Maps and Territories Joshua Armstrong, 2019 The rapidity of postwar globalization and the structural changes it has brought to both social and spatial aspects of everyday life has meant in France as elsewhere the destabilizing of senses of place identity and belonging as once familiar local environments are increasingly de-localized and made porous to global trends and planetary preoccupations Maps and Territories identifies such preoccupations as a fundamental underlying impetus for the contemporary French novel Indeed like France itself the protagonists of its best fiction are constantly called upon to renegotiate their identity in order to maintain any sense of belonging within the troubled territories they call home Maps and Territories reads today's French novel for how it re-maps such territories and for how it positions its protagonists vis-à-vis the pressures of globalization uncovering previously unseen affinities amongst and offering fresh readings of and offering exciting new perspectives on a diverse set of authors namely Michel Houellebecq Chloé Delaume Lydie Salvayre Jean Philippe Toussaint Virginie Despentes Philippe Vasset Jean Rolin and Marie Darrieussecq In the process it sets the literary works into dialogue with a range of today's most influential theorists of postmodernity and globalization including Paul Virilio Marc Augé Peter Sloterdijk Bruno Latour Fredric Jameson Edward Casey David Harvey and Ursula K Heise

Leftovers Ruth Cruickshank, 2020-01-31 The intrinsic ambivalence of eating and drinking often goes unrecognised In Leftovers Cruickshank's new theoretical approach reveals how representations of food drink and their consumption proliferate with overlooked figurative psychological ideological and historical interpretative potential Case studies of novels by Robbe Grillet Ernaux Darrieussecq and Houellebecq demonstrate the transferrable potential of re-thinking eating and drinking

Pathos, poetry and politics in Michel Houellebecq's fiction Russell Williams, 2020-02-03 In Pathos Poetry and Politics in Michel Houellebecq's fiction Russell Williams examines the literary style of France's most notorious novelist Houellebecq is frequently the focus of debate for his provocative comments about Islam and the decline of Western civilisation This book refocuses attention on how such provocation is an integral part of the texture of his novels Williams considers Houellebecq's writing about literature and outlines the key principles of the author's poetics founded on an acute sensitivity to reading experience He then explores Houellebecq's earliest poetry before mapping this poetic voice into his subsequent fiction including S rotonine 2019 Houellebecq's relationship with genre fiction and the crucial issue of the authorial persona that exists in and around his texts are also explored

Autour de l'extrême littéraire Alastair Hemmens, Russell Williams, 2012-12-18 The extreme is an essential aspect of contemporary experience Thrill seekers spend the weekend in the search of the adrenaline rush of extreme sports In the political arena the world has begun to rediscover the split between the extreme left and the extreme right Through 24 hour rolling news images of violence torture and war are televised unremittingly into the living room while the Internet places hardcore pornography snuff film and cannibalism within easy reach of anyone with a personal computer or a smartphone The extreme has even become a quality companies seek to associate with the most banal of commodities such as ice cream and hair gel These different manifestations of extremity suggest a contradictory even paradoxical relationship with the extreme The contributors to this book explore how writing in French from the Middle Ages to the present day has interrogated extremity Taken together these essays demonstrate that the quality of the extreme can be applied to a great number of texts for different reasons and from myriad perspectives Moreover the extreme is revealed as a quality both distinct from and in tension with the crossing of boundaries associated with transgression It is a movement towards and away from a centre of radiation that escapes cultural norms without necessarily reinforcing them This sensation of rushing and wandering outside the boundaries of what is considered safe and normal provides the extreme with its adrenaline charged response of excitement or horror The analyses contained in this volume consider a number of manifestations of the extreme The ambiguities of gender in medieval romance are explored in the context of the Arthurian court The 19th century is examined through the prose poems of Baudelaire and the littérature sauvage of the Zutistes The difficulties of writing the trauma of war and genocide in the 20th century are discussed through the work of Jorge Semprín and Agota Kristof The contemporary extreme in French literature is examined in the autofiction of Christine Angot the work of Annie Ernaux and Catherine Millet the controversial novels of Michel Houellebecq and the worldwide influence of the Marquis de Sade on writing today Whilst the extreme may have a wide variety of expressions in French literature it is always outside beyond and far from the centre of our everyday experience It shocks us excites us and horrifies us often all at once This book seeks to provide an insight into how and why the extreme has fascinated and continues to fascinate the French literary imagination

