relationships between gender and architectural space in Renaissance Italy It examines the ceremonial use and artistic reception of the Palazzo Te from the arrival of the Holy Roman Emperor Charles V in 1530 to the Sack of Mantua in 1630 This book further proposes that we conceptualise the built environment as a performative space a space formed by the gendered relationships and actors of its time The Palazzo Te was constituted by the gendered behaviors of sixteenth century courtiers but it was not simply a passive receptor of gender performance Through its multivalent form and ceremonial function Maria F Maurer argues that the palace was an active participant in the construction and perception of femininity and masculinity in the early modern court
