Europe? Theo d'. Haen, 2009 In Literature for Europe leading scholars from around Europe reflect on the role played by literature and by the study of literature in the constant re negotiation and re construction of cultural identities in Europe implied by the accession to the European Union in the early years of the twenty first century of fifteen new member states with the accession of a number of Balkan states impending and Turkey waiting in the wings while at the same time transatlantic relations of the EU to the USA are hotly debated in politics as in culture China and India awake as economic giants and globalization is upon us At the same time two of the earliest signatories to the treaties eventually leading to the European Union rejected a proposal for a European Constitution and linguistic religious and ethnic dividing lines show even in some of Europe s oldest nation states How do literary texts genres and forms thinking about them and teaching them respond to and shape ongoing processes of European self understanding in our era of globalization The volume seeks to answer these questions by charting key developments in a number of fields crucial to the emergence of a European common literary space literature and cultural value systems literature and cultural memory literary history translation the impact of the new media and the information age on matters of literature and identity and the impact of the postcolonial Literature for Europe is a thought provoking tour d horizon of cutting edge developments in the relationship between literary studies and the matter of Europe and suggesting an exciting agenda for literary studies in Europe It will be of interest to everyone working in European studies and or European literature

Selma Lagerlöf Edström, Vivi, 1984 Swedish Novelist

Selma Lagerlöf, 1858-1940, and Germany at the Turn of the Century Jennifer Watson, 2004 This quote from the Nobel Prize winner Nelly Sachs about Selma Lagerlof 1848 1940 is one that rings true not only for Germany but for all of Europe at the turn of the century 19th 20th Lagerlof was the first woman to win the Nobel Prize for Literature 1909 and at the height of her literary career was an internationally acclaimed author praised by the public and critics alike She was particularly heralded in Germany where Scandinavian authors have a strong impact on German literature during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This book examines the literary impact Selma Lagerlof had on German authors of the time It also clearly sheds new light on Selma Lagerlof as well as other notable German authors such as Franz Kafka Bertolt Brecht Gerhardt Hauptmann Nelly Sachs Ina Seidel and Gustav Frenssen This book will be of great value to those in the fields of Scandinavian German and Comparative literature

Rethinking National Literatures and the Literary Canon in Scandinavia Dag Heede, Anne

Heith, Ann-Sofie Lönngren, 2015-10-19 The literary field and canon in the Nordic countries are under constant negotiation and transformation with various alternative literatures having evolved alongside the majority literatures of these nations in recent decades. These new phenomena constructed around perspectives regarding language, ethnicity, sexuality, gender, and social class have been categorised as migration, minority, and queer literatures. Rethinking National Literatures and the Literary Canon in Scandinavia highlights these literatures and their histories, roles, and impacts on both the literary establishment and post-modern societies in the Nordic region. It also discusses how the constructions of national literary canons today are challenged by the influence of various critical perspectives, including postcolonial theories and queer indigenous, ethnic, literary, and gender studies. On a broader level, the book showcases the position literature has in the building of national identities in Nordic nation states and in the process demonstrates that the plurality of perspectives in literary studies has the potential to question the fundamentals of the literary canon, canon formations, national self-understanding, and identity. The book is composed of nine articles authored by literary scholars in Finland, Sweden, and Denmark. It addresses issues such as methodological nationalism in literary scholarship, the uses of concepts such as transnational and immigrant literature, the ways in which traditional features are employed in contemporary poetry, postcolonial representations in Nordic literature, and the ways that political processes of Othering are made visible in contemporary literature's uses of traditional Scandinavian folklore. Read together, these articles provide an overview of some of the challenges and changes in Nordic literature today.

En bibliografi open dan ziet men in een oogopslag dat er heel wat meer auteurs uit het Zweeds in het Nederlands door de eeuwen heen zijn vertaald. Door bibliografieën als deze in het onderzoek naar de cultuurbemiddeling te betrekken, wordt het mogelijk een completer beeld te krijgen van vertaalde buitenlandse literatuur. Deze bibliografie geeft samen met de bibliografie van Diederik Grit over de Deense letteren in Nederland en Vlaanderen (1986) en de bibliografie over Noorse literatuur in Nederlandse vertaling van Raf De Saeger (2013) ook in deze serie een bijzonder overzicht van de culturele contacten tussen Nederland en Scandinavië.

