Beyond Left And Right The Future Of Radical Politics:

Beyond Left and Right Anthony Giddens, 2013-04-29 How should one understand the nature and possibilities of political radicalism today The political radical is normally thought of as someone who stands on the left opposing backward looking conservatism In the present day however the left has turned defensive while the right has become radical advocating the free play of market forces no matter what obstacles of tradition or custom stand in their way What explains such a curious twist of perspective In answering this question Giddens develops a new framework for radical politics drawing freely on what he calls philosophic conservatism but applying this outlook in the service of values normally associated with the Left The ecological crisis is at the core of this analysis but is understood by Giddens in an unconventional way as a response to a world in which modernity has run up against its limits as a social and moral order The end of nature as an entity existing independently of human intervention and the end of tradition combined with the impact of globalization are the forces which now have to be confronted made use of and coped with This book provides a powerful interpretation of the rise of fundamentalism of democracy the persistence of gender divisions and the question of a normative political theory of violence It will be essential reading for anyone seeking a novel approach to the political challenges which we face at the turn of the twenty first century

pluralism and locality Marxism Mysticism and Modern Theory examines some of these theories and argues that they are the mystified expression of the current political and economic impasse Today s relativistic outlook reveals a minimalist and atomized viewpoint a retreat from the goal of rational understanding Marxism Mysticism and Modern Theory sets out in this critique the case for developing a new humanism to extend rationality

 Giorgia Perletta,2022-03-16 This book offers a critical deconstruction of radicalism as a political category and through this analytical approach seeks to interpret and assess the presidencies of the former Iranian President Mahmud Ahmadinejad It contextualizes radicalism within a broader framework of Western derived political categories which are too frequently used to simplify the complexities of Iran s domestic political landscape generally reducing any comprehensive and objective understanding of Iranian politics Since the term radicalism is often misrepresented and misused in readings of contemporary Iran this study examines several analogous Persian and English labels exploring their different meanings significances and varied applications in order to challenge any fixed and universal interpretations of radicalism as a concept The political experience of Mahmud Ahmadinejad who has been widely perceived as a radical politician provides an ideal case study in this regard offering valuable insight into how best to frame and interpret radicalism in post revolutionary Iran This book will be of particular interest to both scholars and students of Iranian Studies but also to more general readers who are broadly interested in Middle Eastern studies political science and comparative politics Designing Families John Scanzoni,2000 Designing Families is a thought provoking examination of the challenges facing the nuclear family as it enters the new millenium John Scanzoni sets the issue of change in families in aN historical and cross cultural perspective tracing the development of the family from the Agricultural Age to the Information Age The Future of Anthropological Knowledge Henrietta Moore,2003-12-16 The Future of Anthropological Knowledge the chapters explore the question of the nature of social knowledge from a variety of perspectives and locations such as China Africa the USA and elsewhere By examining the changing nature of anthropological knowledge and of the production of that knowledge this book challenges the notion that only western societies have produced social theories of modernity and of global scope Knowledge of society can no longer be restricted to a knowledge of face to face social relations but must encompass the effect of technology global consumption patterns and changing geo political configurations The Future of Anthropological Knowledge will be of interest to anthropologists and students of culture and society Welfare States and the Future B. Vivekanandan,N.
 Kurian,2005-01-06 This volume presents a thought provoking analysis of key welfare state issues engaging policy makers across the globe It provides a unique and comprehensive evaluation of the state of welfare states developed and developing It maps the diversity of welfare regimes across the world and brings to fore the particularities and nuances that characterise them The book also focuses on the on going reforms and makes a powerful case for the increased relevance of the welfare state in a globalizing era Social Exclusion in European Cities Judith Allen, Goran Cars, Ali Madanipour, 2012-08-21 Across Europe concern is rising over the disintegration of social relations and the growing number of people who are being socially excluded. Social Exclusion in European Cities the first major study of this topic provides a definition of social exclusion and looks at both the processes which cause it and the dimensions of the problem throughout Europe. The experiences of people living in areas or neighbourhoods with low rates of social integration are considered illuminating the human impact of exclusion where it is most visible. Finally the contributors evaluate the various policy and community initiatives which are currently confronting the problem in a wide sample of European Cities on a variety of levels from individual actions to supra national European Union policy and suggest new ways in which social exclusion could be tackled. With most large cities experiencing some degree of social exclusion this is an important volume for all those working in the areas of regional policy, town planning, housing management, social work, community development, sociology, political science and urban studies.

Social Exclusion in European Cities , Education, Training and the Future of Work I John Ahier, Geoff Esland, 2013-10-18 A central claim of this volume is that public policy in education and training can only be properly understood if it is seen in relation to prevailing economic and employment conditions. It has become increasingly apparent that the neo liberal economic policies pursued by Western governments during the 1980s and 1990s have led to a growing world wide work crisis. Unemployment levels particularly in Europe remain persistently high and for those in employment job insecurity and long working hours have become the norm. The response of UK governments has been to promote flexibility in employment practices while proclaiming the importance of improving skill levels through education and training. This volume challenges the adequacy of such an approach and asks whether reliance on education and training reforms without additional political intervention in economic processes is capable of reversing current trends. Issues covered in this reader include the impact of globalization on employment trends, neo liberal and neo Keynesian approaches to employment policy, political reforms in education and training institutions, the impact of flexibilization on private life and the family. The two volumes in this series are readers for the Open University course Education Training and the Future of Work E837 a module of the MA in Education. The companion volume is Education Training and the Future of Work II Developments in Vocational Education and Training. John Ahier is Lecturer in Education at the Open University. Geoff Esland is Director of the Centre for Sociology and Social Research at the Open University and Course team Chair of E837.
