Producing Cultural Change in Political Communities Holger Mölder, Camelia Florela Voinea, Vladimir Sazonov, 2023-11-13 In light of many crises in the last two decades including democratic recession, climate change, economic crises, and massive waves of migration affecting perceptions of security around the world, this book examines the impact of cultural change in political communities on the global political and security environment. Through various case studies of political communities around the world, the book analyzes contemporary responses to cultural change, often culminating in the rise of political populism and extremism. The book is divided into two parts and presents a foreword by Larry Diamond and an afterword by Eric Shiraev. The first part focuses on the micro level of cultural change in political communities and discusses conflict mechanisms and the role of political participation in producing changes. The second part features studies on extremism and populism, analyzing their impact on cultural change in Europe. The book is intended for scholars and students in a variety of disciplines including international relations, security studies, cultural studies, and related fields.

Prosthesis David Wills, 1995 Prosthesis is an experiment in critical writing that both analyzes and performs certain questions about the body as an artificial construction. The book deals with the mechanical, e.g., a mechanical prosthesis like a father's artificial leg, in that most humanistic discourses the artistic in order to demonstrate to what extent a supposedly natural creation relies on artificial devices of various kinds. It is distinguished from a thematics of the prosthetic in literature by its complex articulation with accounts of the amputee father's discomfort slipping back and forth between an apparently constative and a more obviously performative mode in and out of fiction and autobiography. Cutting across the terrains occupied traditionally by the history of medicine, film studies, art history, philosophy, psychoanalysis, literary theory, and fiction, it finds an artistic or cultural pretext for each of its expositions: a line from Virgil, a painting by Conder, a theory by Freud, a film by Greenaway, a text by Derrida, novels by Roussel or Gibson, a sixteenth-century rhetoric that connects thematically or theoretically with the question of prosthesis.

A Ship Named Cosmos E.J. Denham, 2020-10-23 This epic tale takes place on an immense vessel named Cosmos, a ship that represents the whole of the universe and everything within her, from the micro to the macro. We experience and see this wonderful and complex world through the eyes of our main character Eon, who after a chance encounter at Sanctuary, a gray and dreary bar, sets out on a journey of spiritual discovery full of peril, tears, and joy. On his Adventure, he meets Vile, the depressor, a creature who works for the ship's dark and sinister Captain. He comes face to face with the all-consuming darkness of the Procession where dead men are laid to rest and from where the faithful rise again. And he meets the Voice, a being who appears to be made of light who is full of love and mercy. The allegory follows him and his exploits and is meant to provide sound insight and biblical wisdom into the life of Christians young or old from rebirth to resurrection.

Nonlinear Psychophysical Dynamics Robert A.M. Gregson, 2013-04-15. Nonlinear Psychophysical Dynamics utilizes new results in systems theory as a foundation for representing sensory channels as a form of recursive loop processes. It demonstrates that a range of phenomena previously treated as diverse or anomalous are more readily seen as related and as the natural consequence of self-regulation and nonlinearity. Some cases with appropriate data analysis are reviewed.

The Poetry Reading at Sempole Stadium Arthur Broomfield, 2011-01-01.

History of Stanislaus County, California, 1881.

Signposts to Silence J.S. Krüger, 2018-12-01.

Signposts to Silence provides a theoretical map of what it terms metaphysical mysticism: the search for the furthest most inclusive horizon, the domain of silence which underlies the religious and metaphysical urge of humankind in its finest forms. Tracing the footsteps of pioneers of this exploration, the investigation also documents a number of historical pilgrimages from a variety of cultural and religious backgrounds. Such mountaineers of the spirit who created paths trodden by groups of followers over centuries and in some cases millennia include Lao Tzu and Chuang Tzu, Siddhattha and Jesus, Sankara and Fa-tsang, Plato and Plotinus, Isaac Luria and Ibn Arabi, Aquinas and Hegel. Such figures' teachings and traditions, including the religions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism and Taoism, are understood as at their most sublime, not final destiny and the end of the road, but signposts to a horizon of ultimate silence. The hermeneutical method employed in tracking such pioneers involves four steps: sound historical critical understanding of the context of the various traditions and figures; reconstruction of the subjective intentional structure of such persons and their teachings; design by the author of a theoretical map of the overall terrain of metaphysical mysticism on which all such journeys of the spirit are to be located; while providing a theoretical context for understanding them tendentially, i.e. taking the ultimate drift of their thinking essentially to transcend their subjective intentions, drawing out within the space available some political taken in a wide sense implications from the above, such as religious, political stances as well as ecological and gender implications. Continuing the general direction of thought within what the author endorses to be the best in metaphysical mysticism in its historical manifestations, the book aims to contribute to peace amongst religions in the contemporary global cultural situation. It relativizes all claims to exclusive absolute truth that might be proclaimed by any religious or metaphysical mystical position while providing space for not only tolerating but also affirming the unique value and dignity of each. This orientation moves beyond the stances of enmity or indifference or syncretism or homogenisation of all as well as that of mere friendly toleration. It investigates the seemingly daunting and inhospitable yet immensely significant Antarctica of the Spirit, the meta-space of silence behind the various forms of wordy inter-relationships. It affirms pars pro toto totum pro parte and pars pro parte that each religious mystical and metaphysical orientation in its relative singularity represents or contains the whole and derives value from that and that each represents or contains every other This homoversal solidarity stimulating individual uniqueness is different from and in fact implies criticism of the process of globalisation While not taking part in a scientific argument as such Signposts to Silence aims at promoting an understanding of science and metaphysical mysticism as mutual context for each other and it listens to a number of voices from the domain of science that understand this The Ladies' Companion ,1839 Watershed Research Traditions in Human Communication Theory Donald P. Cushman, Branislav Kovač, 1995-01-01 Focuses on and presents watershed research traditions in human communication interpersonal organizational and mass communication Shattered (A Bad Boy Romance Novel) , Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1890 Steamship and Other Power Vessels ,1898 Thresholds of Peace Matthew Barry Sullivan, 1979 Bog om de 400 000 tyske krigsfanger som var i britisk krigsfangeskab i England op til tre r efter 2 verdenskrigs afslutning fra tilfangetagelse til frigivelse
