Russian Life, 2005 A Malleable Map Kären Wigen, 2010-05-27 Kären Wigen probes regional cartography, chorography and statecraft to redefine restoration in modern Japanese history. As developed here, that term designates not the quick coup d'état of 1868 but a three centuries long project of rehabilitating an ancient map for modern purposes. Drawing on a wide range of geographical documents from Shinano present day Nagano Prefecture, Wigen argues that both the founder of the Tokugawa Shogunate 1600-1868 and the reformers of the Meiji era 1868-1912 recruited the classical map to serve the cause of administrative reform. Nor were they alone: provincial men of letters played an equally critical role in bringing imperial geography back to life in the countryside. To substantiate these claims, Wigen traces the continuing career of the classical court's most important unit of governance, the province, in central Honshu. Participatory Rural

Communication Appraisal Starting with the People Chike Anyaegbunam, Paolo Mefalopulos, Titus Moetsabi, 2004-01-01. This handbook sets out a step by step procedure for planning and conducting evaluation of communication programmes with communities in a participatory way in order to design effective communication for development programmes and initiatives. It can be used as a reference guide for conducting participatory rural communication appraisal (PRCA) in the field as well as a training guide for capacity building. It actively involves people in the research process to ensure that communication for development programmes are effective and relevant to their needs and preferences. Calendars of the United States
