The Wonderful World Book By Kate Petty:

The Wonderful World of Mathematics Diane Thiessen, Margaret Matthias, 1992 The National Council of Teachers of Mathematics NCTM has articulated goals in the pursuit of mathematics literacy that include learning to value mathematics becoming confident in one's mathematics abilities becoming a mathematical problem solver learning to communicate mathematically and learning to reason mathematically Literature that explores mathematical concepts seems to be a natural tool for attaining those goals The NCTM formed a committee to read and review books and to prepare the manuscript for this annotated bibliography of children's books in mathematics This book provides reviews for approximately 500 books in mathematics for preschool through grade 6 Each review describes the book's content and accuracy its illustrations and their appropriateness the author's writing style and whether activities for the reader are included Each book is rated in terms of its usefulness in teaching mathematical concepts as highly recommended recommended acceptable or not recommended for mathematical concepts The grade level of each book is included in the bibliographical entry The books have been classified into four main categories with respect to their mathematical content 1 early number concepts 2 number extensions and connections 3 measurement and 4 geometry and spatial sense An overview for each of the categories can be found at the beginning of each section Two indexes list the books by author and by title MDH

Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3-11 Margaret Mallett, 2010-07-02 Winner of the United Kingdom Literacy Association's Author Award 2011 for its contribution to extending children's literacy Praise for the book This book is about making readers A compact summary of its contents would not do it justice It is the account of a life's work and it deserves thanks and readers Margaret Meek Books for Keeps on line Number 185 November 2010 This book is a cornucopia of varied pleasures offering something for all tastes presented with an awareness of the complexities of the field and communicated with commitment enthusiasm and deep knowledge Eve Bearne English 4 11 the primary school journal of The English Association Number 42 Summer 2011

Choosing and Using Fiction and Non Fiction 3 11 is a guide to the many kinds of text we want children to encounter use and enjoy during their nursery and primary school years So children's non fiction literature including autobiography biography information and reference texts is given equal status with fiction nursery rhymes picturebooks novels traditional tales playscripts and poetry The author addresses important issues and allows the voices of teachers reviewers and children to be heard The book supports teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction It also contains suggestions for practice which are in the spirit of the more flexible and creative approach to learning towards which primary schools are moving It includes help on using criteria to select quality texts of all kinds annotated booklists for each kind of text for different age groups suggestions for keeping a balance between print and screen based texts case studies showing teachers and children using texts in interesting and imaginative ways to support learning in English lessons and across the curriculum advice on developing children's visual and multimodal literacy guidance on using the school library and embedding study skills in children's wider purposes and learning critiques of key theoretical perspectives and research projects Although the main readership will be primary and student teachers it is hoped that the book will be of interest and use to anyone concerned with the role of texts in children's learning
