serious questions about the real motivations of the powers involved It explains how if sanctions had been carefully applied they could have worked The massive bombing campaign of 1991 destroyed Iraq's social infrastructure Sanctions should have been modified to meet the post Gulf War environment Also the US and the UK refused to agree that sanctions would be lifted if Iraq complied left with little incentive to disarm it is not surprising that Saddam Hussein did not cooperate Why did the sanctions continue if they did not fulfil their avowed purpose The contributors argue that the real motives of the US and the UK were much more complex instead of revolving around violations of human rights terrorism and nuclear weapons proliferation sanctions may have had more to do with political powerbroking and the danger that Iraq and Iran presented to US hegemony in the oil rich Middle East Assessing these and other related questions the contributors put forward the idea that the current sanctions against Iraq are illegal under international law
