Appropriation Of Colonial Broadcasting Appropriation Of Colonial Broadcasting:

Appropriation of Colonial Broadcasting Elizabeth L. Enriquez, 2008 For the first time a construction of the history of early radio in the Philippines is attempted through the author's painstaking examination of archival records extant publications and private memorabilia as well as interviews with radio broadcasters of the time Transnational Radio Monitoring in the Twentieth Century Suzanne Bardgett, Friederike Kind-Kovács, Vincent Kuitenbrouwer, 2024-09-06 Radio monitoring is an important feature of broadcasting history and monitoring reports form a treasure trove for historians This volume offers six case studies that provide new insights on the importance of radio monitoring during the Second World War and the Cold War Radio broadcasting is not only about transmission but also about listening From the start of the medium's history radio organisations institutionalised services to monitor the broadcasts of stations from all over the globe and write daily reports about them This act of listening provided valuable information about the situation in various parts of the world or insights into the communication strategies of broadcasters As a result collections of monitoring reports are bulky containing countless documents which form a treasure trove for radio historians At the same time researchers need to be aware that these sources are far from neutral monitoring services often serve clear geopolitical objectives in context of conflict situations This volume explores the rich history of radio monitoring during the Second World War and the Cold War As such it offers original case studies that shed light on previously unknown radio histories Moreover all the authors reflect on the use of monitoring reports as a historical source and as such provide methodological guidelines This volume will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of media history war studies media studies sociology and cultural studies It was originally published in Media History A Companion to World War II Thomas W. Zeiler, Daniel M. DuBois, 2012-12-21 A Companion to World War II brings together a series of fresh academic perspectives on World War II exploring the many cultural social and political contexts of the war Essay topics range from American anti-Semitism to the experiences of French African soldiers providing nearly 60 new contributions to the genre arranged across two comprehensive volumes A collection of original historiographic essays that include cutting edge research Analyzes the roles of neutral nations during the war Examines the war from the bottom up through the experiences of different social classes Covers the causes key battles and consequences of the war The Diplomat-Scholar Erwin S Fernandez, 2017-04-27 Leon Ma Guerrero 1915-82 a top notch writer and diplomat served six Philippine presidents beginning with President Manuel L. Quezon and ending with President Ferdinand E. Marcos In this first full length biography Guerrero's varied career as writer and diplomat is highlighted from an amateur student editor and associate editor of a prestigious magazine to ambassador to different countries that reflected then the exciting directions of Philippine foreign policy But did you know that he served as public prosecutor in the notorious Nalundasan murder case involving the future Philippine president Did you also know that during his stint as ambassador to the Court of Saint James he wrote his prize winning biography of Philippine national hero

Jose Rizal Learn more about him in this fully documented biography recounting with much detail from his correspondence the genesis and evolution of his thinking about the First Filipino which is the apposite title of his magnum opus Beauty and Brutality Martin F. Manalansan IV, Martin F. Manalansan, Robert Diaz, Roland B. Tolentino, 2023-01-06 This edited volume deconstructs popular generalizations of Manila Bringing together scholars from across the humanities and social sciences this volume presents a series of multidisciplinary lenses to understand the complexities and contradictions of Manila illustrating the breadth of experience it represents and that its citizens live Relative Histories Rocio G. Davis, 2022-04-30 Relative Histories focuses on the Asian American memoir that specifically recounts the story of at least three generations of the same family This form of auto biography concentrates as much on other members of one's family as on oneself generally collapses the boundaries conventionally established between biography and autobiography and in many cases as Rocio G Davis proposes for the auto biographies of ethnic writers crosses the frontier into history promoting collective memory Davis centers on how Asian American family memoirs expand the limits and function of life writing by reclaiming history and promoting community cohesion She argues that identity is shaped by not only the stories we have been told but also the stories we tell making these narratives important examples of the ways we remember our family's past and tell our community's story In the context of auto biographical writing or filmmaking that explores specific ethnic experiences of diaspora assimilation and integration this work considers two important aspects These texts re imagine the past by creating a work that exists both in history and as a historical document making the creative process a form of re enactment of the past itself Each chapter centers on a thematic concern germane to the Asian American experience the narrative of twentieth century Asian wars and revolutions which has become the subtext of a significant number of Asian American family memoirs Pang Mei Natasha Chang's Bound Feet and Western Dress May lee and Winberg Chai's The Girl from Purple Mountain K Connie Kang's Home Was The Land of Morning Calm Doung Van Mai Elliott's The Sacred Willow family experiences of travel and displacement within Asia in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries which unveil a history of multiple diasporas that are often elided after families immigrate to the United States Helie Lee's Still Life With Rice Jael Silliman's Jewish Portraits Indian Frames Mira Kamdar's Motiba's Tattoos and the development of Chinatowns as family spaces Maxine Hong Kingston's China Men Lisa See's On Gold Mountain Bruce Edward Hall's Tea that Burns The final chapter analyzes the discursive possibilities of the filmed family memoir family portrait documentary examining Lise Yasui's A Family Gathering Ruth Ozeki Lounsbury's Halving the Bones and Ann Marie Fleming's The Magical Life of Long Tack Sam Davis concludes the work with a metaliterary engagement with the history of her own Asian diasporic family as she demonstrates the profound interconnection between forms of life writing Independent Offices Appropriation Bill for 1946 United States. Congress. House. Appropriations, 1945 Singapore Radio Bradley C. Freeman, Yoganathan Ramakrishnan, 2016-04-26 The world of media moves quickly nowhere is this more the case than Singapore a world class alpha city that prides itself on being first

This book tracks the journey of Singapore radio from its humble beginnings to its advanced modern day incarnations Along the way Freeman and Ramakrishnan also detail economic political cultural and technological aspects of this medium in Singapore The role of radio is deliberated as well as the times when radio and its personalities have broken the rules In addition campus radio and social media are also discussed The book functions as a treasure trove partial archive and starting point for those interested in knowing more about the radio portion of Singapore s media landscape At the same time it serves as a fitting birthday present to the medium as radio meets and passes the 80 year mark in the country As such the book makes significant contributions to multiple aspects of the radio medium as it exists in Singapore aspects that are not to be found anywhere else
