Peter Childs, James Green

Londonstani By Gautam Malkani:

Londonstani Gautam Malkani, 2006 Malkani's extraordinary debut novel portrays the lives of young Muslim Sikh and Hindu men in the ethnically challenged enclave of one of the biggest cities in the West London Multi-ethnic Britain 2000+ Lars Eckstein, 2008 Multi Ethnic Britain 2000 provides an encompassing survey of artistic responses to the changes in the British cultural climate in the early years of the 21st century It traces topical reactions to new forms of racism and religious fundamentalism to legal as well as illegal immigration and to the threat of global terror yet it also highlights new forms of intercultural communication and convivial exchange Framed by contributions from novelists Patrick Neate and Rameez Balasubramanyam Multi Ethnic Britain 2000 showcases how artistic representations in literature film music and the visual arts reflect and respond to social and political discourses and how they contribute to our understanding of the current trans cultural situation in Britain The contributions in this volume cover a wide range of writers such as Graham Swift Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Jackie Kay Nadeem Aslam Gautam Malkani Nirpal Dhaliwal and Monica Ali films ranging from Gurinder Chadha's Bend It Like Beckham and Bride and Prejudice to Michael Winterbottom's In This World and Alfonso Cuarón's Children of Men paintings and photography by innovative black and Asian British Artists and dubstep music

Distortion Gautam Malkani, 2018-09-06 Meet Dillon a high functioning fuck up who has been keeping some very big secrets from his girlfriend Ramona Also meet Dhilan a young carer caught in an endless loop of pre bereavement bereavement for his dying mother And then there's Dylan The less said about him the better These three identities of the same young man have been growing dangerously more hardcore and hardwired both online and off thanks to the self reinforcing effects of social media and search engines and the uncanny predictive capabilities of his smartphones When two creepy old dudes threaten to expose Dillon Dhilan Dylan he is forced to unravel a gut wrenching mystery that he would rather leave well alone Set in a strange greyscale between the digital world and the messy realm of the body Distortion asks timely questions about what happens when our digital data and search histories are crunched up and processed and fed back to us when they don't just filter our view of the world but also our view of ourselves How can we navigate the tension between emotional truth and factual accuracy What can we do to neutralise our own toxicity And what happens in the world of flesh and blood when the roles of parent and child become tragically reversed Hybridity in Londonstani's Italian

Translation Valeria Monello, 2019-07-31 This volume investigates how fictional literary varieties and characterising discourse in a literary text can be translated and reproduced in the target language and culture For this purpose selected examples from Gautam Malkani's debut novel Londonstani 2006 and its Italian translation by Massimo Bocchiola 2007 are analysed and discussed in terms of the solutions they offer for the study of linguistic variation as a translation issue and in terms of the constraints involved in the translation of linguistic varieties The contrastive analysis conducted on the novel and its Italian translation will serve to provide new insights into the several issues the translation of vernacular literature can raise How can a translator linguistically recreate the hybrid identity of the characters as Londonstanis and their performing of masculinity through ethnicity by resorting to non standard forms and linguistic repertoires other than the English language in a new context the Italian one which only recently is experiencing the challenges of superdiversity These are some of the questions this book answers It will be of primary interest to a wide range of scholars in the fields of translation studies sociolinguistics and cross cultural communication

Literature and the Creative Economy Sarah Brouillette, 2014-04-15 This book contends that mainstream considerations of the economic and social force of culture including theories of the creative class and of cognitive and immaterial labor are indebted to historic conceptions of the art of literary authorship It shows how contemporary literature has been involved in and has responded to creative economy phenomena including the presentation of artists as models of contentedly flexible and self managed work the treatment of training in and exposure to art as a pathway to social inclusion the use of culture and cultural institutions to increase property values and support for cultural diversity as a means of growing cultural markets Contemporary writers have tended to explore how their own critical capacities have become compatible with or even essential to a neoliberal economy that has embraced art s autonomous gestures as proof that authentic self articulation and social engagement can and should occur within capitalism Taking a sociological approach to literary criticism Sarah Brouillette interprets major works of contemporary fiction by Monica Ali Aravind Adiga Daljit Nagra and Ian McEwan alongside government policy social science and theoretical explorations of creative work and immaterial labor

Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature Dave Gunning, 2012-01-01 Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural impact of the politics of race and antiracism in recent novels by black British and British Asian writers It examines works by Zadie Smith Caryl Phillips Nadeem Aslam Ferdinand Dennis and others arguing that an understanding of how race and ethnicity function in contemporary Britain can only be gained through attention to antiracism and the ways it conditions racial categories identities and models of behavior Looking at topics such as the role of Africa the reception of Islam and the meaning of multiculturalism Dave Gunning offers a detailed engagement with the nuances of antiracism and their effects on British literature and culture

Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition

Contemporary Indian English Literature

Cecile Sandten, Indrani Karmakar, Oliver von Knebel Doeberitz, 2024-02-12 Contemporary Indian English Literature focuses on the recent history of Indian literature in English since the publication of Salman Rushdie's novel Midnight's Children 1981 a watershed moment for Indian writing in English in the global literary landscape The chapters in this volume consider a wide range of poets novelists short fiction writers and dramatists who have notably contributed to the proliferation of Indian literature in English from the late 20th century to the present The volume provides an introduction to current developments in Indian English literature and explains general ideas as well as the specific features and styles of selected writers from this wide spectrum It addresses students working in this field at university level and includes thorough reading lists and study questions to encourage students to read reflect on and write about Indian English literature critically

The Intelligible Metropolis Nora Pleßke, 2014-08-15 Writings on the metropolis generally foreground illimitability stressing thereby that the urban ultimately remains both illegible and unintelligible Instead the purpose of this interdisciplinary study is to demonstrate that mentality as a tool offers orientation in the urban realm Nora Pleßke develops a model of urban mentality to be employed for cities worldwide Against the background of the Spatial Turn she identifies dominant urban specific structures of London mentality in contemporary London novels such as Monica Ali's Brick Lane J G Ballard's Millennium People Nick Hornby's A Long Way Down and Ian McEwan's Saturday

Popular Postcolonialisms Nadia Atia, Kate Houlden, 2018-07-04 Drawing together the insights of postcolonial scholarship and cultural studies Popular Postcolonialisms questions the place of the popular in the postcolonial paradigm Multidisciplinary in focus this collection explores the extent to which popular forms are infused with colonial logics and whether they can be employed by those advocating for change It considers a range of fiction film and non hegemonic cultural forms engaging with topics such as environmental change language activism and cultural imperialism alongside analysis of figures like Tarzan and Frankenstein Building on the work of cultural theorists it asks

whether the popular is actually where elite conceptions of the world may best be challenged It also addresses middlebrow cultural production which has tended to be seen as antithetical to radical traditions asking whether this might in fact form an unlikely realm from which to question critique or challenge colonial tropes Examining the ways in which the imprint of colonial history is in evidence interrogated mythologized or sublimated within popular cultural production this book raises a series of speculative questions exploring the interrelation of the popular and the postcolonial Youth Subcultures in Postwar and Contemporary Fiction Nick Bentley,2025-04-30 This book offers a unique interdisciplinary examination of how youth subcultures have been articulated and constructed in selected fiction from the post war period to the twenty first century It provides a theoretical underpinning for the analysis of subcultures and scenes in literary fiction identifying approaches set against key theories from subcultural studies sociology and criminology as well as paying close attention to issues of literary form genre and narrative technique As well as identifying an overlooked body of work in postwar and contemporary fiction it shows how literary fiction can offer a distinctive contribution to our understanding of youth and marginalized cultures It offers close analysis of a range of novels organized around key themes and contexts including teenagers Teds and jazz scenes in the 1950s Beat writing and the counterculture punk fiction dystopian and cyberpunk fiction as well as the examination of works that foreground class race gender and sexuality Black Agents Provocateurs: 250 Years of Black British Writing, History and the Law, 1770-2020 Helen Thomas,2020-10-01 Black Agents Provocateurs 250 Years of Black British Writing History and the Law 1770 2020 is a comprehensive analysis the invaluable contributions that black writers in Britain have made to British society over the last 250 years This book closely examines the lives trials and works of British slaves in the eighteenth century black authors historians and medics in the nineteenth century and black poets playwrights novelists and intellectuals in the twentieth and twenty first centuries It also highlights their contributions to legal changes such as the Abolition of Slavery Act 1833 the Criminal Appeal Act 1907 and the Race Relations Act 1965 as well as the adverse effects that laws such as the Criminal Evidence Act 1984 the Asylum and Immigration Acts 1996 and the Coronavirus Act 2020 have had upon black lives in Britain The Believer ,2006 Londonstani Gautam Malkani,2009-10-01 Londonstani Gautam Malkani s electrifying debut reveals a Britain that has never before been explored in the novel a country of young Asians and white boys desis and goras trying to work out a place for themselves in the shadow of the divergent cultures of their parents generation Coping with Difference Sabine Nuniu,2009 Has British literature finally surpassed Postmodernism and are we thus currently witnessing the emergence of a new era Choosing specific forms of engagement with difference as a starting point the present study traces recent developments in the field of the novel and illustrates in how far these new ways of dealing with difference may be characterised as non postmodern Moreover the analysis aims to demonstrate the renewed importance of modernist strategies and their employment in contemporary British fiction Case studies of six novels complement and illuminate these findings Queer Masculinities

