LIncest By Christine Angot:

Autour de l'extrême littéraire Alastair Hemmens, Russell Williams, 2012-12-18 The extreme is an essential aspect of contemporary experience Thrill seekers spend the weekend in the search of the adrenaline rush of extreme sports In the political arena the world has begun to rediscover the split between the extreme left and the extreme right Through 24 hour rolling news images of violence torture and war are televised unremittingly into the living room while the Internet places hardcore pornography snuff film and cannibalism within easy reach of anyone with a personal computer or a smartphone The extreme has even become a quality companies seek to associate with the most banal of commodities such as ice cream and hair gel These different manifestations of extremity suggest a contradictory even paradoxical relationship with the extreme The contributors to this book explore how writing in French from the Middle Ages to the present day has interrogated extremity Taken together these essays demonstrate that the quality of the extreme can be applied to a great number of texts for different reasons and from myriad perspectives Moreover the extreme is revealed as a quality both distinct from and in tension with the crossing of boundaries associated with transgression It is a movement towards and away from a centre of radiation that escapes cultural norms without necessarily reinforcing them This sensation of rushing and wandering outside the boundaries of what is considered safe and normal provides the extreme with its adrenaline charged response of excitement or horror The analyses contained in this volume consider a number of manifestations of the extr me litt raire The ambiguities of gender in medieval romance are explored in the context of the Arthurian court The 19th century is examined through the prose poems of Baudelaire and the litt rature sauvage of the Zutistes The difficulties of writing the trauma of war and genocide in the 20th century are discussed through the work of Jorges Sempr n and Agota Kristof The contemporary extreme in French literature is examined in the autofiction of Christine Angot the work of Annie Ernaux and Catherine Millet the controversial novels of Michel Houellebecq and the worldwide influence of the Marquis de Sade on writing today Whilst the extr me litt raire may have a wide variety of expressions in French literature it is always outside beyond and far from the centre of our everyday experience It shocks us excites us and horrifies us often all at once This book seeks to provide an insight into how and why the extreme has fascinated and continues to fascinate the French literary imagination

Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter Susan Bainbrigge, Maren Scheurer, 2020-07-27 This collection of essays explores the ways in which talking therapies have been depicted in twentieth century and contemporary narratives life writings fiction and poetry in French This vibrant corpus of francophone literary engagements of therapy has so far been widely unexplored but it offers rich insights into the connections between literature and psychoanalysis As the number of autobiographical and fictional depictions of the therapeutic encounter is still on the rise these creative outputs raise pressing questions why do narratives of the therapeutic encounter continue to fascinate writers and readers What do these works tell us about the particular culture and history in which they are written What do they tell us about therapeutic and other human encounters

The volume highlights the important role that the creative arts have played in offering representations and explorations of our minds our relationships and our mental health or more pressingly ill health The volume s focus is not only on the patient s experience as expressed via the creative act and as counterweight to the practitioner s case study but more specifically on the therapeutic encounter specifically the relationship between therapist and patient The contributors here engage with ideas and methodologies within contemporary psychoanalytic thought including but not limited to those of Sigmund Freud Melanie Klein Andr Green Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Donald Winnicott highlighting the dynamic research culture that exists in this field and maintaining a dialogue between the humanities and various therapeutic disciplines Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter combines the analysis of psychoanalytic and fictional texts to explore the implications that arise from the space between the participants in therapy including creative and aesthetic inspirations therapeutic potentials and ethical dilemmas

Narratives of Mothering Gill Rye,2009 Mothers have been both idealized and demonized in Western cultures With Simone de Beauvoir s feminist analysis of motherhood in The Second Sex as her point of departure Rye Germanic and Romance studies U of London studies how French autobiographical and fictional narratives of mothering since 1990 differ from those told about them In the context of societal changes she explores themes including loss and trauma related to childbirth literally and figuratively ambivalence and guilt power and powerlessness and lesbian and single parenting in the works of Christine Angot Genevieve Brisac Marie Darrieussecq Camille Laurens Leila Marouane and Marie Ndiaye among others

