Jake's Long Shadow Alan Duff, 2013-12-16 The third volume in the hard hitting best selling Once Were Warriors trilogy The millennium has changed but have the Hekes Where are they now Beth Jake and what of their other children Son Abe who has rejected violence but violence finds him Polly as beautiful as her sister Grace who committed suicide is that a Heke running around with the wealthy polo playing set and growing rich herself And the gang leader Apeman who killed Tania what s prison like does it change a man grow him or not We meet another tragic female figure Sharneeta And Alistair Trambert a middle class white boy sunk into the same welfare dependency trap as the Maoris his class criticises Meet Charlie Bennett Beth's husband a fine man and yet And yet there's Jake Heke casting his long shadow over everyone Has he Global Fragments, 2007-01-01 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has really grown up become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refractured figurations of an experience of world wide A Conversation with my Country Alan Duff, 2019-07-02 A fresh personal account of New Zealand interconnectedness now from one of our hardest hitting writers Following Once Were Warriors Alan Duff wrote Maori The Crisis and the Challenge His controversial comments shook the country A quarter of a century later New Zealand and Maoridom are in a very different place And so is Alan he has published many more books had two films made of his works founded the Duffy Books in Homes literacy programme and endured some less inspiring moments including bankruptcy Returned from living in France he views his country with fresh eyes as it is now homing in on the crises in parenting our prisons education and welfare systems and a growing culture of entitlement that entraps Pakeha and Maori alike Never one to shy away from being a whetstone on which others can sharpen their own opinions Alan tells it how he sees it The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Film Ernie Blackmore, Kerstin Knopf, Wendy Gay Pearson, Corina Wieser-Cox, 2024-11-27 The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Film is dedicated to bringing the work of Indigenous filmmakers around the world to a larger audience By giving voice to transnational and transcultural Indigenous perspectives this collection makes a significant contribution to the discourse on Indigenous filmmaking and provides an accessible overview of the contemporary state of Indigenous film Comprising 37 chapters by an international team of contributors the Handbook is divided into six parts Decolonial Intermedialities and Revisions of Western Media Colonial Histories Trauma Resistances Indigenous Lands Communities Bodies Queer Cultures and Border Crossings Youth Cultures and Emancipation Art Comedy and Music Within these sections Indigenous and non Indigenous experts from around the world examine various aspects of Indigenous film cultures analyze the works of Indigenous directors and producers worldwide and focus on readings contextual historical political aesthetic and activist of individual Indigenous films The Handbook specifically explores Indigenous film in Canada Mexico the United States Central and South America Northern Europe Australia New Zealand the Pacific and the Philippines This richly interdisciplinary volume is an essential resource for students and scholars of Indigenous Studies Cultural Studies Area Studies Film and Media Studies Feminist and Queer Studies History and anyone interested in Indigenous cultures and Postcolonial Pacific Writing Michelle Keown, 2004-12-17 This major new interdisciplinary study focuses on the representation of the body in the work of eight of Polynesia's most significant contemporary writers Drawing on anthropology psychoanalysis philosophy history and medicine Postcolonial Pacific Writing develops an innovative postcolonial framework specific to the literatures and cultures of this region The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Modernities Works Cited Index Tattooing the World Juniper Ellis, 2008 Juniper Ellis traces the origins and significance of modern tattoo in the works of nineteenth and twentieth century artists travelers missionaries scientists and such writers as Herman Melville Margaret Mead Albert Wendt and Sia Figiel book cover Get on the Waka Witi Tame Ihimaera, Witi Ihimaera, 2007 Get on the Waka is a fresh energetic collection of fiction writing by Maori since 2000 selected and with an introduction by Witi Ihimaera It showcases 17 stories and extracts from established writers most of whom have won awards and recognition in New Zealand and overseas Visual Difference Elizabeth Heffelfinger, Laura Wright, 2011 To date no text exists that focuses exclusively on the concept of postcolonial film as a framework for identifying films produced within and outside of various formerly colonized nations nor is there a scholarly text that addresses pedagogical issues about and frameworks for teaching such films This book borrows from and respects various forms of categorization intercultural global third and accented while simultaneously seeking to make manifest an alternate space of signification What feels like a mainstream approach is pedagogically necessary in terms of access both financial and physical to the films discussed herein given that this text proposes models for teaching these works at the university and secondary levels The focus of this work is therefore twofold to provide the methodology to read and teach postcolonial film and also to provide analyses in which scholars and teachers can explore the ways that the films examined herein work to further and complicate our understanding Dreamboat Dad Alan Duff,2010-09-01 A compelling novel of postcolonial as a fraught and evolving theoretical stance with an unexpected revelation that throws a powerful punch Yank is an ordinary enough teenager except that he lives in a thermal wonderland frequented by tourists eager to view the geysers and boiling mud and except for the fact that one of those tourists an American soldier visiting during the Second World War was his father The locals gave the boy the nickname of Yank a name that makes him different and ensures his mother's husband will never accept him as his own So who was Yank s real father Yank has only