Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,1969 Presents the essential ideas of the founder of French surrealism

Manifesto of Surrealism André Breton,2016-12-30 Two Surrealist Manifestos were issued by the Surrealist movement in 1924 and 1929 They were both written by Andr Breton Andr Breton was explicit in his assertion that Surrealism was above all a revolutionary movement The first Surrealist manifesto was written by Breton and published in 1924 as a booklet Editions du Sagittaire The document defines Surrealism as Psychic automatism in its pure state by which one proposes to express verbally by means of the written word or in any other manner the actual functioning of thought Dictated by thought in the absence of any control exercised by reason exempt from any aesthetic or moral concern Surrealism is a cultural movement that began in the early 1920s and is best known for its visual artworks and writings The aim was to resolve the previously contradictory conditions of dream and reality Artists painted unnerving illogical scenes with photographic precision created strange creatures from everyday objects and developed painting techniques that allowed the unconscious to express itself Manifestoes of surrealism André Breton,1969 Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,1969

Angela Carter and Surrealism Anna Watz,2016-07-15 In 1972 Angela Carter translated Xavi re Gauthier s ground breaking feminist critique of the surrealist movement Surr alisme et sexualit 1971 Although the translation was never published the project at once confirmed and consolidated Carter s previous interest in surrealism representation gender and desire and aided her formulation of a new surrealist feminist aesthetic Carter s sustained engagement with surrealist aesthetics and politics as well as surrealist scholarship aptly demonstrates what is at stake for feminism at the intersection of avant garde aesthetics and the representation of women and female desire Drawing on previously unexplored archival material such as typescripts journals and letters Anna Watz s study is the first to trace the full extent to which Carter s writing was influenced by the surrealist movement and its critical heritage Watz s book is an important contribution to scholarship on Angela Carter as well as to contemporary feminist debates on surrealism and will appeal to scholars across the fields of contemporary British fiction feminism and literary and visual surrealism Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,1972 DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder,2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema s lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film s provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media s materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author s previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema Surrealism and Its Others Katharine Conley, Pierre Taminiaux, 2006-01-01 This issue of Yale French Studies on Surrealism and Its Othersexamines the works and theories of writers artists and thinkers who positioned themselves and their productions in dialogue with Breton s surrealism Although surrealism always sought to distinguish itself from other movements and ideologies its members often celebrated their commonality with many others outside of the official group with whom they shared their passions Marxists visual artists filmmakers psychiatrists and ethnographers Each of the writers artists and thinkers examined here were either temporarily associated with surrealism or were influenced by its collective and open spirit even if in a primarily opposing or questioning role In some cases this outside perspective came from as close as Belgium and other European countries In other cases it came from farther away from North Africa or North America which reveals surrealism s engagement with non European formerly colonized cultures reflects its staunchly anti colonial stance and confirms the movement as something more than an aesthetic phenomenon Along with its aesthetic mission surrealism was also and perhaps more importantly a powerful political and social reality This issue examines works by artists writers and theorists who were all in their own ways located outside of yet close to surrealism and who provide us with a new perspective on this avant garde and modernist movement Martine Antle Surrealism and the Orient Adam Jolles The Tactile Turn Envisioning a Post Colonial Aesthetic in France Jonathan P Eburne Automatism and Terror Surrealism Theory and the Postwar Left Pierre Taminiaux Breton and Trotsky The Revolutionary Memory of Surrealism Richard Stamelman Photography The Marvelous Precipitate of Desire Robert Harvey Where s Duchamp Out Queering the Field Raphaëlle Moine From Surrealist Cinema to Surrealism in the Cinema Does a Surrealist Genre Exist in Film Georgiana M M Colvile Between Surrealism and Magic Realism The Early Feature Films of Andr Delvaux 1926 2002 the Other Delvaux Katharine Conley Surrealism and Outsider Art From the Automatic Message to Andr Breton s Collection A Companion to Dada and Surrealism David Hopkins, 2016-05-10 This excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism blends expert synthesis of the latest scholarship with completely new research offering historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender This book provides an excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism from some of the finest established and up and coming scholars in the field Offers historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender One of the first studies to produce global coverage of the two movements it also includes a section dealing with the critical and cultural aftermath of Dada and Surrealism in the later twentieth century Dada and Surrealism are arguably the most popular areas of modern art both in the academic and public spheres Dada and Surrealism: A Very Short Introduction David Hopkins, 2004-04-08 A stimulating introduction to the many debates surrounding the Dadaist and Surrealist movements such as the Marquis de Sade's position as a Surrealist deity attitudes towards the city the impact of Freud and attitudes towards women

