Ivo Andric Bridge Between East And West By Celia Hawkesworth:

Ivo Andric Celia Hawkesworth,2000-12-01 This is the first introduction in English to the Nobel prize winning novelist and writer Ivo Andric The book covers the full range of his work including verse essays and reflective prose as well as fiction Celia Hawkesworth also provides an account of Andric s life and the cultural history of his native Bosnia World Literature and Postcolonial Studies ,2023-04-17 What is the role of literature in our global landscape today How do local authors respond to the growing worldwide power of English and the persisting effects of the colonial systems that paved the way for globalization today These questions have often been approached very differently by postcolonialists and by students of world literature but over the past two decades a developing dialogue between these divergent approaches has produced robust scholarship and sometimes fractious debate as issues of language politics and cultural difference have come to the fore Drawing on a wide variety of cases from medieval Wales to contemporary Syria and Australia and on works written in Arabic Basque English Hindi and more this collection explores the mutual illumination that can be gained through the interaction of postcolonial and world literary perspectives Post-Yugoslav Literature and Film Gordana P. Crnkovic,2012-02-02 Reveals select post Yugoslav literary and cinema works as groundbreaking exploratory achievements of global relevance Bosnian Authors in a European Window Keith Doubt,2023-12-18 The study compares three Bosnian authors with three European titans The poet Mak Dizdar to Homer the novelist Me a Selimovi to Fyodor Dostoevsky and the novelist Ivo Andri to Leo Tolstoy The purpose is to move the appreciation of the writing of the most important Bosnian writers of the 20th century closer to the European literary community and to the wholeness of the literary phenomenon Secondary literature on the Bosnian authors is too narrow focusing on their ethnic heritages and the Balkan milieu in which they write and missing something essential to a critical appreciation of their works The study creates not only affinities but more importantly amiti s between the authors The discipline of comparative literature reveals what is missing in the secondary literature namely a vision of the literary universe inclusive and comprehensive The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars,Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2008 The Search for Greater Albania Paulin Kola,2003 In this text Paulin Kola offers an argument challenging the idea that Albanian speaking peoples in the Balkans wish to form a common state Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000 Jewish Literatures and Cultures in Southeastern Europe Renate Hansen-Kokoruš,Olaf Terpitz,2021-10-11 The volume offers an overview of the diverse Jewish experiences in Southeastern Europe from the 19th to the 21st centuries and the various forms and strategies of their representation in literature the arts historiography and philosophy Southeastern Europe is characterized by a high degree of ethnical religious and cultural diversity Jews whether Sephardim Ashkenazim or Romaniots settling there in different periods experienced divergent life worlds which engendered rich cultural production Though recent scholarly and popular interest in this heterogeneous region has grown impressively Jewish cultural production is still an under researched area The volume offers an overview of the diverse Jewish experiences in Southeastern Europe from the 19th to the 21st centuries and the various forms and strategies of their representation in literature the arts historiography and philosophy thus creating a dialogue between Jewish studies Balkan studies and current literary and cultural theories     Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature     Getting Over Europe Zoran Milutinović, 2011 Preliminary Material Acknowledgments Introduction Cosmopolitan nationalism In a search of a slav mission authenticity and barbarity The Gentlemen The prophets of Europe s downfall and rebirth Oh to be a European What did Rastko Petrovi learn in Africa The great mechanism passes through Vi egrad Misunderstanding is the rule understanding is a miracle Epilogue Barbarians Dramatis personae in order of appearance Bibliography Index     Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989     Cultural Heritage of East Central Europe Wojciech Roszkowski, 2015-01-02 The concept of culture is a relatively modern invention It stems from the Latin term cultura meaning cultivation Cicero was the first to use this word in a non agricultural context In his Tusculanae Disputationes he reflected on the cultivation of the soul cultura animi Later this term was rarely used in this sense but as of the 17th century more and more authors considered culture an intellectual and not an agricultural phenomenon Samuel Pufendorf 1632 1694 described culture as a vehicle overcoming natural barbarism He was followed by German philosophers of culture Johann Gottfried Herder 1744 1803 argued that human creativity was as important as human rationality and called attention to national cultures The works of German romantic philosophers were mainly focused on the specificity of the German culture a factor that was to unite divided German statehoods At the same time however Herder and his followers noticed other national cultures including first of all those of East and Central Europe It is therefore noteworthy that the early philosophical reflection on culture was closely connected with the specific traditions of East and Central Europeans     History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004-01-01 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm howev

Claiming the Dispossession Vladimir Biti, 2017-10-02 With the Treaty of Versailles the Western nation state powers introduced into the East Central European region the principle of national self determination This principle was buttressed by frustrated native elites who regarded the establishment of their respective nation states as a welcome opportunity for their own affirmation They desired sovereignty but were prevented from accomplishing it by their multiple dispossession National elites started to blame each other for this humiliating condition The successor states were dispossessed of power territories and glory The new nation states were frustrated by their devastating condition The dispersed Jews were left without the imperial protection This embarrassing state gave rise to collective historical and individual fictional narratives of dispossession This volume investigates their intended and unintended interaction Contributors are Davor Beganovi Vladimir Biti Zrinka Bo i Blanu a Marko Juvan Bernarda Katu i Nata a Kova evi Petr Ku era Aleksandar Mijatovi Guido Snel and Stijn Vervaeke

Ivo Andric Revisited Wayne S. Vucinich,1995 Reexamining the National-Philological Legacy Vladimir Biti,2014-01-02 Has thinking working and teaching in terms of national literatures become obsolete in today s globalized world of hyphenated languages literatures and cultures Since the rise of modern European national philologies coincided with the emergence of modern European nation states does the dissolution of the latter in the European supranational unity imply the suspension of the former Or we must on the contrary consider the fact that today s Europe is not only postnational but in its re nationalized East Central European part post multinational as well i e emerging out of the breakdown of the postimperial state formations such as the Soviet Union Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia

Making a Nation, Breaking a Nation Andrew Wachtel,1998 This book focuses on the cultural processes by which the idea of a Yugoslav nation was developed and on the reasons that this idea ultimately failed to bind the South Slavs into a viable nation and state The author argues that the collapse of multinational Yugoslavia and the establishment of separate uninational states did not result from the breakdown of the political or economic fabric of the Yugoslav state rather that breakdown itself sprang from the destruction of the concept of a Yugoslav nation Had such a concept been retained a collapse of political authority would have been followed by the eventual reconstitution of a Yugoslav state as happened after World War II rather than the creation of separate nation states Because the author emphasizes nation building rather than state building the causes and evidence he cites for Yugoslavia s collapse differ markedly from those that have previously been put forward He concentrates on culture and cultural politics in the South Slavic lands from the mid nineteenth century to the present in order to delineate those ideological mechanisms that helped lay the foundation for the formation of a Yugoslav nation in the first place sustained the nation during its approximately seventy year existence and led to its dissolution The book describes the evolution of the idea of Yugoslav national unity in four major areas linguistic policies geared to creating a shared national language the promulgation of a Yugoslav literary and artistic canon an educational policy that emphasized the teaching of literature and history in schools and the production of new literary and artistic works incorporating a Yugoslav view In the book s conclusion the author discusses the relevance of the Yugoslav case for other parts of the world considering whether the triumph of particularist nationalism is inevitable in multinational states
