Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book's discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading

Sports Gail Fay, 2012-11-21 This volume looks at a wide variety of topics related to high school sports everything from choosing a sport to preparing to play at the college level Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, Karina R. Clemmons, 2016-11-02 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents More importantly literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads smart insightful and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents Hayn Kaplan and their contributors address a wide range of topics how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements engaging disenfranchised readers pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen This book has been updated to reflect the wealth of new YA literature that has been published since the first edition appeared in March 2012 and to reflect new trends in technology that influences how adolescents are reading and responding to literature Caring Hearts and Critical Minds Steven Wolk, 2013 Wolk demonstrates how to integrate inquiry learning exciting and contemporary literature and teaching for social responsibility across the curriculum He takes teachers step by step through the process of designing an inquiry based literature unit and then provides five full units used in real middle grade classrooms Featuring a remarkable range of recommended resources and hundreds of novels from across the literary genres Caring Hearts Critical Minds gives teachers a blueprint for creating dynamic units with rigorous lessons about topics kids care about from media and the environment to personal happiness and global poverty Wolk shows teachers how to find stimulating real world complex texts called for in the Common Core State Standards and integrate them into literature units Publisher's website Choosing Charters Iris C. Rotberg, Joshua L. Glazer, 2018 Do charter schools strengthen students educational experience What are their social costs This volume brings together a group of premier researchers to address questions about the purposes of charter schools and the role of public policy in shaping the educational agenda Chapter authors explore topics seldom encountered in the current charter school debate such as the challenges faced by charter schools in guaranteeing students civil rights and other legal protections the educational and social implications of current instructional programs designed specifically for low income and minority students the use of charters as school turnaround agents and other issues that lie at the intersection of education politics and social policy

Readers across the political spectrum both supporters and critics of charter schools can use this book to inform public policy about the ways in which charters affect diversity and inequality and the potential to devise policies that mitigate the most troublesome social costs of charter schools Contributors include Adam Gamoran Jeffrey R Henig Henry M Levin Roslyn Arlin Mickelson Janelle Scott and Kevin Welner This is an excruciatingly important work At this point in time it is essential to understand whether and in what ways charter schools contribute to segregation and how they might avoid doing so Mindy L Kornhaber Pennsylvania State University

Migrations and Mobilities Seyla Benhabib, Judith Resnik, 2009-03 This work discusses the unprecedented challenges that the movement of peoples across national borders poses for the people involved as well as for the places to which they travel and their countries of origin

Conflict, Insecurity and Mobility Ibrahim Sirkeci, Jeffrey H. Cohen, Pinar Yazgan, 2016 Theories and models of contemporary migration often revolves around neofunctional models They define migrants as rational actors who are focused on improving their well being which is enabled by access to opportunities that are not available in their origin communities and or countries Nevertheless initiation of migration is largely driven by difficulties discomfort disagreements tensions and conflicts at the origin while migration decision and destination choices are moderated by individual characteristics cultural and social capital as well as by the local national and international context In other words people do not move when they are satisfied and comfortable with what they have and where they are The book s scope covers marginalisation and gangs Kurds in Istanbul Border perception Development security and Frontex Kurdish Diaspora Perspectives on conflicts return of Kurdish villagers young migrants in Istanbul communal violence Military service migration nexus

The Right Price Peter J. Neumann, Joshua T. Cohen, Daniel A. Ollendorf, 2021 The US prescription drug business is a 500 billion industry whose rising prices carry profound consequences for patients caregivers employers and taxpayers across the nation In the United States average prices of leading brand name drugs are two to four times higher than prices charged in other wealthy countries raising questions as to what Americans are getting for the extra expense On the other hand healthy industry returns have arguably fueled life saving innovation With the advent of ever more targeted and powerful treatments including cell and gene based therapies with multi million dollar price tags the need for sensible drug pricing policies will only intensify The Right Price sheds light on the controversial topic of drug pricing by providing an accessible guide to pharmaceutical markets and analytic techniques used to measure the value of drug therapies It illustrates the need for value based pricing through real life stories of patients and their experiences with the drug industry and explains why simple solutions like price controls and the importation of cheaper drugs from other countries are problematic This volume describes how researchers and policy makers have pursued drug valuation efforts in the past and lays out a series of recommendations based on years of shared author experience serving on national drug policy platforms for how to further improve pharmaceutical value assessment in the United States With unique industry insights and clear narrative The Right Price unveils why the pricing of drugs continues to be so challenging and how public and private officials can create more informed policies to achieve the right balance between drug pricing and value

Peoples of the Earth Martin Edwin Andersen, 2012-07-10 Peoples of the Earth employs a comparative history of ethno nationalism to examine Indian activism and its challenges to the political social and economic status quo in the countries of Central and South America It explores the intersect between problems of democratic empowerment and security including the appearance of radical Islam among Indians in two important countries arising from the re emergence of dormant forms of ethnic militancy and unprecedented internal challenges to nation states The institutions and practices of Indian self government in the United States and Canada are examined as a means of comparison with contemporary phenomena in Central and South America suggesting frameworks for the successful democratic incorporation of the region s most disenfranchised peoples European models emerging from intermestic dilemmas are considered as are those involving the Inuit people or Eskimos in the Canadian far north as policymakers there think outside the box in ways that include more robust roles for both sub national and international bodies Finally the work challenges policymakers to broaden the debate about how to approach the issues of political and economic empowerment and regional security concerning Native peoples to include consideration of new ways of protecting both land rights and the environment thus avoiding a zero sum solution between the region s 40 million Indians and the rest of its peoples Peoples of the Earth has the potential to become a pioneer study addressing ethnic activism characterized by multiple small groups pressing for state recognition and democratic participation while also promoting a defence of the environment and natural resources Part of its attractiveness is the likelihood that the work will lead to further investigations and will become an authoritative point of departure for the fertile area of ethnonationalism studies in Latin America Each country chapter provides a succinct but substantial presentation of the basic issues and challenges facing the Native peoples of the country Overall the book has an excellent mix of historical and contemporary analysis

Contested Commodities Margaret Jane Radin, 2001-11-05 How far should society go in permitting people to buy and sell goods and services Radin addresses this controversial issue in an exploration of contested commodification As a philosophical pragmatist the author argues for an incomplete commodification in which some contested things can be bought and sold but only under regulated circumstances
