States of Race Sherene Razack, Sunera Thobani, Malinda Smith, 2010-07-01 What is a Canadian critical race feminism As the contributors to this book note the interventions of Canadian critical race feminists work to explicitly engage the Canadian state as a white settler society The collection examines Indigenous peoples within the Canadian settler state and Indigenous women within feminism the challenges posed by the settler state for women of colour and Indigenous women and the possibilities and limits of an anti colonial praxis Critical race feminism like critical race theory more broadly interrogates questions about race and gender through an emancipatory lens posing fundamental questions about the persistence if not magnification of race and the colour line in the twenty first century The writers of these articles whether exploring campus politics around issues of equity the media's circulation of ideas about a tolerant multicultural and feminist Canada security practices that confine people of colour to spaces of exception Indigenous women's navigation of both nationalism and feminism Western feminist responses to the War on Terror or the new forms of whiteness that persist in ideas about a post racial world or in transnational movements for social justice insist that we must study racialized power in all its gender and class dimensions The contributors are all members of Researchers and Academics of Colour for Equity

Minority Accommodation Through Territorial and Non-territorial Autonomy Tove H. Malloy, Francesco Palermo, 2015 For centuries autonomy has been a public policy tool used to provide stability and cohesion to multicultural societies Examining case studies on non territorial autonomy arrangements in comparison with territorial autonomy examples this volume seeks to inform both design and decision making on managing diversity

Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Jillian Maxey, 2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women s involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue

Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations Michael J. Hogan, Thomas G. Paterson, 2004-01-19 Originally published in 1991 Explaining the History of American Foreign Relations has become an indispensable volume not only for teachers and students in international history and political science but also for general readers seeking an introduction to American diplomatic history This collection of essays highlights a variety of newer innovative and stimulating conceptual approaches and analytical methods used to study the history of American foreign relations including bureaucratic dependency and world systems theories corporatist and national security models psychology culture and ideology Along with substantially revised essays from the first edition this volume presents entirely new material on postcolonial theory borderlands history modernization theory gender race memory cultural transfer and critical theory The book seeks to define the study of American international history stimulate research in fresh directions and encourage cross disciplinary thinking especially between diplomatic history and other fields of American history in an increasingly transnational globalizing world

Media on the Move Daya Kishan Thussu, 2006-10-31 Media on the Move provides a critical analysis of the dynamics of the international flow of images and ideas This comes at a time when the political economic and technological contexts within which media organisations operate are becoming increasingly global The surge in transnational traffic in media products has primarily benefited the major corporations such as Disney AOL Time Warner and News Corporation However as this book argues new networks have emerged which buck this trend Brazilian TV is watched in China Indian films have a huge following in the Arab world and Al Jazeera has become a household name in the West Combining a theoretical perspective on contra flow of media with grounded case studies into one up to date and accessible volume Media on the Move provides a much needed guide to the globalization of media going beyond the standard Anglo American view of this evolving phenomenon

Women's Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney, 2008 In Women s Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney investigates the contours of women s emancipation outside the framework of liberal democracy and a market economy She interviews 146 women and men in the two countries to explore the comparative contribution of women s participation in subsistence and informal economies political parties and civil society organizations She also discusses military struggles against colonialism and imperialism in fostering feminist agency to provide a fascinating look at how each movement evolved and how it changed in a post revolutionary climate

