Isabel Allende Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2013-02-23 Isabel Allende la Famosa to her fellow Chileans is the world's most widely read Spanish language author Her career coincides with the emergence of multiculturalism and global feminism and her powerfully honest revelatory works touch the pulse points of humankind Her bravura study of the interwoven roles of women in family history opens the minds of outsiders to the sufferings of women and their children during years of social and political nightmare This reference work provides an introduction to Allende's life as well as a guided overview of her body of work Designed for the fan and scholar alike this text features an alphabetized fully annotated listing of major terms in the Allende canon including fictional characters motifs historical events and themes A comprehensive index is included      Isabel Allende Jeanne Nagle, Mary Main, 2015-12-15 The Chilean American writer Isabel Allende has won many awards for her magical realism fiction But she also has an organization dedicated to supporting the rights of women and girls Through quotations from the author herself as well as detail descriptions about major events in her life and color images readers will learn exactly what it is that makes Isabel Allende an influential Latina      The Psychic Hold of Slavery Soyica Diggs Colbert, Robert J. Patterson, Aida Levy-Hussen, 2016-07-20 What would it mean to get over slavery Is such a thing possible Is it even desirable Should we perceive the psychic hold of slavery as a set of mental manacles that hold us back from imagining a postracist America Or could the psychic hold of slavery be understood as a tool helping us get a grip on the systemic racial inequalities and restricted liberties that persist in the present day Featuring original essays from an array of established and emerging scholars in the interdisciplinary field of African American studies The Psychic Hold of Slavery offers a nuanced dialogue upon these questions With a painful awareness that our understanding of the past informs our understanding of the present and vice versa the contributors place slavery's historical legacies in conversation with twenty first century manifestations of antiblack violence dehumanization and social death Through an exploration of film drama fiction performance art graphic novels and philosophical discourse this volume considers how artists grapple with questions of representation as they ask whether slavery can ever be accurately depicted trace the scars that slavery has left on a traumatized body politic or debate how to best convey that black lives matter The Psychic Hold of Slavery thus raises provocative questions about how we behold the historically distinct event of African diasporic enslavement and how we might hold off the transhistorical force of antiblack domination      Vulnerable Earth Pramod K. Nayar, 2024-11-21 Shows how the literature of climate crisis foregrounds a feature that humans and nonhumans share differentially with the planet vulnerability      Literary Histories of the Early Anglophone Caribbean Nicole N. Aljoe, Brycchan Carey, Thomas W. Krise, 2018-05-04 The Caribbean has traditionally been understood as a region that did not develop a significant native literary culture until the postcolonial period Indeed most literary histories of the Caribbean begin with the texts associated with the independence movements of the early twentieth century However as recent research has shown although the printing press did not arrive in the Caribbean until 1718 the roots of Caribbean literary history predate its arrival This collection contributes to this research by filling a significant gap in literary and historical knowledge with the first collection of essays specifically focused on the literatures of the early Caribbean before 1850      Teaching Anglophone Caribbean Literature Supriya M. Nair, 2012-10-01 This volume in the Options for Teaching series recognizes that the most challenging aspect of introducing students to anglophone Caribbean literature the sheer variety of intellectual and artistic traditions in Western and non Western cultures that relate to it also offers the greatest opportunities to teachers Courses on anglophone literature in the Caribbean can consider the region's specific histories and contexts even as they explore common issues the legacies of slavery colonialism and colonial education nationalism exile and migration identity and hybridity class and racial conflict gender and sexuality religion and ritual While considering how the availability of materials shapes syllabi this volume recommends print digital and visual resources for teaching The essays examine a host of topics including the following the development of multiethnic populations in the Caribbean and the role of various creole languages in the literature oral art forms such as dub poetry and reggae music the influence of anglophone literature in the Caribbean on literary movements outside it such as the Harlem Renaissance and black British writing Carnival religious rituals and beliefs specific genres such as slave narratives and autobiography film and drama the economics of rum Many essays list resources for further reading and the volume concludes with a section of additional teaching resources The Possession of Sarah Winchester Jim Duggins, 2011-12-21 On October 22 1844 thousands of men women and children dressed in Ascension Robes gather on a desolate freezing hillside outside Boston to greet the end of the world Among the crowd is terrified five year old Sarah Pardee for whom this is the beginning journey to extraordinary fame and notoriety That night Sarah is rescued by the cults founder William Miller and by Caty and Maggie Fox who become her friends as they travel their own path to become Americas most distinguished spirit rappers interpreting rapping sounds in haunted houses As for Sarah she will go on to become Mrs William Wirt Winchester of Winchester rifle fame one of the richest women in America She will lose a daughter after only 42 days of life an event that blights all her remaining days Guided by an obsession with the spirit world she will move to the San Jose California and build one of Americas strangest and most famous structures But first she will attend and completely disrupt the Charles Street School and then Mary Lyons Mount Holyoke Female Seminary later Mount Holyoke College she will meet Edwin Booth Americas most famous Shakespearean actor brother to John Wilkes Booth who presides over a spiritualist meeting where Sarah first communicates with her deceased daughter Thereafter she will be visited by a spirit guide who directs her building of the massive controversial monument on the west coast The Possession of Sarah Winchester tells this compelling story in her own words revealing child woman caught in the web of the rise of spiritualism in nineteenth century America It portrays a brilliant womans mind inundated by repression grief and guilt over her familys creation of a weapon that destroyed Native American lives and culture Pirates, Raiders & Invaders of the Gulf Coast Ryan Starrett, 2023-08-28 Authors Ryan Starrett and Josh Foreman chart a Gulf Coast odyssey with French adventurers English colonists Spanish Dons American filibusters Indian warriors African Maroons and pirate outlaws For centuries the shoreline between Galveston and Tallahassee was marked by the desperate deeds of men who fought for God gold and glory as well as those who simply wanted to be left alone Regardless of motive the Gulf Coast has seen its share of seafaring warriors and miscreants from the Tattooed Serpent and Osceola to Iberville and Davy Crockett It harbored privateers and pirates such as William Augustus Bowles and the Brothers Laffite Spiritual Envy Michael Krasny, 2012 Krasny brings his wide ranging knowledge and perceptive intelligence to a thoughtful and thought provoking exploration of belief and lack of belief He helps believers and nonbelievers alike understand their own questions about faith and religion Personal and

