Between Mothers And Daughters Stories Across A Generation The Womens Stories Project:

Between Mothers and Daughters Susan Koppelman, 2004 In this moving and poignant collection of short stories by a broad and vibrant group of American women writers mothers and daughters describe their conflicts and consolations their trusts and mistrusts their loves and hates In some stories a mother sacrifices and struggles in order to provide her daughter with the opportunities she herself had been denied In others mothers and daughters share a renewed awareness of women's dependence on one another for survival This multicultural collection of short stories written between the 1840s and the 1990s explores an ancient relationship with fresh vision and insight Utilising a range of short story genres and incorporating diverse perspectives these stories explore the maternal bonds between women and investigate the practice of family exposing the complicated bittersweet truths of women's intergenerational relationships

The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide

s studies world literature      Daughter of the Hills Myra Page,1986 This novel offers a powerful account of family life and labor conflicts told through the eyes of a tough resilient Appalachian woman who is according to Richard Wright one of the most impressive proletarian characters in our literature Daughter of the Hills exposes the economic conditions of the working class and the scarcity of opportunities for working class women but also tells the story of a loving marriage that endures despite severe hardships      Women and Appletrees Moa Martinson,1985 About this novel which focuses on two young women early in the 20th century both victims of sexual abuse as they struggle to gain for themselves and their children the rights and opportunities usually denied to poor women Tillie Olsen said I love and am ineradicably grateful for this book this writer as I have been but to a few dozen others in my lifetime Images scenes relationships comprehensions portrayed here will never leave us She is a writer of international stature and significance      Women and Children as

This work compiles experiences and lessons learned in meeting the unique needs of women and children regarding crime prevention and criminal justice in particular the treatment and social reintegration of offenders and serves as a cross disciplinary work for academic and policy making analyses and follow up in developing and developed countries Furthermore it argues for a more humane and effective approach to countering delinquency and crime among future generations In a world where development positively depends on the rule of law and the related investment security two global trends may chart the course of development urbanization and education Urbanization will globalize the concepts of justice and fairness education will be dominated by the urban mindset and digital service economy just as a culture of lawfulness will This work looks at crime prevention education as an investment in the sustainable quality of life of succeeding generations and at those who pursue such crime prevention as the providers of much needed skills in the educational portfolio Adopting a reformist approach this work collects articles with findings and recommendations that may be relevant to domestic and international policymaking including the United Nations Studies and their educational value for the welfare of coming generations The books address the relevant United Nations ideas by combining them with academic approaches Guided by the Editors respective fields of expertise and in full recognition of academic freedom and organized scepticism it includes contributions by lawyers criminologists sociologists and other eminent experts seeking to bridge the gap between academic and policy perspectives as appropriate against the international background including the United Nations developments The second volume opens with Part IV which presents articles on different kinds of crime prevention The effectiveness of punishment and in particular imprisonment is examined by contrasting it with alternative sanctions and the following questions are raised Does harsh punishment have a crime preventive effect What are the side effects of imprisonment on the offenders and their families Are alternatives such as restorative justice or mediation more effective and cheaper Part V outlines proactive strategies of crime prevention e g for potential sex offenders or in the domain of internet crime Part VI envisions a more peaceful and inclusive society which would be realized by improving the protection of women and children in their everyday life and easing the reintegration of those who have become offenders The importance of the role played by the UN in formulating these goals is underlined The volume concludes with an epilogue of the 70th President of the United Nations Economic and Social Council Martin Sajdik and a post scriptum of the editors p      Communication Among Grandmothers, Mothers, and Adult Daughters Michelle A. Miller-Day, 2004-09-22 This volume examines communication processes within the grandmother mother daughter relationship emphasizing an intergenerational perspective Using observations of and extensive interviews with six sets of middle income Caucasian female family members this book offers a heuristic account of intergenerational mother daughter relational communication Author Michelle Miller Day integrates and juxtaposes alternative experiences of social interaction situating readers in the world of grandmothers mothers adult daughters and granddaughters as they experience describe and analyze their family communication Miller Day incorporates aged mothers and younger mid life mothers and their adult daughters into the research to illustrate how this type of maternal relationship is experienced at different points in a woman s life With the inclusion of three generations of women Miller Day offers multigenerational perspectives on family and examines them for patterns of maternal interaction providing symbolic links across generational boundaries Communication Among Grandmothers Mothers and Adult Daughters enables readers to understand more completely the richly textured nature of maternal relationships It will be an invaluable resource for scholars and researchers in the areas of communication and relationships including family communication intergenerational communication women s studies family studies interpersonal communication and relationships as well as social workers psychologists and counselors who strive to understand family communication processes and their dynamics across generational lines      The Strange History of Suzanne LaFleshe and Other Stories of Women and Fatness Susan Koppelman, 2003