The Ashgate Research Companion to Critical Geopolitics Merje Kuus,2016-04-01 Since the late 1980s critical geopolitics has gone from being a radical critical perspective on the disciplines of political geography and international relations theory to becoming a recognised area of research in its own right Influenced by poststructuralist concerns with the politics of representation critical geopolitics considers the ways in which the use of particular discourses shape political practices Initially critical geopolitics analysed the practical geopolitical language of the elites and intellectuals of statecraft Subsequent iterations have considered the role that popular representations of the international political world play As critical geopolitics has become a more established part of political geography it has attracted ever more critique from feminists for its apparent blindness to the embodied effects of geopolitical praxis and from those who have been uncomfortable about its textual focus while others have challenged critical geopolitics to address alternative resistant forms of geopolitical practice Again critical geopolitics has been reworked to incorporate these challenges and the latest iterations have encompassed normative agendas non representational theory emotional geographies and affect It is against the vibrant backdrop of this intellectual development of critical geopolitics as a subdiscipline that this Companion is set Bringing together leading researchers associated with the different forms of critical geopolitics this volume produces an overview of its achievements limitations and areas of new and potential future development The Companion is designed to serve as a key resource for an interdisciplinary group of scholars and practitioners interested in the spatiality of politics

The Formation of Latin American Nations Thomas Ward,2018-10-25 This pioneering work brings the pre Columbian and colonial history of Latin America home rather than starting out in Spain and following Columbus and the conquistadores as they discover New World peoples The Formation of Latin American Nations begins with the Mesoamerican and South American nations as they were before the advent of European colonialism and only then moves on to the sixteenth century Spanish arrival and its impact To form a clearer picture of precolonial Latin America Thomas Ward reads between the lines in the Chronicles of the Indies filling in the blanks with information derived from archaeology anthropology genetics and common sense logic Although he finds fascinating points of comparison among the Kiche Maya in Central America the politics of Colombia and the Chimú of the northern Peruvian coast Ward focuses on two of the best known peoples the Nahua Aztec of Central Mexico and the Inka of the Andes His study privileges indigenous identified authors such as Diego Muñoz Camargo Fernando de Alva Ixtlilxóchitl Inca Garcilaso de la Vega and Felipe Guamán Poma de Ayala while it also consults Spanish chroniclers like Hernán Cortés Bernal Díaz del Castillo Pedro Cieza de León and Bartolomé de las Casas The nation forming processes that Ward theorizes feature two forms of cultural appropriation the horizontal in which nations appropriate people and customs from adjacent cultures and the vertical in which nations dig into their own past to fortify their concept of exceptionality In defining these processes Ward eschews the most common measure race instead opting for the Nahua altepetl the Inka panaka and the Kiche amaq His work thus approaches the nation both as the indigenous people conceptualized it and with terminology that would have been familiar to them before and after contact with the Spanish The result is a truly decolonial account of the formation and organization of Latin American nations one that puts the indigenous perspective at its center

Irish Women's Prison Writing Red Washburn, 2022-11-16 This book explores 50 years of Irish women's prison writing 1960s 2010s connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles This volume analyzes political communications petitions news coverage prison files personal letters poetry and short prose and memoirs highlighting the personal correspondence autobiographical narratives and poetry of the following key women Bernadette McAliskey Eileen Hickey Mairead Farrell Siobhán Darragh Ella O'Dwyer Martina Anderson Dolours Price Marian McGlinchey formerly Marian Price and Eibhlín Ní Giolla Easpaig Ann and Eileen Gillespie Roseleen Walsh and Margaretta D'Arcy This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive Centering Irish women's prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature this volume argues that women's lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature Additionally this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti colonial civil rights feminism for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued Overall this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women's voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective

The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis, Steve Smith, Patricia Owens, 2017 This title provides an introduction to international relations IR supporting over 300 000 students taking their first steps in IR and beyond

From Black Power to Hip Hop Patricia Hill Collins, 2006-02-15 In this her groundbreaking book Patricia Hill Collins examines the new forms of racism in American life and the political responses to them Using the experiences of African American men and women as her touchstone she covers a wide range of issues that connect questions of race to American identity She follows the long arc of African American responses to racism in the US from Black Nationalism to Black feminism to hip hop Using this genealogy she then investigates how nationalism has operated and reemerged in the wake of contemporary globalization and the unexpected resurgence of nationalism She then offers an interpretation of how Black nationalism works today in the wake of changing Black youth identity and the continuing need to draw on nationalism and feminism to formulate both a response to racism and a concrete platform of political action

