Beyond the pyramids Gay Robins, 1991      Beyond the Pyramids Museum of Art and Archaeology. Atlanta, Ga., Elvira D'Amicone, Museo Egizio. Torino, 1990      The Egyptian Collection at Norwich Castle Museum Faye Kalloniatis, 2019-08-30 The Egyptian Collection at Norwich Castle Museum represents the first full publication of this important collection which contains several outstanding objects Part 1 begins with an outline of the acquisition history of the Egyptian collection and its display within Norwich Castle in 1894 when it was converted from a prison to a museum The collection was largely acquired between the nineteenth and first part of the twentieth centuries Its most prominent donor was Flaxman Spurrell whose varied collection of flints faience beads and necklaces as well as Late Antique cloths was obtained from Sir Flinders Petrie Also prominent was the Norwich based Colman family most notable for its manufacture of mustard whose collection was purchased in Egypt during the late C19 Also included in this part are essays on several of the museum's outstanding items Ipu's shroud a rare early 18th Dynasty example with fragments also held in Cairo the 22nd Dynasty finely decorated and well preserved cartonnage and wooden lid of the priest Ankh-hor and the exceptional model granary of Nile clay painted with lively scenes one showing the owner Intef playing senet Part 2 is a detailed catalogue of the complete collection It is organised into sections with objects grouped together mainly according to type stelae shabtis scarabs jewellery amulets vessels flints lamps inscribed Book of the Dead fragments metal figurines and Late Antique cloths and also according to function such as cosmetics grooming and architectural furniture elements The inscribed materials have all been translated and individual entries give examples or parallels Seventy colour plates illustrate each object      The Coffin of Hegata Harco Willems, 1996 The coffin published in this book represents a type that had some popularity in southern Upper Egypt in the early Middle Kingdom but which despite its extraordinary decoration had not attracted attention so far The most striking feature of the decoration is that the object friezes the pictorial rendering of ritual implements usually found on coffin interiors of the period also include complete ritual scenes some of which are attested only here Apart from this the decoration includes an extensive selection of the religious texts known as the Coffin Texts. The author first studies the archaeological context and dating of the coffin and attempts a reconstruction of the construction procedures from his technical description of the monument. The detailed account of the decoration in the rest of the book interprets the ritual iconography and offers fresh translations and interpretations of the Coffin Texts. A methodological innovation is that he regards the scenes and texts not as individual decoration elements but as components of an integral composition. The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth. On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification; on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum. These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased's regeneration. The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent. The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion.

The Representations of Women in the Middle Kingdom Tombs of Officials Ľubica Hudáková, 2019-07-22. In The Representations of Women in the Middle Kingdom Tombs of Officials Ľubica Hudáková offers an in-depth analysis of female iconography in the decorative programme of Middle Kingdom non-royal tombs, highlighting changes and innovations in comparison to the Old Kingdom. Previously considered too uniform, the study represents the first systematic investigation of two-dimensional images of women and reveals their variability in space and time. Hudáková examines the roles appointed to women by analyzing how they are depicted in a variety of contexts. Taking into account their postures, gestures, garments, hairstyles, size of the body, age, as well as attributes and tools used by them, along with the scene orientation, she traces diachronic and diatopic developments and regional traditions in the Middle Kingdom tomb decoration.