Re-Thinking Agency Joanna Godlewicz-Adamiec, Paweł Piszczatowski, 2024-10-07 The book explores the multifaceted nature of contemporary reflections on agency focusing on various discursive practices that shape the posthumanist approach to the relationship between the human and non human world from a planetary perspective The chapters delve into critical human animal studies examine new non anthropocentric identity constructs and offer analyses that reinterpret meanings through semiotic inversions and challenge static cultural patterns The book concludes with discussions on decolonization practices that aim to liberate agency from oppressive systems particularly those dominated by imperial phallogocentrism Universality after Universalism Markus Messling, 2023-10-24 The idea of universalism inherited from the French Revolution has been strongly discredited by its colonial history today it is also the target of nationalist attacks What remains of it Now available in English Markus Messling's critically acclaimed study shows how contemporary Francophone literatures seek after European universalism approaches to a new universality without which knowledge and justice cannot be organised in world society With a foreword by Souleymane Bachir Diagne The Representation of the Relationship between Center and Periphery in the Contemporary Novel Ruth Amar, Françoise Saquer-Sabin, 2018-10-15 This collection of essays offers a comparative perspective on different forms of representation of social hybridity in contemporary novels through various cultural and linguistic lenses It explores the various subcategories of their interdependent relationships including power and domination between hegemony and marginality The book revolves around five axes namely writing strategies and reterritorialization marginality and intermediary spaces revisited urban spaces when periphery becomes center and the modality of confrontation and construction of identity It focuses on the identification and classification of spaces in order to understand their function in relation to the thematic strategy of the novel Its main objective is identifying the textual representation of the challenge of center and periphery as well as these concepts role and significance in diegesis Thus new light is shed on the subject and on the contemporary novel as a whole Autofiction(s) et scandale Claudia Jacobi, Christine Ott, Lena Schönwälder, 2022-01-31 Depuis son invention par Serge Doubrovsky en 1977 le terme autofiction a fait l'objet de vives controverses Celles-ci ont suscité par le fait qu'au cours des dernières décennies de nombreux auteurs ont utilisé la critique autofictionnelle comme un moyen pour partager des détails explosifs de leur vie tout en insistant sur une partie fictionnelle indéterminée de leur oeuvre L'interférence entre des stratégies narratives fictionnelles et factuelles propre à l'autofiction semble prédestiner celle-ci à la représentation et la provocation du scandale Ce volume rassemble des contributions qui clarifient la relation entre l'autofiction et le scandale d'un point de vue épistémologique littéraire historique et esthétique et qui explorent la question éthique des limites entre l'espace public et l'espace privé Die Rezeptionsgeschichte des 1977 von Serge Doubrovsky geprägten und seitdem stark polarisierenden Begriff der Autofiktion zeigt dass autofiktionales Schreiben in den vergangenen Jahrzehnten von zahlreichen Autorinnen als Möglichkeit genutzt wurde einerseits brenzlige Einblicke in ihr Leben zu geben sich andererseits jedoch bei Bedarf auf einen nicht bestimmbareren fiktionalen Anteil ihres Werks zu berufen Die der Autofiktion zugrunde liegenden Interferenzen zwischen fiktionalen und faktualen Erzählstrategien scheinen die Autofiktion zur Darstellung und Provokation von Skandalen zu prädestinieren Der Band versammelt Beiträge die den Zusammenhang zwischen Autofiktion und Skandal aus epistemologischer literaturgeschichtlicher und rezeptionsästhetischer Perspektive beleuchten und ethischen Fragen der Grenzziehung zwischen öffentlichem und privatem Raum nachgehen Decadence in Literature and Intellectual Debate since 1945 D.
