marked by death and war It had a profound influence on my father and his imagination Dr Paddy's fascinating book explores my father's fiction within an international context and offers a profound reading of a man who always kept his eyes and mind open to the world Fay Ballard J.G. Ballard, 2016-07-18 An innovative volume of interdisciplinary essays on the significant British writer J G Ballard 1930 2009 exploring the physical cultural and intertextual landscapes in several key novels with a central focus on The Atrocity Exhibition 1970 one of the most challenging texts in contemporary literature Contributors include established critics of Ballard alongside newcomers Different spatial concepts underpin the essays from the landscapes of Ballard's youth in Shanghai and his life in suburban London to nuclear testing spaces and outer space exploration Figurative locations typical of Ballard's work are explored including the beach the motorway the high rise and the shopping mall Textual spaces are explored through Ballard's affiliation with modernist literary forms including surrealist prose writing and collage and poetic romanticism J.G. Ballard's Surrealist Imagination Jeannette Baxter, 2016-12-05 Making the case that J G Ballard's fictional and non-fictional writings must be read within the framework of Surrealism Jeannette Baxter argues for a radical revisioning of Ballard that takes account of the political and ethical dimensions of his work Ballard's appropriation of diverse Surrealist aesthetic forms and political writings Baxter suggests are mobilised to contest official narratives of postwar history and culture and offer a series of counter historical and counter cultural critiques Thus Ballard's work must be understood as an exercise in Surrealist historiography that is politically and ethically engaged Placing Ballard's illustrated texts within this critical framework permits Baxter to explore the effects of photographs drawings and other visual symbols on the reading experience and the production of meaning Ballard's textual spectacles raise a variety of questions about the shifting role of the reader and the function of the written text within a predominantly visual culture while acknowledging the visual contexts of Ballard's Surrealist writings allows a very different historical picture of the author and his work to emerge

J.G. Ballard Peter Brigg, 1985-01-01 Peter Brigg examines the life and work of British author J G Ballard from his science fiction to his mainstream fiction Starmont Reader's Guide 26 Impossibility Fiction, 2023-12-18 Impossibility fiction is an intergenre that has recently been the resort of many writers searching for new ways of understanding and expressing the real world of the imagination making use of fantasy alternative history and science fiction Coping with ideas that are both impossible and realistically constructed is the ultimate contemporary challenge of our technology The chapters of this book move towards establishing appropriate readings that allow contemporary readers to negotiate unreality a skill that the end of the millennium is making inevitably necessary Such strategies have long been the preserve of literary and cultural study and here a number of well regarded scholars and some new to the field make their contribution to an area that has become increasingly important in recent years From Mary Shelley to Philip K Dick Iain M Banks to J G Ballard taking in African American science fiction Jurassic Park and Kurt Vonnegut and exploring issues of alternative history and ideology feminism the holocaust characterisation and impossible geography this collection is an important source book for all those interested in the literature culture and philosophy of realistic impossible worlds The Sex Is Out of This World Sherry

Ginn, Michael G. Cornelius, Donald E. Palumbo, 2012-11-08 Science fiction can be translated into real unreality More than a genre like fantasy which creates entirely new realms of possibility science fiction constructs its possibilities from what is real from what is indeed possible or conceivably so This collection then looks to understand and explore the unreal reality to note ways in which our culture s continually changing and evolving mores of sex and sexuality are reflected in dissected by and deconstructed through the genre of science fiction This book is a collection of new essays with the general objective of filling a gap in the literature about sex and science fiction although some work has gone before none of it is recent The essays herein explore the myriad ways in which authors regardless of format print film television etc envision very different beings expressing this most fundamental of human behaviors Late Modernism and the Avant-garde British Novel Julia