Protean Selves Adrienne Angelo,2014-08-20 What does it mean to write I in postmodern society in a world in which technological advances and increased globalization have complicated notions of authenticity origins and selfhood Under what circumstances and to what extent do authors lend their scriptural authority to fictional counterparts What role does naming or conversely anonymity play vis vis the writing and written I What aspects of identity are subject to auto fictional manipulations And how do these complicated and multilayered narrating selves problematize the reader s engagement with the text Seeking answers to these questions Protean Selves brings together essays which explore the intricate relations between language self identity otherness and the world through the analysis of the forms and uses of the first person voice Written by specialists of a variety of approaches and authors from across the world the studies in this volume follow up a number of critical inquiries on the thorny problematic of self representation and the representation of the self in contemporary French and francophone literatures and extend the theoretical analysis to narratives and authors who have gained increasing commercial and academic visibility in the twenty first century

Not a Clue Chloé Delaume,2019-04-01 In this life size game of Clue six psychiatric patients in Paris s Saint Anne s Hospital are suspects in the murder of Dr Black Though Not a Clue tells the stories of these possible assassins their lives and what has brought them to the hospital the true focus of Chloé Delaume s intense and tumultuous novel is not merely to discover the identity of the murderer Rather by cleverly combining humor with the day to day effects of life s unrelenting compromises Not a Clue is an

astute commentary on the current state of literary production and consumption Masterfully juggling an omniscient narratrix an accusing murder victim at least six possible suspects as well as their psychiatrists and a writer who intervenes by refusing to intervene Delaume uses the characters weapons and rooms of the board game Clue to challenge sometimes violently sometimes playfully the norms of typography syntax and narrative conventions The Autofictional Alexandra Effe,Hannie Lawlor,2022-01-03 This open access book offers innovative and wide ranging responses to the continuously flourishing literary phenomenon of autofiction The book shows the insights that are gained in the shift from the genre descriptor to the adjective and from a broad application of the autofictional as a theoretical lens and aesthetic strategy In three sections on Approaches Affordances and Forms the volume proposes new theoretical approaches for the study of autofiction and the autofictional offers fresh perspectives on many of the prominent authors in the discussion draws them into a dialogue with autofictional practice from across the globe and brings into view texts forms and media that have not traditionally been considered for their autofictional dimensions The book in sum expands the parameters of research on autofiction to date to allow new voices and viewpoints to emerge Women's Writing in Twenty-First-Century France Gill Rye,Amaleena Damlé,2013-04-15 Women s Writing in Twenty First Century France is the first book length publication on women authored literature of this period and comprises a collection of challenging critical essays that engage with the themes trends and issues and with the writers and their texts of the first decade of the twenty first century PART ONE Women s Writing in Twenty First Century France Trends and Issues 1 Women s writing in twenty first century France introduction Amaleena Daml and Gill Rye 2 What passes French women writers and translation into English Lynn Penrod 3 What women read contemporary women s writing and the bestseller Diana Holmes PART TWO Society Culture Family 4 Vichy Jews enfants cach s French women writers look back Lucille Cairns 5 Wives and daughters in literary works representing the harkis Susan Ireland 6 Not seeing things Marie NDiaye negative hallucination and blank m tissage Andrew Asibong 7 Rediscovering the absent father a question of recognition Despentes Tardieu Lori Saint Martin 8 Babykillers V ronique Olmi and Laurence Tardieu on motherhood Natalie Edwards PART THREE Body Life Text 9 The becoming of anorexia and text in Am lie Nothomb s Robert des noms propres and Delphine de Vigan s Jours sans faim Amaleena Daml 10 The human animal in Ananda Devi s texts towards an ethics of hybridity Ashwiny O Kistnareddy 11 Embodiment environment and the re invention of self in Nina Bouraoui s life writing Helen Vassallo 12 Irreverent revelations women s confessional practices of the extreme contemporary Barbara Havercroft 13 Contamination anxiety in Annie Ernaux s twenty first century texts Simon Kemp PART FOUR Experiments Interfaces Aesthetics 14 Experience and experiment in the work of Marie Darrieussecq Helena Chadderton 15 Interfaces verbal visual experiment in new women s writing in French Shirley Jordan 16 Autofiction x Chlo Delaume s experimental self representations Deborah B Gaensbauer 17 Beyond Antoinette Fouque Il y a deux sexes and beyond Virginie Despentes King Kong th orie Anne Garr ta s sphinxes Owen Heathcote 18 Am lie the aesthete art and politics