Surrealism in Latin America Dawn Ades, Rita Eder, Graciela Speranza, 2012-10-16 This collection of essays the first major account of surrealism in Latin America that covers both literary and visual production explores the role the movement played in the construction and recuperation of cultural identities and the ways artists and writers contested embraced and adapted surrealist ideas and practices Surrealism in Latin America provides new Latin American centric scholarship not only about surrealism's impact on the region but also about the region's impact on surrealism It reconsiders the relation between art and anthropology casts new light on the aesthetics of primitivism and makes a strong case for Latin American artists and writers as the inheritors of a movement that effectively went underground after World War II In so doing it expands our understanding of important fascinating figures who are less well known than their counterparts active in Europe and New York Deriving from a conference held at the Getty Research Institute the book is rich in new materials drawn from the GRI's diverse Mexican and South American surrealist collections which include the archives of Vicente Huidobro Enrique Gómez Correa César Moro Enrique Lihn and Emilio Westphalen

Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non-French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist-influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre

In the Embrace of the Swan Rüdiger Görner, Angus Nicholls, 2010-08-31 Myths determine the way cultures understand themselves The papers in this volume examine culturally specific myths in Britain and the German-speaking world and compare approaches to the theory of myth together with the ways in which mythological formations operate in literature aesthetics and politics with a focus on the period around 1800 They enquire into the consequences of myth oriented discourses for the way in which these two cultures understand each other and in this way make a significant contribution to a more profound approach to intercultural research

Lee Miller, Photography, Surrealism and the Second World War Lynn Hilditch, 2018-01-23 Lee Miller 1907 1977 was an American born Surrealist and war photographer who through her role as a model for Vogue magazine became the apprentice of Man Ray in Paris and later one of the few women war correspondents to cover the Second World War from the frontline Her comprehensive understanding of art enabled her to photograph vivid representations of Europe at war the changing gender roles of women in war work the destruction caused by enemy fire during the London Blitz and the horrors of the concentration camps that embraced and adapted the principles and methods of Surrealism This book examines how Miller s war photographs can be interpreted as surreal documentary combining a surrealist sensibility with a need to inform Each chapter contains a close analysis of specific photographs in a generally chronological study with a thematic focus using comparisons with other photographers documentary artists and Surrealists such as Margaret Bourke White Dorothea Lange Walker Evans George Rodger Cecil Beaton Bill Brandt Henry Moore Humphrey Jennings and Man Ray In addition Miller s photographs are explored through Andr Breton s theory of convulsive beauty his credence that any subject no matter how horrible may be interpreted as art and his notion of the marvellous

European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2001-01-01 An anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of European literature Each chapter in this book is devoted to one particular school of movement from within a body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism through to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s

A Self-made Surrealist Caroline Blinder, 2000 A new evaluation of a writer who was the talk of the literary world in the early days of the sexual revolution Since the publication of Tropic of Cancer in 1934 Henry Miller has been the target of critics from all sides A Self Made Surrealist sets out to provide a view of Miller different from both earlier vindications of him as sexual liberator and prophet and more contemporary feminist critiques of him as pornographer and male chauvinist In this re evaluation of Miller s role as a radical writer Blinder considers not only notions of obscenity and sexuality but also the emergence of psychoanalysis surrealism automatic writing and the aesthetics of fascism as they illuminate Miller s more general 20th century concerns with politics and mass psychology in relation to art Blinder also considers the effect on Miller of the theoretical works of Georges Bataille and Andr Breton among others in order to define and explore the social philosophical and political contexts of the period By examining the enormous impetus Miller got from being in the midst of French culture and its debate A Self Made Surrealist shows that Miller was indeed a seminal writer of the period rather than simply an isolated male chauvinist