After Katrina Anna Hartnell, 2017-01-25 Through the lens provided by the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina After Katrina argues that the city of New Orleans emerges as a key site for exploring competing narratives of US decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty-first century Deploying an interdisciplinary approach to explore cultural representations of the post-storm city Anna Hartnell suggests that New Orleans has been reimagined as a laboratory for a racialized neoliberalism and as such might be seen as a terminus of the American dream This US disaster zone has unveiled a network of social and environmental crises that demonstrate that prospects of social mobility have dwindled as environmental degradation and coastal erosion emerge as major threats not just to the quality of life but to the possibility of life in coastal communities across America and the world And yet After Katrina also suggests that New Orleans culture offers a way of thinking about the United States in terms that transcend the binary of national renewal or declension The post-Hurricane city thus emerges as a flashpoint for reflecting on the contemporary United States

Zombiescapes and Phantom Zones Lee Rozelle, 2016-11-08 A study of the natural world as imagined by contemporary writers specifically their portrayals of nature as monster In Zombiescapes and Phantom Zones Ecocriticism and the Liminal from Invisible Man to The Walking Dead Lee Rozelle chronicles the weirdest ugliest and most mixed up characters to appear on the literary scene since World War II creatures intimately linked to damaged habitats that rise from the muck not to destroy or rule the world but to save it The book asks what happens to these landscapes after the madness havoc and destruction What monsters and magic surface then Rozelle argues that zombiescapes and phantom zones depicted in the book become catalysts for environmental reanimation and sources of hope Liminality offers exciting and useful new ways to conceptualize places that have historically proven troublesome unwieldy or hard to define Zombiescapes can reduce the effects of pollution promote environmental justice lessen economic disparity and localize food production The grotesques that ooze and crawl from these passages challenge readers to consider new ways to re-inhabit broken lands at a time when energy efficiency fracking climate change the Pacific trade agreement local food production and sustainability shape the intellectual landscape Rozelle focuses on literary works from 1950 to 2015 the zombiescapes and monsterscapes of post-World War II literature that portray in troubling and often devastating ways the brownfields that have been divested of much of their biodiversity and ecological viability However he also highlights how these literary works suggest a new life and new potential for such environments With an unlikely focus on places of ruination and an application of interdisciplinary transnational approaches to a range of fields and texts Rozelle advances the notion that places of distortion might become a nexus where revelation and advocacy are possible again Zombiescapes and Phantom Zones has much to offer to various fields of scholarship including literary studies ecocriticism and environmental studies Research academic and undergraduate audiences will be captivated by Rozelle s lively prose and unique anthropological ecocritical and literary analyses      Toussaint Louverture C.L.R.

 James,2023-10-10 Longlisted for the American Library in Paris Book Award Winner of the American Book Award Winner of the PEN Oakland Josephine Miles Award PERHAPS THE GREATEST VICTORY OF THE OPPRESSED OVER THEIR OPPRESSORS IN ALL HISTORY The end of slavery started in what was then San Domingo In 1791 the enslaved people of the most prized French sugar plantation colony revolted against their masters For over twelve years against a backdrop of the French Revolution they fought an epic black liberation struggle for control of the island Theirs was the first and only successful slave revolution It was the creation of Haiti as a nation the first independent black republic outside of Africa and an international inspiration to the persecuted and enslaved This is the impassioned and beautifully drawn story of the Haitian Revolution and its incredible leader Toussaint Louverture The text of this graphic novel is a play by C L R James that opened in London in 1936 with Paul Robeson in the title role For the first time black actors appeared on the British stage in a work by a black playwright The script had been lost for almost seventy years when a draft copy was discovered among James s archives Now this extraordinary drama has been reimagined by artists Nic Watts and Sakina Karimjee      Fractal Families in

 Fear of French Negroes is an interdisciplinary study that explores how people of African descent responded to the collapse and reconsolidation of colonial life in the aftermath of the Haitian Revolution 1791 1845 Using visual culture popular music and dance periodical literature historical memoirs and state papers Sara E Johnson examines the migration of people ideas and practices across imperial boundaries Building on previous scholarship on black internationalism she traces expressions of both aesthetic and experiential transcolonial black politics across the Caribbean world including Hispaniola Louisiana and the Gulf South Jamaica and Cuba Johnson examines the lives and work of figures as diverse as armed black soldiers and privateers female performers and newspaper editors to argue for the existence of competing inter Americanisms as she uncovers the struggle for unity amidst the realities of class territorial and linguistic diversity These stories move beyond a consideration of the well documented anxiety insurgent blacks occasioned in slaveholding systems to refocus attention on the wide variety of strategic alliances they generated in their quests for freedom equality and profit      Chile Jennifer A.