Spanning a century from Kate Chopin and Fannie Hurst to J California Cooper and Elana Dykewomon this bold and deeply satisfying anthology of women s stories explores women s relationships to and perceptions of their physical selves Addressing the peculiarities the pleasures and the shames of body politics these stories of bodies that refuse to be contained offer a variety of perspectives on fully inhabiting the flesh Whether celebrating bodies deemed transgressive or simply daring to acknowledge that such bodies exist these diverse literary representations of fatness render the excessive body brilliantly unapologetically visible Book jacket      How Our Lives Become Stories Paul John Eakin, 2019-06-30 The popularity of such books as Frank McCourt s Angela s Ashes Mary Karr s The Liars Club and Kathryn Harrison s controversial The Kiss has led columnists to call ours the age of memoir And while some critics have derided the explosion of memoir as exhibitionistic and self aggrandizing literary theorists are now beginning to look seriously at this profusion of autobiographical literature Informed by literary scientific and experiential concerns How Our Lives Become Stories enhances knowledge of the complex forces that shape identity and confronts the equally complex problems that arise when we write about who we think we are Using life writings as examples including works by Christa Wolf Art Spiegelman Oliver Sacks Henry Louis Gates Melanie Thernstrom and Philip Roth Paul John Eakin draws on the latest research in neurology cognitive science memory studies developmental psychology and related fields to rethink the very nature of self representation After showing how the experience of living in one s body shapes one s identity he explores relational and narrative modes of being emphasizing social sources of identity and demonstrating that the self and the story of the self are constantly evolving in relation to others Eakin concludes by engaging the ethical issues raised by the conflict between the authorial impulse to life writing and a traditional privacy based ethics that such writings often violate Women's Studies Newsletter ,1984

Mother Daughter Wisdom Christiane Northrup, M.D.,2006-03-28 From the best selling author of Women s Bodies Women s Wisdom and The Wisdom of Menopause With such groundbreaking bestsellers as Women s Bodies Women s Wisdom and The Wisdom of Menopause Dr Christiane Northrup is one of today s most trusted and visionary medical experts Now she presents her most profound and revolutionary approach to women s health The mother daughter relationship sets the stage for our state of health and well being for our entire lives Because our mothers are our first and most powerful female role models our most deeply ingrained beliefs about ourselves as women come from them And our behavior in relationships with food with our children with our mates and with ourselves is a reflection of those beliefs Once we understand our mother daughter bonds we can rebuild our own health whatever our age and create a lasting positive legacy for the next generation Mother Daughter Wisdom introduces an entirely new map of female development exploring the five facets of feminine power which range from the basics of physical self care to the discovery of passion and purpose in life This blueprint allows any woman whether or not she has children to repair the gaps in her own upbringing and create a better adult relationship with her mother If she has her own daughter it will help her be the mother she has always wanted to be Written with warmth enthusiasm and rare intelligence Mother Daughter Wisdom is an indispensable book destined to change lives and become essential reading for all women An Estate of Memory Ilona Karmel,1986 The Boston Globe called this novel of the Holocaust gripping masterful disturbing and heartbreaking This spiritual novel of growth and regeneration in the midst of brutality and death recreates in precise detail the daily lives of four women in a Nazi concentration camp one of whom is not Jewish The taste and feel of the days are palpable and the pre camp memories of the prisoners are woven brilliantly into the narrative As Adrienne Rich notes this is a woman s eye view of living beyond the point where life is supposed to have meaning Women in the Trees Susan Koppelman,2004 A new edition of the groundbreaking anthology

Negotiating Identities, Language and Migration in Global London Cangbai Wang,Terry Lamb,2024-01-16 This book explores the transnational practices of migrant groups in global London illustrating the complex relations between migrants and the city in the context of globalisation The chapters offer a starting point to examine migrants and the city from a comparative perspective by bringing together case studies of diverse migrant communities They use languaging as the central concept in the development of an interdisciplinary framework that creates an opportunity to talk across disciplines to engage with key issues crisscrossing migration cities and language The book promotes language based or language sensitive research drawing on the plurilingual repertoires and the language and translanguaging practices of migrant communities as the tool for data collection and ethnographic fieldwork This approach generates fresh insights into the complex issues of diasporic identities belonging and place making which have broad implications for migration studies in post Brexit Britain and beyond

The Story of Sexual Identity Phillip L. Hammack, Bertram J. Cohler, 2009-03-06 This book assembles a diverse group of scholars working within a new pathbreaking paradigm of sexual science fusing perspectives from history sociology and psychology The contributors are united in their commitment to the idea of narrative as central to the study of sexual identity offering an analytic approach to social science inquiry on sexual identity that restores the voices of sexual subjects The result is a rich examination of lives in context with an eye toward multiplicity and meaning across the life course Central to the chapters in this volume is the significance of history generation and narrative in the provision of a workable and meaningful configuration of identity

Something Akin to Freedom Stephanie Li, 2010-02-23 2010 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Why would someone choose bondage over individual freedom What type of freedom can be found in choosing conditions of enslavement In Something Akin to Freedom winner of the 2008 SUNY Press Dissertation First Book Prize in African American Studies Stephanie Li explores literary texts where African American women decide to remain in or enter into conditions of bondage sacrificing individual autonomy to achieve other goals In fresh readings of stories by Harriet Jacobs Hannah Crafts Gayl Jones Louisa Picquet and Toni Morrison Li argues that amid shifting positions of power and through acts of creative agency the women in these narratives make seemingly anti intuitive choices that are simultaneously limiting and liberating She explores how the appeal of the freedom of the North is constrained by the potential for isolation and destabilization for women rooted in strong social networks in the South By introducing reproduction mother child relationships and community into discourses concerning resistance Li expands our understanding of individual liberation to include the courage to express personal desire and the freedom to love
