Beyond Literary Chinatown Jeffrey F. L. Partridge, 2007 American Book Award Winner Before Columbus Foundation
The phenomenon of literary Chinatown the ghettoization of Chinese American literature was produced by the same dynamics of race and representation that ghettoized the Chinese American community into literal Chinatowns In a 1982 response to reviews of Woman Warrior Maxine Hong Kingston pinpointed the crux of the matter How dare they make their ignorance our inscrutability Jeffrey F L Partridge examines the dynamic relationship between reader expectations of Chinese American literature and the challenges to these expectations posed by recent Chinese American texts challenges that push our understanding of a multicultural society to new horizons Partridge builds on the concept of a reading horizon a set of expectations and assumptions that a reader brings to a text to explore the crucial interplay between reader author and text Arguing that authors like Kingston Li Young Lee Gish Jen Shawn Wong Shirley Geok lin Lim and David Wong Louie are aware of their readers horizons and write to challenge those assumptions Partridge demonstrates how their writings function as a potent medium of cultural transformation With attentive readings not only of literary texts but also of book reviews and publishers marketing materials Partridge enables us to chart and to understand the changes in Chinese American literature and its reception in the past fifty years In doing so he threads a new path forward in the discussion of race and ethnicity in America one that encompasses the historical valence of multiculturalism and the cross fertilizing perspectives of postmodern hybridity theory while remaining cognizant of the persistence of racist and racialized thinking in contemporary American society Beyond Literary Chinatown demonstrates how Chinese American literature has come to negotiate the tensions between the expression of ethnic identity and a resistance to racialization This important contribution to the growing body of critical works on Asian American literature will be of interest to reception theorists and scholars of American ethnic studies and American literature The Presbyterian ,1898 Choice ,1987