Alchemy in Contemporary Art Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-07-05 Alchemy in Contemporary Art analyzes the manner in which twentieth century artists beginning with French Surrealists of the 1920s have appropriated concepts and imagery from the western alchemical tradition This study examines artistic production from c 1920 to the present with an emphasis on the 1970s to 2000 discussing familiar names such as Andre Breton Salvador Dali Yves Klein Joseph Beuys and Anselm Kiefer as well as many little known artists of the later twentieth century It provides a critical overview of the alchemical tradition in twentieth century art and of the use of occultist imagery as a code for political discourse and polemical engagement The study is the first to examine the influence of alchemy and the Surrealist tradition on Australian as well as on Eastern European and Mexican art In addition the text considers the manner in which women artists such as Leonora Carrington Remedios Varo and Rebecca Horn have critically revised the traditional sexist imagery of alchemy and occultism for their own feminist purposes A History of the Surrealist Novel Anna Watz,2023-02-16 A History of the Surrealist Novel offers a rich long and elastic historiography of the surrealist novel taking into consideration an abundance of texts previously left out of critical accounts Its twenty thematically organized chapters examine surrealist prose texts written in French English Spanish German Greek and Japanese from the emergence of the surrealist movement in the 1920s and 1930s through the post war and postmodern periods and up to the contemporary moment This approach extends received narratives regarding surrealism s geographical locations and considers its transnational movement and modes of circulation Moreover it challenges critical biases that have defined surrealism in predominantly masculine terms and which tie the movement to the interwar or early post war years This book will appeal both to scholars and students of surrealism and its legacies modernist literature and the history of the novel

Curious Disciplines Sarah Hayden,2018-04-15 Foregrounding Loy s critical interrogation of Futurist Dadaist Surrealist and Degenerate artishood and exploring her poetic legacies today Curious Disciplines reveals Loy s importance in an entirely novel way The Holy Family Karl Marx,Friedrich Engels,2020-09-01 During Engels short stay in Paris in 1844 Marx suggested the two of them should write a critique of the rage of their day the Young Hegelians In the doing was born the first joint writing project between the two men and a life long association that would change the world At the end of August 1844 Engels passed through Paris en route to his employment in Manchester England from visiting his family in Barmen Germany During 10 days in the French capital he met Marx for the second time After talking they began drawing up plans for a book about the Young Hegelian trend of thought very popular in academic circles Agreeing to co author the Foreword they divided up the other sections Engels finished his assigned chapters before leaving Paris Marx had the larger share of work and he completed it by the end of November 1844 Marx would draw from his Economic and Philosophical Manuscripts on which he d been working the spring and summer of 1844 The foremost title line The Holy Family was added at the suggestion of the book publisher Lowenthal It s a sarcastic reference to the Bauer brothers and their supporters The book made something of a splash in the newspapers One paper noted that it expressed socialist views since it criticised the inadequacy of any half measures directed at eliminating the social ailments of our time The conservative press immediately recognized the radical elements inherent in its many arguments One paper wrote that in The Holy Family every line preaches revolt against the state the church the family legality religion and property It also noted that prominence is given to the most radical and the most open communism and this is all the more dangerous as Mr Marx cannot be denied either extremely broad knowledge or the ability to make use of the polemical arsenal of Hegel s logic what is customarily called iron logic Lenin would later claim this work laid the foundations for what would develop into a scientific revolutionary materialist socialism Bruno Bauer attempted to rebut the book in the article Charakteristik Ludwig Feuerbachs which was published in Wigand s Vierteljahrsschrift Leipzig 1845 Bauer essentially claimed that Marx and Engels misunderstood what he was really saying Marx would reply to that article with his own article published in the journal Gesellschaftsspiegel Elberfeld January 1846 And the matter was also discussed in chapter 2 of The German Ideology