Nordic Landscapes Michael Jones, 2008 The first in-depth presentation of the Nordic landscapes to be published in nearly twenty years. Norden, the region along the northern edge of Europe bordered by Russia and the Baltic nations to the east and by North America to the west, is a particularly fruitful site for the examination of the ever-evolving meaning of landscape and region as place. Contributors to this work reveal how Norden's regions and people have been defined by and against the dominant culture of Europe while at the same time their landscapes and cultures have shaped and inspired Europe's ways of life Together the essays provide a much needed picture of this culturally rich and geographically varied part of the world pub desc

Imaging and Imagining Palestine Karène Sanchez Summerer, Sary Zananiri, 2021-07-05 Imaging and Imagining Palestine is the first comprehensive study of photography during the British Mandate period 1918-1948 It addresses well known archives photos from private collections never available before and archives that have until recently remained closed This interdisciplinary volume argues that photography is central to a different understanding of the social and political complexities of Palestine in this period While Biblical and Orientalist images abound the chapters in this book go further by questioning the impact of photography on the social histories of British Mandate Palestine This book considers the specific archives the work of individual photographers methods for reading historical photography from the present and how we might begin the process of decolonising photography Imaging and Imagining Palestine presents a timely and much needed critical evaluation of the role of photography in Palestine Drawing together leading interdisciplinary specialists and engaging a range of innovative methodologies the volume makes clear the ways in which photography reflects the shifting political cultural and economic landscape of the British Mandate period and experiences of modernity in Palestine Actively problematising conventional understandings of production circulation and the instability of the photographic document Imaging and Imagining Palestine provides essential reading for decolonial studies of photography and visual culture studies of Palestine Chrisoula Lionis author of Laughter in Occupied Palestine Comedy and Identity in Art and Film Imaging and Imagining Palestine is the first and much needed overview of photography during the British Mandate period From well known and accessible photographic archives to private family albums it deals with the cultural and political relations of the period thinking about both the Western perceptions of Palestine as well as its modern social life This book brings together an impressive array of material and analyses to form an interdisciplinary perspective that considers just how photography shapes our understanding of the past as well as the ways in which the past might be reclaimed Jack Persekian Founding Director of Al Ma mal Foundation for Contemporary Art in Jerusalem Imaging and Imagining Palestine draws together a plethora of fresh approaches to the field of photography in Palestine It considers Palestine as a central node in global photographic production and the ways in which photography shaped the modern imaging and imagining from within a fresh regional theoretical perspective Salwa Mikdadi Director al Mawrid Arab Center for the Study of Art New York University Abu Dhabi

Sweden and Visions of Norway Hildor Arnold Barton, 2003 H Arnold Barton investigates Norwegian political and cultural influences in Sweden during the period of the Swedish Norwegian dynastic union from 1814 to 1905 After a proud medieval past Norway had come under the Danish crown in the fourteenth century and had been reduced to virtually a Danish province by the sixteenth In 1814 Denmark relinquished Norway which became a separate kingdom dynastically united with Sweden with its own constitutional government Disputes during the next ninety one years caused Norway unilaterally to dissolve the tie in 1905 Barton is the first historian to look beyond the cultural conflicts and examine the impact of the union on internal developments particularly in Sweden Prior to 1814 Norway unlike Sweden had no constitution and only the rudiments of higher culture yet paradoxically Norway exerted a greater direct influence on Sweden Reflecting a society lacking a native nobility Norway s 1814 constitution was with the exception of that of the United States the most democratic in the world It became the guiding star of Swedish liberals and radicals striving to reform the antiquated system of representation in their parliament Norway s cultural void was filled with a stellar array of artists writers and musicians led by Bjoernsjerne Boornson Henrik Ibsen and Edvard Grieg From the 1850s through the late 1880s this wave of Norwegian creativity had an immense impact on literature art and music in Sweden By the 1880s however August Strindberg led a revolt against an exaggerated Norvegomania in Sweden Barton sees this reaction as a fundamental inspiration to Sweden s intense search for its own cultural character in the highly creative Swedish National Romanticism of the 1890s and early twentieth century Asian and African Studies meisai.org.il, Twentieth-century Literary Criticism ,1978 To See A Promised Land Lester I. Vogel,2010-11-01 Psychoses Johan Cullberg,2014-02-04 Psychoses provides a unique perspective on the challenges associated with understanding and treating psychoses bringing together insights and developments from medicine and psychology to give a full and balanced overview of the subject Johan Cullberg draws on his extensive experience working with those suffering from first episode psychosis to investigate issues including vulnerability factors phases of psychosis prevention the potential for recovery and contemporary attitudes to psychosis Particular attention is paid to how therapeutic interventions can either support or obstruct the self healing properties of many psychoses This sensitive and humane perspective on the nature and treatment of psychoses will be of interest to all mental health professionals interested in increasing their understanding and awareness of this subject The Company of the Creative David L. Larsen, Great works and authors of the world are introduced and reviewed artistically intellectually and theologically Persons discussed include Plato Milton Dickens Shakespeare Charlotte Bronte Mark Twain and C S Lewis