John Landreau, Nelson Rodriguez, 2011-09-28 Queer Masculinities A Critical Reader in Education is a substantial addition to the discussion of queer masculinities of the interplay between queer masculinities and education and to the political gender discourse as a whole Enriching the discourse of masculinity politics the cross section of scholarly interrogations of the complexities and contradictions of queer masculinities in education demonstrates that any serious study of masculinity hegemonic or otherwise must consider the theoretical and political contributions that the concept of queer masculinity makes to a more comprehensive and nuanced understanding of masculinity itself The essays adopt a range of approaches from empirical studies to reflective theorizing and address themselves to three separate educational realms the K 12 level the collegiate level and the level in popular culture which could be called cultural pedagogy The wealth of detailed analysis includes for example the notion that normative expectations and projections on the part of teachers and administrators unnecessarily reinforce the values and behaviors of heteronormative masculinity creating an institutionalized loop that disciplines masculinity At the same time and for this very reason schools represent an opportunity to provide a setting where a broader menu can be introduced and gender sexual meanings expressions and experiences boys encounter can create new possibilities of what it can mean to be male At the collegiate level chapters include analysis of what the authors call homosexualization of heterosexual men on the university dance floor while the chapters of the third section on popular culture include a fascinating analysis of the construction of queer counternarratives that can be constructed watching TV shows of apparently hegemonic bent In all this volume's breadth and detail make it a landmark publication in the study of queer masculinities and thus in critical masculinity studies as a whole

Travels in Time Astrid Erll, Professor of Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Astrid Erll, 2025-05-20 In Travels in Time Astrid Erll addresses the question of how collective memory emerges through motion the movements of people media forms and practices Grounded in literary cultural and media memory studies the essays discuss the ways in which families and generations are shaped by the past how media such as literature film and photography make and remake collective memory or the cultural dimensions of trauma flashbulb memories or implicit memory They also consider traveling memory through the repercussions of recent historical events and long term mnemonic processes ranging from Greek antiquity to British colonialism in India and from the First and Second World Wars to 9 11 and Covid 19

Activist Scholarship Julia Sudbury, Margo Okazawa-Rey, 2015-12-03 Can scholars generate knowledge and pedagogies that bolster local and global forms of resistance to U S imperialism racial gender oppression and the economic violence of capitalist globalization This book explores what happens when scholars create active engagements between the academy and communities of resistance In so doing it suggests a new direction for antiracist and feminist scholarship rejecting models of academic radicalism that remain unaccountable to grassroots social movements The authors explore the community and the academy as interlinked sites of struggle This book provides models and the opportunity for critical reflection for students and faculty as they struggle to align their commitments to social justice

with their roles in the academy At the same time they explore the tensions and challenges of engaging in such contested work

Aesthetics and Ethics in Twenty-First Century British Novels Peter Childs, James Green, 2013-08-15 A fresh set of concerns face the twenty first century British novelist In this study of the four key novelists Zadie Smith Nadeem Aslam Hari Kunzru and David Mitchell the the changes in narrative approaches and critical directions of a new post 1989 fiction are explored Close readings of the writers are informed by a range of contemporary theorists critics and commentators to reveal the emphases of twenty first century fiction Terror fear consumerism multinationalism and corporatism the terms circulating in culture and social networks are evident in Smith s faith in ethical living Aslam s consideration of multiculturalism the novels Kunzru builds around the politics of identity and in the importance Mitchell places on the interconnectedness of human life By putting the emergence of a new British literary dynamic in the context of ethical as well as global contexts this study analyzes the transformed fictional perceptions of a world no longer defined by the stand off of super powers

The 2000s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, Nick Hubble, Leigh Wilson, 2015-10-22 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 2000s shape contemporary British fiction The means of publishing buying and reading fiction changed dramatically between 2000 and 2010 This volume explores how the socio political and economic turns of the decade bookended by the beginning of a millennium and an economic crisis transformed the act of writing and reading Through consideration of among other things the treatment of neuroscience violence the historical and youth subcultures in recent fiction the essays in this collection explore the complex and still powerful relation between the novel and the world in which it is written published and read This major literary assessment of the fiction of the 2000s covers the work of newer voices such as Monica Ali Mark Haddon Tom McCarthy David Peace and Zadie Smith as well as those more established such as Salman Rushdie Hilary Mantel and Ian McEwan making it an essential contribution to reading defining and understanding the decade
