Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05
Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years Urban Public Transport Systems Innovation in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Era Trynos Gumbo, Thembani Moyo, Bongumusa Ndwandwe, Brightnes Risimati, Siphwe Given Mbatha, 2022-04-02 This book explores the physical and electronic integration of innovative urban public transport systems in seven metropolitan cities in South Africa and Zimbabwe in the era of the Fourth Industrial Revolution Industry 4.0 The book also highlights how collaborative engagement can improve new transport projects in cities of the Global South It demonstrates how integration concerns remain in transport infrastructure projects in cities of the developing countries Consequently in order to strengthen the emerging and promising economies of these cities there is a need for efficient integrated reliable and affordable public transport systems The book explains that plans to deliver innovative transport systems in the Global South need to be well coordinated and managed to yield physically and electronically integrated systems Transformative Environmental Constitutionalism Melanie Murcott, 2022-10-24 Given the Anthropocene's converging socio-ecological crises particularly the dire issue of climate change social movements are increasingly approaching the courts to advance intersecting struggles for social environmental and climate justice Transformative constitutional regimes in South Africa and elsewhere that incorporate environmental and human rights protections offer potentially powerful legal norms to advance the struggles of these movements Grappling with such norms and with problematic trends in adjudication Prof Melanie Jean Murcott develops a legal theory of Transformative Environmental Constitutionalism as a novel framework within which courts could adjudicate environmental law disputes developing law for the Anthropocene's global struggles Smart Transitions in City Regionalism Tassilo Herrschel, Yonn Dierwechter, 2018-03-22 In recent years smartness has risen as a buzzword to characterize novel urban policy and development patterns As a result of this debates around what smart actually means both theoretically and empirically have emerged within the interdisciplinary arenas of urban and regional studies This book explores the changes in discourse rationality and selected responses of smartness through the theme of transition The concept of transition provides the broader context and points of reference for adopting smartness in reconciling competing interests and agendas in city regional governance Using case studies from around the world including North America Europe and South Africa the authors link external regime transition in societal values and goals with internal moves towards smartness While reflecting the growing integration of overarching themes and analytical concerns this volume further develops work on smartness smart growth transition city regionalism governance and sustainability Smart Transitions in City Regionalism explores how smart cities and city regions interact with conventional state structures It will be of great interest to postgraduates and advanced undergraduates across urban studies geography sustainability studies and political science

Optimizing Regional Development Through Transformative Urbanization Benna, Umar G.,2018-08-10 Assisted by globalization and the rapid application of advanced technologies the transformative power of urbanization is being felt around the world The scale and the speed of existing and projected urbanization poses several challenges to researchers in multiple disciplines such as computer science engineering and the social sciences Optimizing Regional Development Through Transformative Urbanization provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of applications within urban growth interventions It also explores the strategies for new urban development tools such as the rise of new platforms for digital activities concepts of sharing economy collaborative economy crowdsourcing and crowdfunding Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as cryptocurrencies public private partnership and urban governance this book is a vital reference for city development planners decision makers policymakers academicians researchers and professionals seeking current research on the delivery of transformative urbanization changes
