Unformed Landscape Peter Stamm, 2010-02-23 Unformed Landscape begins in a small village on a fjord in the Finnmark on the northeastern coast of Norway where the borders between Norway Sweden Finland and Russia lie covered in snow and darkness where the real borders are between day and night summer and winter and between people Here a sensitive young woman like Kathrine finds few outlets for her desires Half Norwegian half Sami an indigenous people Kathrine works for the customs office inspecting the fishing boats arriving regularly in the harbor She is in her late 20s has a son from an early marriage and has drifted into a second loveless marriage to a man whose cold and dominating conventionality forms a bold stroke through the unformed landscape of her life After she makes a discovery about her husband that deeply wounds her Kathrine cuts loose from her moorings and her confusion and sets off in search of herself Her journey begins aboard a ship headed south taking her below the Arctic Circle for the first time in her life Kathrine makes her way to France and has the bittersweet experience of a love affair that flares and dies quickly her starved senses rewarded by the shimmering beauty of Paris Through a series of poignant encounters Kathrine is led to the richer life she was meant to have and is brave enough to claim Using simple words strung together in a melodic alphabet Peter Stamm introduces us through a series of intimate sketches to the heart of an unforgettable woman Her story speaks eloquently about solitude the fragility of love lost illusions and self discovery Psychoanalysis of Evil Henry Kellerman, 2014-07-28 For all our knowledge of psychopathology and sociopathology and despite endless examinations of abuse and torture mass murder and genocide we still don't have a real handle on why evil exists where it derives from or why it is so ubiquitous A compelling synthesis of diverse schools of thought Psychoanalysis of Evil identifies the mental infrastructure of evil and deciphers its path from vile intent to malignant deeds Evil is defined as manufactured in the psyche the acting out of repressed wishes stemming from a toxic mix of harmful early experiences such as abuse and neglect profound anger negative personality factors and mechanisms such as projection This analysis brings startling clarity to seemingly familiar territory that is persons and events widely perceived as evil Strongly implied in this far reaching understanding is a call for more accurate forms of intervention and prevention as the author Reviews representations of evil from theological philosophical and psychoanalytic sources Locates the construction of evil in psychodynamic aspects of the psyche Translates vague abstractions of evil into recognizable concepts Exemplifies this theory with the lives and atrocities of Hitler and Stalin Applies psychoanalytic perspective to the genocides in Turkey Pakistan Cambodia and Rwanda Revisits Hannah Arendt's concept of the banality of evil Psychoanalysis of Evil holds a unique position in the literature and will gather considerable interest among readers in social psychology psychoanalysis sociology and political anthropology Historians of mass conflict should find it instructive as well Beyond the Metafictional Mode Robert C. Spires, 2021-11-21 The term metafiction invaded the vocabulary of literary criticism around 1970 yet the textual strategies involved in turning fiction back onto itself can be traced through several centuries In this theoretical critical study Robert C Spires examines the nature of metafiction and chronicles its evolution in Spain from the time of Cervantes to the 1970s when the obsession with novelistic self commentary culminated in an important literary movement The critical portions of this study focus primarily on twentieth century works Included are analyses of Unamuno's Niebla Jarn's Locura y muerte de nadie and La novia del viento Torrente Ballester's Don Juan Cunqueiro's Un hombre que se parec a a Orestes and three novels from the self referential movement of the 1970s Juan Goytisolo's Juan sin Tierra Luis Goytisolo's La colera de Aquiles and Mart n Gait e's El cuarto de atr s Seeking a stronger theoretical basis for his critical readings Spires offers a sharpened definition of the term metafiction The mode arises he declares through an intentional violation of the boundaries that normally separate the worlds of the author the fiction and the reader Building on theoretical foundations laid by Frye Scholes Genette and others Spires also proposes a literary paradigm that places metafiction in a position intermediate between fiction and literary theory These theoretical formulations place Spires's book in the forefront of critical thought At the same time his full scale analyses of Spanish metafictional works will be welcomed by Hispanists and other students of world literature

Fiction Beyond Secularism Justin Neuman, 2014-07-31 Modernist thinkers once presumed a progressive secularity with the novel replacing religious texts as society's moral epics Yet religion beginning with the Iranian revolution of 1979 through the collapse of communism and culminating in the singular rupture of September 11 2001 has not retreated quietly out of sight In Fiction Beyond Secularism Justin Neuman argues that contemporary novelists who are most commonly identified as antireligious among them Orhan Pamuk Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Margaret Atwood Nadine Gordimer Haruki Murakami and J M Coetzee have defied assumptions and have instead written some of the most trenchant critiques of secular ideologies as well as the most exciting and rigorous inquiries into the legacies of the religious imagination As a result many readers or nonreaders on either side of the religious divide neglect the insights of works like The Satanic Verses Disgrace and Snow Fiction Beyond Secularism serves as a timely corrective

(Beyond) Posthuman Violence: Epic Rewritings of Ethics in the Contemporary Novel Claudio Murgia, 2019-12-02 Neuroscience tells us that the brain is nothing but a metaphor machine capable of extracting meaning from a chaotic reality Following Agamben Arendt Benjamin and Iek a theory of violence can be established according to which violence is a reaction on the part of the individual to the frustration generated by having her metaphor machine suppressed by the mythic narrative of the Law In opposition to mythic violence Benjamin posits the justice of divine violence Divine justice is an excess of life the very uniqueness of the metaphor machine The individual is affected by a difficulty to communicate her metaphor machine to the Other as if it were inexpressible This work explores how the characters in the works of David Foster Wallace Cormac MacCarthy J G Ballard Bret Easton Ellis Chuck Palahniuk William Gibson Neal Stephenson Maurice G Dantec and China Mieville suffer from these limits of language and the constrictions of the Law Through violence they look for their individual Voice intended as their will to say the pure taking place of language Agamben In their struggle to be heard these characters are however deaf to the Voice of the Other There is a need for a new Ethics of Narratives expressed through an Epic of the Voice founded on the will to listen along the lines of the concept of the posthuman theorized by Rosi Braidotti Here subjectivity is a process of constant autopoiesis dependent on the relationship the individual has with the Other and the environment around her that is in the reciprocal will to say and will to listen Human beings can meet in the taking place of language in the place before the suppressive language of the Law is even born in a meeting of Voices
