Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one s humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self examination of one s most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one s sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes Lit Mary Karr, 2016-06-13 Lit is about getting drunk and getting sober becoming a mother by letting go of a mother learning to write by learning to live Written with Karr s relentless honesty unflinching self scrutiny and irreverent lacerating humor it is a truly electrifying story of how to grow up as only Mary Karr can tell it Out of the Wreck I Rise ,2016-08-23 Addiction is easy to fall into and hard to escape It destroys the lives of individuals and has a devastating cost to society Steinberg and Bader harness the power of literature poetry and creativity to illuminate what alcoholism and addiction are all about Each chapter begins with advice and commentary followed by a wealth of quotes to inspire and heal The result is a mosaic of observations and encouragement that draws on writers and artists spanning thousands of years Catalogue of the University of Michigan University of Michigan,1936 Announcements for the following year included in some vols The Church in an Age of Secular Mysticism (Ministry in a Secular Age Book #6) Andrew Root,2023-10-10 Post Christian life and society do not eliminate a desire for the transcendent rather they create an environment for new and divergent spiritual communities and practices to flourish We are flooded with spiritualities that appeal to human desires for nonreligious personal transformation But many fail to deliver because they fall into the trap of the self In the last book of the Ministry in a Secular Age series leading practical theologian Andrew Root shows the differences between these spiritualities and authentic Christian transformation He explores the dangers of following or adapting these reigning mysticisms and explains why the self has become so important yet so burdened with guilt and how we should think about both To help us understand our confusing cultural landscape he maps spiritualities using twenty of the best memoirs from 2015 to 2020 in which secular mystics promote their mystical and transformational pathways Root concludes with a more excellent way even a mysticism centered on the theology of the cross that pastors and leaders can use to form their own imaginations and practices This Month ,2010 understood as prayer whereby encouraging us to see that everyday life carries religious import prayer and the religious life are not restricted to special places and times but are open to all believers at all times Plekon examines the works of diverse authors including many who have challenged the status quo of institutional churches He asks us to listen to what poets writers activists and others tell us about how they pray at work and at home with colleagues family and friends in all the experiences of life from joy to suffering sadness to hope Among them are Sarah Coakley Rowan Williams Heather Havrilesky Sara Miles Thomas Merton Mary Oliver Christian Wiman Mary Karr Barbara Brown Taylor Dorothy Day Maria Skobtsova Paul Evdokimov Seraphim of Sarov and Richard Rohr Plekon argues that prayer encompasses a much wider variety of activity than formal and liturgical prayers and that by recognizing such aspects of prayer the believer is made more receptive to transformative aspects of prayerful attitudes
