Philipp E. Nothaft,2014-05-22 During the later Middle Ages twelfth to fifteenth centuries the study of chronology astronomy and scriptural exegesis among Christian scholars gave rise to Latin treatises that dealt specifically with the Jewish calendar and its adaptation to Christian purposes In Medieval Latin Christian Texts on the Jewish Calendar C Philipp E Nothaft offers the first assessment of this phenomenon in the form of critical editions English translations and in depth studies of five key texts which together shed fascinating new light on the avenues of intellectual exchange between medieval Jews and Christians From Jupiter to Christ Jörg Rüpke (theologian),2014 Emerging from a decade of research From Jupiter to Christ demonstrates that the decisive change within the Roman imperial period was not a growing number of religions or changes in their ranking and success but a modification of the idea of religion and a change in the social place of religious practices and beliefs The Synagogue in Ancient Palestine: Current Issues and Emerging Trends Rick Bonnie,Raimo Hakola,Ulla Tervahauta,2020-12-14 This book brings together leading experts in the field of ancient synagogue studies to discuss the current issues and emerging trends in the study of synagogues in ancient Palestine Divided into four thematic units the different contributions apply archaeological textual historical and art historical methodologies to questions related to ancient synagogues Part One addresses issues related to the origins and early development of synagogues up to 200 CE The contributions provide different explanations to the alleged lack of evidence for synagogues built in the second and third centuries CE and ask how much continuity or change there is between the late Second Temple and late Roman early Byzantine synagogues Part Two deals with architecture and dating of ancient synagogues It gives an overview of all synagogues found so far approaches the dating of Galilean synagogues in the light of the recently exposed synagogue at Huqoq and provides a stylistic re-evaluation of the Capernaum synagogue decoration Part three examines leadership power and daily life in late antique synagogue contexts illustrating non-monumental inscriptions amulets and dining in synagogue contexts as well as the role of individual benefactors Section four contextualizes synagogue art An overview of synagogue mosaics in late antique Palestine is complemented with reinterpretations of the mosaics two synagogues The section also offers a discussion of the appearance of the menorah The Emperor's House Michael Featherstone, Jean-Michel Spieser, Gülru Tanman, Ulrike Wulf-Rheidt, 2015-08-31 Evolving from a patrician domus the emperor's residence on the Palatine became the centre of the state administration Elaborate ceremonial regulated access to the imperial family creating a system of privilege which strengthened the centralised power Constantine followed the same model in his new capital under a Christian veneer The divine attributes of the imperial office were refashioned with the emperor as God's representative The palace was an imitation of heaven Following the loss of the empire in the West and the Near East the Palace in Constantinople was preserved subject to the transition from Late Antique to Mediaeval conditions until the Fourth Crusade attracting the attention of Visigothic Lombard Merovingian Carolingian Norman and Muslim rulers Renaissance princes later drew inspiration for their residences directly from ancient ruins and Roman literature but there was also contact with the Late Byzantine court Finally in the age of Absolutism the palace became again an instrument of power in vast centralised states with renewed interest in Roman and Byzantine ceremonial Spanning the broadest chronological and geographical limits of the Roman imperial tradition from the Principate to the Ottoman empire the papers in the volume treat various aspects of palace architecture art and ceremonial Scandalous Error C. Philipp E. Nothaft, 2018 The Gregorian calendar reform of 1582 which provided the basis for the civil and Western ecclesiastical calendars still in use today has often been seen as a triumph of early modern scientific culture or an expression of papal ambition in the wake of the Counter Reformation Much less attention has been paid to reform's intellectual roots in the European Middle Ages when the reckoning of time by means of calendrical cycles was a topic of central importance to learned culture as impressively documented by the survival of relevant texts and tables in thousands of manuscripts copied before 1500 For centuries prior to the Gregorian reform astronomers mathematicians theologians and even Church councils had been debating the necessity of improving or emending the existing ecclesiastical calendar which throughout the Middle Ages kept losing touch with the astronomical phenomena at an alarming pace Scandalous Error is the first comprehensive study of the medieval literature devoted to the calendar problem and its cultural and scientific contexts It examines how the importance of ordering liturgical time by means of a calendar that comprised both solar and lunar components posed a technical astronomical problem to medieval society and details the often sophisticated ways in which computists and churchmen reacted to this challenge By drawing attention to the numerous connecting paths that existed between calendars and mathematical astronomy between the Fall of Rome and the end of the fifteenth century the volume offers substantial new insights on the place of exact science in medieval culture Finding Antiquity, Making the Modern Middle East Guillemette Crouzet, Eva Miller, 2025-06-12 This volume presents innovative studies of how the emerging disciplines of archaeology and ancient history shaped the modern Middle East and how they were in turn shaped by competing visions and agendas of empires and new nations The Middle East was a region constructed through its putatively unique relationship to the whole world's past and its special relevance for the destiny of empires and nations Over the course of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries European empires fought for influence and control over this cradle of civilization empire and monuments and local powers and people in the Middle East worked with and against these historical and heritage frameworks in their own quests for self-determination In this volume contributors from the fields of history archaeology and heritage explore how historical consciousness about the Middle East was contested in the nineteenth and early twentieth century through excavation and interpretation of the past Chapters span West Asia and North Africa covering Turkey Iraq Iran Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Egypt and Tunisia and the imperial history of Britain France Germany and the Ottoman Empire The result is an original contribution to our understanding of the origins and influence of Middle Eastern archaeology which resonates today in contemporary discussions on heritage discourses and practices