his dreams to fill the void until the day a letter arrives Who Sings for Lu? Alan Duff, 2012-12-01 A gritty novel of envy and relationships gone awry by best best selling writer Alan Duff This moving fast paced story is set in two contrasting worlds the rich horse breeding milieu of Riley Chadwick and his family and the hand to mouth life on the street of Lu and her mates What happens when those worlds collide Riley's daughter Anna seems to have everything looks money confidence Lu has nothing except her friends and the sense of inferiority and rage she feels the moment she sets eyes on Anna Chadwick Feelings that will run out of control Frederick's Coat Alan Duff, 2013-08-02 From the author of the best selling Once Were Warriors a powerful story of love between father and son of contrasting ways of looking at the world and of revenge When Johno comes out of prison he resolves never to go back again But his new life is not easy especially as he soon finds himself in sole charge of his strange young son Danny Danny isn t the kind of son he would have chosen but in caring for the boy Johno finds new meaning and new direction But what do you do when the world you ve so carefully built comes crashing down Can you ever escape your past This is a return to the world of criminals and violence that Alan has written about so effectively in the past but it is also a touching exploration of the relationship between father and son What Becomes of the Broken Hearted? Alan Duff,2014-03-07 The prize winning passionate and uncompromising sequel to the blistering classic novel Once Were Warriors She always came the following day for a second visit on this yearly remembering in fact Polly Heke came several times a year and had done for the last two from when she herself hit the same age as Grace d been when she uh when she killed herself The searing power of Alan Duff s masterpiece Once Were Warriors rocked a nation and was acclaimed around the world What Becomes of the Broken Hearted is the challenging poetic sequel taking up the story of the Heke family six years after Grace s suicide The novel won the Montana New Zealand Book Award for Fiction and was made into a film The Writers Directory ,2013 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2005 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature

Coming-of-Age Cinema in New Zealand Alistair Fox, 2018-03-07 Explores the complex ethical dilemmas of human mobility in the context of climate change The Long Forgetting Patrick Evans, 2007 The Long Forgetting is the first book length study of New Zealand's post colonial literary culture Beginning with a survey of the wrenching economic social and cultural changes that have occurred since 1970 including Maori protest the anti tour protests of 1981 Rogernomics Ruthanasia the fiscal envelope and the America's Cup win it then moves back to the nineteenth century and the formation of Europeans relationship with Maori Subsequent chapters survey recent critics work in breaking up the myth of male dominated cultural nationalism that occupied much of the mid twentieth century and returning to the years since 1970 show the rise of new writing by women gays and Maori A final chapter treats the Generation X phenomenon Maori writers struggle with official biculturalism and the rise of a distinctive New Zealand based Pasifika writing Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar, 2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political cultural and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world Africa the Middle East South Asia South east Asia Australia and New Zealand the Pacific the Caribbean and Canada There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial notably Britain East Asia Ireland Latin America and the United States The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature covers major events ideas movements and figures in postcolonial histories long regional survey essays on historiography and women s histories Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories Extensive cross references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease

Once Were Warriors Emiel Martens, 2007 In 1990 unknown Maori author Alan Duff suddenly became both famous and notorious in New Zealand for his first novel Once Were Warriors The violent story of a poor urban Maori family aroused much controversy in New Zealand society and the Maori community in particular Many Maori commentators condemned the novel for its negative and allegedly racist portrayal of the indigenous Maori people accusing Duff for hanging out the dirty linen and blaming the victim Four years later the homonymous film by Maori director Lee Tamahori led to similar fame and controversy On the one hand critics strongly disapproved of the commercial indigenous film on social political and aesthetic grounds On the other hand however Once Were Warriors became the most successful motion picture in the history of New Zealand cinema grossing over 6 7 million NZ dollars in the national box office and reaching a large international audience Once Were Warriors was not just a novel or film but a powerful cultural representation which had a significant impact on New Zealand society In this richly illustrated book Emiel Martens examines the impact of Once Were Warriors in Aotearoa New Zealand by exploring the two cultural representations with a specific emphasis on the film and their aftermath in postcolonial New Zealand society Why did Once Were Warriors cause such a controversy within the Maori community Which were the underlying metaphors of the public debate on both the novel and the film in New Zealand society And what did the heated reception of Once Were Warriors say about the position and identity of the indigenous Maori people within modern New Zealand Bringing together a wide variety of popular and academic texts the author discusses these urgent questions in relation to timely New Zealand and wider postcolonial issues such as racial stereotypes cultural politics ethnic relations indigenous media and Maori identity As an interdisciplinary Cultural Studies endeavour this book is surprisingly accessible and will prove interesting reading for anyone who wishes to know more about cultural identity postcolonial representation and indigenous filmmaking in Aotearoa New Zealand