Jordan, 2020 A study of the experimental novel of the postwar period in Britain that rethinks the resurgence of the literary avant garde that occurred in these decades and explains its implications for the history of the novel and late modernism more broadly J. G. Ballard Jeannette Baxter, 2009-02-12 J G Ballard is one of the most significant British writers of the contemporary period His award winning novels are widely studied and read yet the appeal of Ballard s idiosyncratic and often controversial imagination is such that his work also enjoys something of a cult status with the reading public The hugely successful cinematic adaptations of Empire of the Sun Spielberg 1987 and Crash Cronenberg 1996 further confirm Ballard s unique place within the literary cultural and popular imaginations This guide includes new critical perspectives on Ballard s major novels as well as his short stories and journalistic writing covering issues of form narrative and experimentation Whilst offering fresh readings of dominant and recurring themes in Ballard s writing including history sexuality violence consumer capitalism and urban space the contributors also explore Ballard s contribution to major contemporary debates including those surrounding post 9 11 politics terrorism neo imperialism science morality and ethics

Everything Must Go Dorian Lynskey, 2025-01-28 A rich captivating and darkly humorous look into the evolution of apocalyptic thought exploring how film and literature interact with developments in science politics and culture and what factors drive our perennial obsession with the end of the world As Dorian Lynskey writes People have been contemplating the end of the world for millennia In this immersive and compelling cultural history Lynskey reveals how religious prophecies of the apocalypse were secularized in the early 19th century by Lord Byron and Mary Shelley in a time of dramatic social upheaval and temporary climate change inciting a long tradition of visions of the end without gods With a discerning eye and acerbic wit Lynskey examines how various doomsday tropes and predictions in literature art music and film have arisen from contemporary anxieties whether they be comets pandemics world wars the Cuban Missile Crisis Y2K or the climate emergency Far from being grim Lynskey guides readers through a rich array of fascinating stories and surprising facts allowing us to keep company with celebrated works of art and the people who made them from H G Wells Jack London W B Yeats and J G Ballard to The Twilight Zone Dr Strangelove Mad Max and The Terminator Prescient and original Everything Must Go is a brilliant sweeping work of history that provides many astute insights for our times and speaks to our urgent concerns for the future

Spatial Politics in Contemporary London Literature Laura Colombino, 2013-06-19 This book analyses the spatial politics of a range of British novelists writing on London since the 1950s emphasizing spatial representation as an embodied practice at the point where the architectural landscape and the body enter into relation with each other Colombino visits the city in connection with its boundaries abstract spaces and natural microcosms as they stand in for all the conflicting realms of identity its interstices and ruins are seen as inhabited by bodies that reproduce internally the external conditions of political and social struggle The study brings into focus the fiction in which London provides not a residual interest but a strong psychic phenomenological grounding and where the awareness of the physical reality of buildings and landscape conditions shape the concept of the subject traversing this space Authors such as J G Ballard Geoff Dyer Michael Moorcock Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair Geoff Ryman Tom McCarthy Michael Bracewell and Zadie Smith are considered in order to map the relationship of body architecture and spatial politics in contemporary creative prose on the city Through readings that are consistently informed by recent developments in urban studies and reflections formulated by architects sociologists anthropologists and art critics this book offers a substantial contribution to the burgeoning field of literary urban studies

Interiors Katarzyna Nowak, Sonia Front, 2010-06-09 The essays gathered in the present collection provide textual explorations of the theoretical borderland between interiors and exteriors undertaken from a variety of perspectives and representing varying approaches and understandings of these terms In the realm of theory the distinction between what we choose to include and what we exclude remains a political choice often fraught with dilemmas that cannot be resolved How to discern between interiors and exteriors Where do we draw dividing lines Do we want to draw them anymore Or alternately can we afford not to divide and discern between the inside and outside between here and there between us and them If the binary divisions so much discredited no longer hold if we must include multiplicity and plurality of readings is any distinction between these dimensions possible Essays collected in the present volume attempt to present a wide plethora of answers to these questions

Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd, 2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature

Bad Girls and Sick Boys Linda S. Kauffman, 2023-11-15 Linda S Kauffman turns the pornography debate on its head with this audacious analysis of recent taboo shattering fiction film and performance art Investigating the role of fantasy in art politics and popular culture she shows how technological advances in medicine and science magnetic resonance imaging computers and telecommunications have profoundly altered our concepts of the human body Cyberspace is producing new forms of identity and subjectivity The novelists filmmakers and performers in Bad Girls and Sick Boys are the interpreters of these brave new worlds cartographers who are busy mapping the fin de millennium environment that already envelops us Bad Girls and Sick Boys offers a vital and entertaining tour of the current cultural landscape Kauffman boldly connects the dots between the radical artists who shatter taboos and challenge legal and aesthetic conventions She links writers like John Hawkes and Robert Coover to Kathy Acker and William Vollmann filmmakers like Ngozi Onwurah and Isaac Julien to Brian De Palma and Gus Van Sant and performers like Carolee Schneemann and Annie Sprinkle to the visual arts Kauffman s lively interviews with J G Ballard David Cronenberg Bob Flanagan and Orlan add an extraordinary dimension to her timely and convincing argument Linda S Kauffman turns the pornography debate on its head with this audacious analysis of recent taboo shattering fiction film and performance art Investigating the role of fantasy in art politics and popular culture she shows how technological adv