Archaeoastronomy and the Maya Gerardo Aldana y Villalobos,Edwin L. Barnhart,2014-05-30 Archaeoastronomy and the Maya illustrates archaeoastronomical approaches to ancient Mayan cultural production The book is contextualized through a history of archaeoastronomical investigations into Mayan sites originating in the 19th century discovery of astronomical tables within hieroglyphic books Early 20th century archaeological excavations revealed inscriptions carved into stone that also preserved astronomical records along with architecture that was built to reflect astronomical orientations These materials provided the basis of a growing professionalized archaeoastronomy blossoming in the 1970s and expanding into recent years The chapters here exemplify the advances made in the field during the early 21st century as well as the ongoing diversity of approaches presenting new perspectives and discoveries in ancient Mayan astronomy that result from recent studies of architectural alignments codices epigraphy iconography ethnography and calendrics More than just investigations of esoteric ancient sciences studies of ancient Mayan astronomy have profoundly aided our understanding of Mayan worldviews Concepts of time and space meanings encoded in religious art intentions underlying architectural alignments and even methods of political legitimization are all illuminated through the study of Mayan astronomy

The Vatican Heresy Robert Bauval, Chiara Hohenzollern, 2014-03-01 Reveals how the largest Sun Temple in the world built according to Hermetic principles is located at one of Christianity's holiest sites the Vatican Shows how famous Renaissance philosophers and scientists called for a Hermetic reformation of Christianity by building a magical Temple of the Sun in Rome Explains how the Vatican architect Bernini designed St Peter's Square to reflect heliocentric and Hermetic principles Reveals how the design was masterminded by Bernini Jesuit scholars the mystical Queen Christine of Sweden and several popes In 16th century Italy in the midst of the Renaissance two powerful movements took hold The first the Hermetic Movement was inspired by an ancient set of books housed in the library of Cosimo de Medici and written by the Egyptian sage Hermes Trismegistus The movement expounded the return of the true religion of the world based on a form of natural magic that could draw down the powers of the heavens and incorporate them into statues and physical structures The other movement the Heliocentric Movement launched by Copernicus was a direct challenge to the Vatican's biblical interpretation of a geocentric world system Declared a heresy by the Pope those who promoted it risked the full force of the Inquisition Exploring the meeting point of these two movements authors Robert Bauval and Chiara Hohenzollern reveal how the most outspoken and famous philosophers alchemists and scientists of the Renaissance such as Giordano Bruno and Marsilio Ficino called for a Hermetic reformation of the Christian religion by building a magical utopic city an architectural version of the heliocentric system Using contemporary documents and the latest cutting edge theses the authors show that this Temple of the Sun was built in Rome directly in front of the Vatican's Basilica of St Peter They explain how the Vatican architect Bernini designed St Peter's Square to reflect the esoteric principles of the Hermetica and how the square is a detailed representation of the heliocentric system Revealing the magical architectural plan masterminded by the Renaissance's greatest minds including Bernini Jesuit scholars Queen Christine of Sweden and several popes the authors expose the ultimate heresy of all time blessed by the Vatican itself

Urban Religion Jörg Rüpke, 2020-02-24 So far religion has been seen as cause for dramatic developments in the history of cities it has contributed to the monumentalisation of centres and or has given importance to ex centric places Very recently anthropologists have been discovering religion in the contemporary global city But still awaiting historical investigation is the specific urban character of religious ideas practices and institutions and the role of urban space shaping this very religion in the course of history The time span from the Hellenistic age to Late Antiquity was crucial in the establishment of concepts and institutions of religion and witnessed extended waves of urbanisation Rome being central to this In addressing this problem this book fills a significant gap in the scholarship on urban religion across time Taking seriously the proposition that space is condition medium and outcome of social relations the development of urban religion in lived urban space and urban culture or urbanity offers a lens onto processes of religious change that have been neglected for the history of religion and for the study of urbanism The key thesis is that city space engineered the major changes that revolutionised religions This stimulating book makes use of archaeology and history to address religion as an essential component of urban life in both the past and the present With a strong basis in the ancient Mediterranean as well as an insightful view of modern urban life R pke emphasizes that the practice and performance of religion at the everyday level is as essential in the creation of an urban ethos as the grand temples and institutions promulgated by the elite Monica L Smith author of Cities The First 6 000 Years J rg R pke offers a characteristically original and learned series of reflections on some of the many ways in which the history of religions and the history of cities might be entangled Urban Religion offers no single overarching thesis but it is consistently thought provoking and suggests many intriguing lines of investigation for the future Greg Woolf Institute of Classical Studies London
