

The book cover features a warm, golden-yellow background. At the top, the author's name 'ANDY MULLIGAN' is written in a serif font. Below it, the title 'Wonder' is rendered in large, dark, textured letters that appear to be made of crumpled paper or fabric. A silhouette of a young boy with his arms outstretched is positioned in the center, looking up at the title. The background is filled with a dense, chaotic pattern of small, dark, irregular shapes, resembling confetti or debris. The overall mood is one of hope and discovery.

With the constant barrage of difficult stories through news and social media today's kids are increasingly aware of the real problems real people confront every day. And they're quicker than ever to come to parents and other trusted adults to ask how they can help or why they're not already doing so. And Social Justice for All equips Christian families to tackle social justice issues together. It inspires them to bring light and love to a dark and scary world. Educator and mom Lisa Van Engen creates innovative resources to engage kids in understanding and responding to fourteen justice issues such as clean water, creation care, immigration and refugees, hunger, race and poverty. After placing each issue in a kid-friendly context, she offers interactive features: High interest conversation starters for each age group to challenge thinking and assumptions; A family devotional to anchor each social justice issue in God's Word; Engaging age-tiered activities for reading, playing, observing, creating, connecting and experimenting in God's world; Tips and internet links to extend awareness and invest resources in social justice. Throughout each chapter, children speak their own thoughts about injustice and what they think God is calling them to do.