Posthuman Subjectivity in the Novels of J.G. Ballard Carolyn Lau, 2023-07-28 This book proposes that Ballard s novels extrapolate the formation of a posthuman subjectivity that is centred around an affirmative understanding of what a human body can do This new subjectivity transforms constraints and prescribed desires into creative openings in a hyper mediated control society that conditions docile bodies through technology and consumerism Set in surrealist predicaments in postwar affluent Western societies Ballard s novels remind us of the fragile veneer of order in the familiar every day In these moments of crisis complacent characters are compelled to undergo a process of defamiliarisation and transformation of their understanding of the self and the body The ability to form new relationships with the unfamiliar is imperative to survival in a hostile environment Ballard delineates both the possibilities and obstacles of forming these relationships In particular the author attributes the failure to do so to the irreconcilable contradictions of late capitalism

about the power game currently being played out between two symbiotic cultural institutions the university and the novel As the number of hyper knowledgeable literary fans grows students and researchers in English departments waver between dismissing and harnessing voices outside the academy Meanwhile the role that the university plays in contemporary literary fiction is becoming increasingly complex and metafictional moving far beyond the campus novel of the mid twentieth century Martin Paul Eve's engaging and far reaching study explores the novel's contribution to the ongoing displacement of cultural authority away from university English Spanning the works of Jennifer Egan Ishmael Reed Tom McCarthy Sarah Waters Percival Everett Roberto Bolaño and many others Literature Against Criticism forces us to re think our previous notions about the relationship between those who write literary fiction and those who critique it Violence and Dystopia Daniel Cojocaru, 2015-09-18 Violence and Dystopia is a critical examination of imitative desire scapegoating and sacrifice in selected contemporary Western dystopian narratives through the lens of René Girard's mimetic theory The first chapter offers an overview of the history of Western utopia dystopia with a special emphasis on the problem of conflictive mimesis and scapegoating violence and a critical introduction to Girard's theory The second chapter is devoted to J G Ballard's seminal novel Crash 1973 Chuck Palahniuk's Fight Club 1996 and Rant 2007 and Brad Anderson's film The Machinist 2004 It is argued that the car crash functions as a metaphor for conflictive mimetic desire and leads to a quasi sacrificial crisis as defined by Girard for archaic religion The third chapter focuses on the psychogeographical writings of Iain Sinclair and Peter Ackroyd Walking the streets of London the pedestrian represents the excluded underside of the world of Ballardian speed The walking subject is portrayed in terms of the expelled victim of Girardian theory The fourth chapter considers violent crowds as portrayed by Ballard's late fiction the writings of Stewart Home and David Peace's GB84 2004 In accordance with Girard's hypothesis the discussed narratives reveal the failure of scapegoat expulsion to restore peace to the potentially self destructive violent crowds The fifth chapter examines the post apocalyptic environments resulting from failed scapegoat expulsion and mimetic conflict out of control as portrayed in Sinclair's Radon Daughters 1994 Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale 1985 and Oryx and Crake 2003 and Will Self's The Book of Dave 2006 Bamboo William Boyd, 2012-07-13 Throughout his career as a novelist William Boyd has never stopped writing non fiction providing a fascinating counterpoint to the world of his novels Bamboo gathers together Boyd's writing on literature art the movie business television people he has met places he has visited and autobiographical reflections on his African childhood and his years at boarding school From Pablo Picasso to the allure of the British café from Charles Dickens to Catherine Deneuve from mini cabs to Brideshead Revisited this collection proves an engrossing and revealing companion to the work of one of Britain's leading novelists
