wars and sees new developments in the waging of war reconsiderations of the last century's legacy of warfare are necessary to our understanding of the current world order In Soldiers Once and Still Alex Vernon looks back through the twentieth century in order to confront issues of self and community in veterans literature exploring how war and the military have shaped the identities of Ernest Hemingway James Salter and Tim O'Brien three of the twentieth century's most respected authors Vernon specifically explores the various ways war and the military through both cultural and personal experience have affected social and gender identities and dynamics in each author's work Hemingway Salter and O'Brien form the core of Soldiers Once and Still because each represents a different warring generation of twentieth century America World War I with Hemingway World War II and Korea with Salter and Vietnam with O'Brien Each author also represents a different literary voice of the twentieth century from modern to mid century to postmodern and each presents a different battlefield experience Hemingway as noncombatant Salter as air force fighter pilot and O'Brien as army grunt War's pervasive influence on the individual means that for veterans turned writers like Hemingway Salter and O'Brien the war experience infiltrates their entire body of writing their works can be seen not only as war literature but also as veterans literature As such their entire postwar oeuvre regardless of whether an individual work explicitly addresses the war or the military is open to Vernon's exploration of war society gender and literary history Vernon's own experiences as a soldier a veteran a writer and a critic inform this enlightening critique of American literature offering students and scholars of American literature and war studies an invaluable tool for understanding war's effects on the veteran writer and his society

A Journal of the Life of Thomas Story Thomas Story, 1747 An Organon of Life Knowledge Michael Basseler, 2019-01-23 Can fiction teach us how to live This study offers a fresh take on the North American short story exploring how the genre has engaged in the construction and circulation of life knowledge Echoing the resurgence of short story scholarship in recent years it thus contributes a genre focused perspective to the growing field of literature and knowledge studies Drawing on stories from the late 19th century to the present by authors such as Henry James F Scott Fitzgerald Eudora Welty Junot Diaz and Alice Munro Michael Basseler examines how knowledge about life and how to live it is generically constituted and vice versa how literary genres such as the short story are embedded in broader cultural frameworks of knowledge production

Bad Feminist Roxane Gay, 2014-08-21 Pink is my favourite colour I used to say my favourite colour was black to be cool but it is pink all shades of pink If I have an accessory it is probably pink I read Vogue and I'm not doing it ironically though it might seem that way I once live tweeted the September issue In these funny and insightful essays Roxane Gay takes us through the journey of her evolution as a woman Sweet Valley High of colour The Help while also taking readers on a ride through culture of the last few years Girls Django in Chains and commenting on the state of feminism today abortion Chris Brown The portrait that emerges is not only one of an incredibly insightful woman continually growing to understand herself and our society but also one of our culture Bad Feminist is a sharp funny and sincere look at the ways in which the culture we consume becomes who we are and an inspiring call to arms of all the ways we still need to do better

Who Says? Lisa Zeidner, 2021-02-09 A thorough illuminating and entertaining guide to crafting point of view a fiction writer's most essential choice Who is telling the story to whom is the single most important question about any work of fiction the answer is central to everything from style and tone to plot and pacing Using hundreds of examples from Jane Austen to Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Leo Tolstoy to Stephen King novelist and longtime MFA professor Lisa Zeidner dives deep into the points of view we are most familiar with first and third person and moves beyond to second person narration frame tales and even animal points of view Engaging and accessible Who Says presents any practicing writer with a new system for choosing a point of view experimenting with how it determines the narrative and applying these ideas to revision

There and Then James Salter, 2013-08-27 This collection offers two dozen essays and sketches about one of the passions of Salter's life travel a subject beloved by writers across the centuries Over twenty years of skiing hiking climbing from Colorado to Japan to the Tyrol from Austria and Switzerland to Germany and France Salter is an engaging companion sharing his great enthusiasm and adventures James Salter's novels and volumes of memoir have been widely celebrated and he is now recognized as one of America's most important writers Susan Sontag once remarked Salter is among the very few North American writers all of whose work I want to read whose as yet unpublished books I wait for impatiently

Her Last Death Susanna Sonnenberg, 2008-01-01 Her Last Death begins as the phone rings early one morning in the Montana house where Susanna Sonnenberg lives with her husband and two young sons Her aunt is calling to tell Susanna her mother is in a coma after a car accident She might not live Any daughter would rush the thousands of miles to her mother's bedside But Susanna cannot bring herself to go Her courageous memoir explains why Glamorous charismatic and a compulsive liar Susanna's mother seduced everyone who entered her orbit With outrageous behavior and judgment tinged by drug use she taught her child the art of sex and the benefits of lying Susanna struggled to break out of this compelling world determined as many daughters are not to become her mother Sonnenberg mines tender and startling memories as she writes of her fierce resolve to forge her independence to become a woman capable of trust and to be a good mother to her own children Her Last Death is riveting disarming and searingly beautiful

Light Years James Salter, 2011-02-09 A brilliant portrait of a marriage from the PEN Faulkner Award winner and author of A Sport and a Pastime with an introduction by Richard Ford Light Years is a novel of almost holy radiance to me It is great in every sense of the word vast and timeless and enduring Lauren Groff bestselling author of Fates and Furies Remarkable An unexpectedly moving ode to beautiful lives frayed by time James Wolcott Esquire A twentieth century masterpiece At once iridescent lyrical mystical and magnetic Bloomsbury Review Nedra and Viri's favored life revolves around delightful dinners imaginative games with their children enviable friends and idyllic days spent skating on a frozen river or basking in the sun on the beach But even as Salter lingers over the surface of their marriage he lets us see the fine cracks that are spreading through it flaws that will eventually mar the lovely picture beyond repair Seductive witty and elegantly nuanced Light Years is a classic novel of an entire generation that discovered the limits of its own happiness and then felt compelled to destroy it

The Book Review Digest, 2005 The New Yorker, 2005 Vanity Fair, 2005-04 Dusk and Other Stories James Salter, 2014-07-31 First published nearly a quarter century ago and one of the very few short story collections to win the PEN Faulkner Award this is American fiction at its most vital each narrative a masterpiece of sustained power and seemingly effortless literary grace Two New York attorneys newly flush with wealth embark on a dissolute tour of Italy an ambitious young screenwriter unexpectedly discovers the true meaning of art and glory a ruder far off in the fields is involved in an horrific accident night is falling and she must face her destiny alone These stories confirm James Salter as one of the finest writers of our time