Border Politics Nancy A. Naples, Jennifer Bickham Mendez, 2015 In the current historical moment borders have taken on heightened material and symbolic significance shaping identities and the social and political landscape Borders defined broadly to include territorial dividing lines as well as sociocultural boundaries have become increasingly salient sites of struggle over social belonging and cultural and material resources How do contemporary activists navigate and challenge these borders What meanings do they ascribe to different social cultural and political boundaries and how do these meanings shape the strategies in which they engage Moreover how do these social movements confront internal borders based on the differences that emerge within social change initiatives

Border Politics edited by Nancy A Naples and Jennifer Bickham Mendez explores these important questions through eleven carefully selected case studies situated in geographic contexts around the globe By conceptualizing struggles over identity social belonging and exclusion as extensions of border politics the authors capture the complex ways in which geographic cultural and symbolic dividing lines are blurred and transcended but also fortified and redrawn This volume notably places right wing and social justice initiatives in the same analytical frame to identify patterns that span the political spectrum

Border Politics offers a lens through which to understand borders as sites of diverse struggles as well as the strategies and practices used by diverse social movements in today's globally interconnected world Contributors Phillip Ayoub Renata Blumberg Yvonne Braun Moon Charania Michael Dreiling Jennifer Johnson Jesse Klein Andrej Kurnik Sarah Maddison Duncan McDuie Ra Jennifer Bickham Mendez Nancy A Naples David Paternotte Maple Razsa Raphi Rechitsky Kyle Rogers Deana Rohlinger Cristina Sanidad Meera Sehgal Tara Stamm Michelle T llez

Women of Color and the Reproductive Rights Movement Jennifer Nelson, 2003-10 Uncovers the truth behind the ideas struggles and eventually success of Black and Puerto Rican Nationalists regarding key feminist issues of the 1960s 1970s and 1980s While most people believe that the movement to secure voluntary reproductive control for women centered solely on abortion rights for many women abortion was not the only or even primary focus Jennifer Nelson tells the story of the feminist struggle for legal abortion and reproductive rights in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s through the particular contributions of women of color She explores the relationship between second wave feminists who were concerned with a woman's right to choose Black and Puerto Rican Nationalists who were concerned that Black and Puerto Rican women have as many children as possible for the revolution and women of color themselves who negotiated between them Contrary to popular belief Nelson shows that women of color were able to successfully remake the mainstream women's liberation and abortion rights movements by appropriating select aspects of Black Nationalist politics including addressing sterilization abuse access to affordable childcare and healthcare and ways to raise children out of poverty for feminist discourse Opening Doors Wider Sylvia Bashevkin, 2010-01-01 From the days of the fur trade through the contemporary period women have played important roles in the public life of Canada Until the 1970s however these contributions were generally overlooked Opening Doors Wider looks at the progress made in the last forty years to raise the profile of women's involvement in public life The contributors focus on two questions with reference to community activism the politics of feminist organizing parties and elections and the communications environment in which politicians operate First are the doors to participation presently open wider than they were in the past Second how can these doors be opened wider both in terms of real world participation and our scholarly understanding of public engagement These tightly argued essays shed new light on the quality of public involvement of women in one of the world's most stable democracies The nuanced discussion of solutions as well as problems makes it an indispensable resource for students and practitioners of politics at all levels Red Dirt Revival: a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths Tim'm

West, 2014-06-28 Red Dirt Revival a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths is a collection that offers personal meditations that speaks to vastly diverse and often unanticipated audiences naming vital specifics and moving to the poetic universality of pain and redemption A decade after his brave authorial debut Tim'm West is still here to honor the dexterity and resilience of a book that has been everywhere from spoken word stages to black gay men's book clubs to feminist classrooms This expanded edition offers a 7th Breath speaking to the work's enduring power As Christina Accomando writes in the new introduction Red Dirt Revival not surprisingly is both a classic text and a living breathing work of art communication and community
