

The entire scene is framed within a brown, leather-bound suitcase. The left side of the suitcase lid is a green panel with white and yellow text. A propeller-driven fighter plane, painted in olive green and blue, is shown in flight across the top of the green panel. Below the plane, a range of snow-capped mountains is visible. In the foreground, a tilted, gold-framed photograph shows a man in a military uniform standing in a field. To the right of the photograph is a white ceramic mug. At the bottom of the suitcase, a newspaper clipping is partially visible. The suitcase has metal rivets along its edges and a small metal latch on the right side of the green panel.

A Dove of the East Mark Helprin, 2012-06-05 This dazzling collection of short stories by the World Fantasy Award winning author of Winter's Tale contemplates the human experience across the globe The San Francisco Chronicle Examiner In these twenty stories Mark Helprin offers a series of meditations on some of humanity's most enduring and universal questions At the hour of his death an American priest in Rome must choose between his church and his God A young man finds love in a hot dirty typewriter ribbon factory in the Bronx A Dutch child in a Canadian orphanage carries the pain of war and her love for her family in her heart An Israeli scout risks the safety and respect of his comrades in an act of transformative charity Through beautifully rendered memories and moments of epiphany all Helprin's stories deal with essences which lead from the heart his images are clean and sharp and bright Kirkus When you read these stories a you must you will I believe be uplifted and awed Cleveland Plain Dealer The Poco Field Talmage A. Stanley, 2012-03-15 In this beautifully written meditation on identity and place Talmage A Stanley tells the story of his grandparents middle class aspirations from the 1920s to the 1940s in the once booming Pocahontas coalfields of southern West Virginia Part lyrical family memoir and part social study The Poco Field An American Story of Place addresses a long standing gap in Appalachian and American studies illustrating the lives and choices of the middle class in the mid twentieth century and delving into questions of place based identity Exploring the natural and built environments of the towns of Keystone West Virginia and Newbern Virginia Stanley delineates the history of conflict and control of local industry and development Through his grandparents struggle for upward mobility into the middle class Stanley narrates a history that counters ideas of Appalachia as an exception to American culture and history presenting instead an image of the region as an emblem of America at large Stanley builds out from family and local history to examine broad structures of values and practices as they reflect and relate to place showing how events such as the development of extensive mineworks the ghettoization of the area s black residents the catastrophic flooding of the Elkhorn Creek and the fraud induced failure of Keystone National Bank signal values that erode a place both literally and figuratively Giving voice to activists now working to break down boundaries and assumptions that long have defined and restricted the middle class in the global economy The Poco Field also champions the creative potential of place for reinvigorating democratic society for the twenty first century

The Curse of Pietro Houdini Derek B. Miller, 2025-01-28 A vivid thrilling and moving World War II art heist adventure tale where enemies become heroes allies become villains and a child learns what it means to become an adult that has the ring of truth and the echo of myth deserving of all the lucky readers who discover it The Wall Street Journal August 1943 Fourteen year old Massimo is all alone Newly orphaned and fleeing from Rome after surviving a bombing raid that killed his parents Massimo is attacked by thugs and finds himself bloodied at the base of the Montecassino It is there in the Benedictine abbey s shadow that a charismatic and cryptic man calling himself Pietro Houdini the self proclaimed Master Artist and confidante of the Vatican rescues Massimo and makes him an assistant in preserving the treasures that lay within the monastery walls But can Massimo believe what Pietro is saying particularly when Massimo has secrets too Who is this extraordinary man When it becomes evident that Montecassino will soon become the front line in the war Pietro Houdini and Massimo plan to smuggle three priceless Titian paintings to safety down the mountain They are joined by a vivid cast of characters and together they will lie cheat steal fight kill and sin their way through battlefields to survive all while smuggling the Renaissance masterpieces and the bag full of ancient Greek gold they have rescued from the safe keeping of the Germans Heartfelt powerfully engaging and in the tradition of Anthony Doerr s All the Light We Cannot See this is a work of storytelling bravado a thrilling action packed art heist an imaginative chronicle of forgotten history and a poignant coming of age epic where a child navigates one of the most morally complex fronts of World War II and lives to tell the tale
