Saxe, 2016-03-31 Challenging the current state of public education and teacher preparation this book argues for a re imagination of teacher education through a critical feminist and critical education perspective Offering a rich discussion of the promise and pedagogy of self reflexivity and testimonio which emerges from critical feminism this book brings together theory and practice in critical feminism critical education and testimonio to serve as a platform in which to reconceptualize the philosophy of traditional teacher education arguing that too many programs prepare teachers who often preserve rather than challenge the status quo How We Got Here: The Role of Critical Mentoring and Social Justice Praxis, 2020-06-29 In 2018 24% of first time graduate school enrollments were members of minoritized populations while attrition rates continue to signal a blocked pathway to doctoral degree and assistant professorship attainment How We Got Here The Role of Critical Mentoring and Social Justice Praxis Essays in Honor of George W Noblit is a collective effort of scholars of education to deploy critical mentoring and social justice praxis to disrupt this pattern of institutional failure Critical mentoring rejects meritocratic discourses that deny the politicized racialized gendered and ableist spaces of higher education Social justice praxis centers the knowledge and struggle of doctoral students with multiple intersectional identities as interdisciplinary bodies of praxis These positionings speak back to institutional isms with the aim of broadening the participation of folk conventionally held in the margins of academia This volume is presented as a definitive collection that holistically honors

nearly 40 years of critical mentoring and social justice praxis with George W Noblit which each contributor has carried into their own work Contributors are Silvia Cristina Bettez Heather Bower Ashley S Boyd Mary Kay Delaney Josh Diem Deborah Eaker Rich Courtney George Beth Hatt Sherick Hughes Rhonda Jeffries Michael E Jennings Alison LaGarry Monica McKinney Jason Mendez Hillary Parkhouse Summer Melody Pennell Marta Sanch z M Billye Sankofa Waters Amy Senta Amy Swain and Luis Urrieta Jr

Catholicism and Liberal Democracy James Martin Carr, 2022-11 Catholicism and Liberal Democracy seeks to clarify if there is a place for Catholicism in the public discourse of modern liberal democracy bringing secular liberalism as articulated by Jürgen Habermas into conversation with the Catholic tradition James Martin Carr explores three aspects of the Catholic tradition relevant to this debate the Church's response to democracy from the nineteenth century up until the eve of the Second Vatican Council the Council's engagement with modernity in particular through Gaudium et spes and Dignitatis humanae and Joseph Ratzinger's theology of politics as a particularly incisive and influential articulation of the Catholic tradition in this area Jürgen Habermas's theorization of the place of religion in modern democracy both in his earlier secularist phase and after his post secular turn is evaluated The adequacy of Habermas's recent attempts to accommodate religious citizens are critically examined and it is argued that developments in his later thought logically require a more thoroughgoing revision of his earlier theory These developments it is argued create tantalizing openings for fruitful dialogue between Habermas and the Catholic tradition Using analytical tools drawn from communications theory the debates on same sex marriage at Westminster and in the Irish referendum campaign are analyzed assessing whether Catholic contributions to these debates comply with Habermasian rules of civic discourse In light of this analysis the prospects of and impediments to Catholic participation in public discourse are appraised Carr concludes by proposing a Ratzingerian critique of contemporary attempts to redefine marriage within a broader more fundamental critique of the modern democratic state as currently configured A political system founded upon secularist monism cannot but regard Christian Gelasianism and its Catholic variant in particular as an existential threat Thus Catholics however Habermasian their political behavior can never be more than uneasy bedfellows with modern liberal democracy

Detournement as Pedagogical Praxis James Trier, 2014-09-11 The Situationist International SI was a Paris based artistic and political avant garde group that formed in 1957 went through three distinct phases during its existence and dissolved in 1972 In 1967 SI leader Guy Debord published his book The Society of the Spectacle which presents his theory of how the Spectacle i.e the Capitalist system in its totality works endlessly though not always successfully to transform people into spectators whose sole purposes are to consume commodities and to live de politicized passive isolated and contemplative lives To challenge and subvert the Spectacle Debord and his SI associates theorized and practiced the anti spectacular critical art they called detournement which entails reusing existing artistic and mass produced elements to create new combinations or ensembles As Debord wrote in 1956 detournement has the potential to be a powerful cultural weapon in the service of real class struggle In this edited book the authors contribute chapters about how they created their own detournements and used them as central audio visual texts in critical projects that they designed and carried out in a variety of pedagogical situations Most of the projects involved preservice teachers in teacher education courses and the anti spectacular purposes include challenging Hollywood s problematic representations of Native Americans subverting the racist stereotypes of Latin s in a popular children s book and critiquing the neoliberal agenda of the charter school movement This book offers readers detailed accounts of pedagogical projects that can serve as examples of the critical possibilities of detournement