masculinity in crisis in contemporary French culture by way of two important concepts the phallus largely but not solely in a Lacanian sense and abjection Kristeva Scrutiny of these concepts informs readings of a number of texts literary Bataille Adamov Doubrovsky Houellebecq Rochefort Angot and cinematic Ferreri Eustache Godard No Bonello in which the abject phallus is a significant factor The texts chosen all describe or stage crises of masculinity and mastery in ways that suggest that these supposedly beneficent qualities and the phallus that symbolizes them can often be perceived as burdensome or even detestable Abjection is a widely used concept in contemporary cultural studies but has not hitherto been articulated with the phallus as emblem of male dominance as it is here The volume will be of interest to those working in the areas of French gender and film studies

Women in French Studies ,2008 Madness in Twentieth-century French

Women's Writing Suzanne Dow,2009 Modern French Identities focuses on the French and Francophone writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries whose formal experiments and revisions of genre have combined to create an entirely new set of literary forms The series publishes studies of individual authors and artists comparative studies and interdisciplinary projects This "Self" Which Is Not One Natalie Edwards,Christopher Hogarth,2010-03-08 The Self Which is Not One Women s Life Writing in French assembles articles on women s life writing from diverse areas of the Francophone world It is comprised of nine chapters that discuss female writers from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa the Caribbean and Europe in addition to French writers The idea of the self is currently attracting widespread interest in academia most notably in the arts and humanities The development of postmodernism supposes a fragmented subject formed from the network of available discourses rather than a stable and coherent self Jacques Derrida for example wrote that there is no longer any such things as a full subject and Julia Kristeva now insists that the individual is a subject in process The growing importance of psychoanalytic theory particular in French studies has also impacted upon this development The basic tenet of psychoanalytic theory is that the individual is formed of a duality the conscious and unconscious parts of the self which prevent the individual from ever fully knowing her himself and which thus insists upon a plural incomplete self Developments in the field of postcolonial studies have also made us aware of different ways of approaching the self in different parts of the world and eroded the idea of a stable conscious and complete self As scholars examine these new ways of approaching the self autobiography has been the subject of renewed interest Several academic books have appeared in recent years that study the ways in which autobiographers represent the self as incomplete evolving and elusive In particular a number of books have appeared on the subject of women s autobiography and female subjectivity such as works by Sidonie Smith Julia Watson and Nancy Miller and several volumes interrogate postcolonial women s autobiography such as texts by Fran oise Lionnet Gayatri Spivak Carole Boyce Davies and Chandra Mohanty Our volume unites these strands of criticism by examining ways that female autobiographies write the self as a fragmented plural construct across the Francophone world This will be the first book length study of this important development This volume will be of interest primarily to students and scholars working in the areas of life writing French and Francophone studies postcolonial studies and gender studies The volume contributes to multiple areas that are currently garnering substantial interest in academe postcolonial studies Francophone studies gender studies and women's writing By comparing works from across the Francophone world our volume takes a global approach to the genre of autobiography and its inflections by women writers The Self That is Not One in Women's Autobiography in French therefore represents a timely intervention in several interlinking academic fields and will thus garner substantial interest

Autofiction: pratiques et théories Arnaud Genon, 2013-03-21 L'autofiction considérée dans l'histoire littéraire est un genre nouveau Mais cette classification générale envisagée précisément peut nous paraître démodée ancienne tant elle a fait l'objet d'articles de débats de polymétrie d'attaques et de plaidoyers Autofiction pratiques et théories regroupe des recensions et des articles publiés depuis une dizaine d'années sur des sites littéraires dans des revues universitaires ou associatives On y retrouve analyses les récentes parutions de crivains émergents de la critique de soi tels que Christine Angot Christophe Donner ou Camille Laurens mais aussi les dernières publications universitaires qui questionnent le genre sous différents angles historique, géographique, politique ou qui en font un outil d'analyse permettant l'étude du travail de crivains aussi différents que Proust Colette ou Frédéric Beigbeder Tenter de voir plus clair dans le bouillonnement théorique littéraire de l'autofiction saisir les enjeux de cette nouvelle critique de soi telle est l'ambition du présent ouvrage
