Bağlama,2025-06-30 In the twenty first century millions have been forcibly displaced due to ethno religious conflicts socio political instability and economic crises turning migration into a global phenomenon The traumatic realities of refugees imprisonment torture loss discrimination and marginalisation have increasingly become subjects of academic inquiry across multiple disciplines Literature has also played a crucial role in representing these complexities and offered fictionalised accounts of refugee experiences before during and after migration This book critically examines contemporary refugee narratives and highlights their potential to universalise the refugee experience It argues that while contemporary refugee literature challenges dominant representations and reclaims subjectivity it is also shaped by the Western literary marketplace which refashions displacement into marketable narratives of resilience and redemption tempering its radical potential and framing it within apolitical humanitarian discourse that prioritises empathy over structural critique The book calls for refugee narratives to resist market driven expectations and engage in epistemic disobedience challenging dominant frameworks that dictate how refugee experiences should be represented understood and consumed Transcultural Identities in Contemporary Literature Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Julie Hansen, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2013-10-01 In recent decades globalization has led to increased mobility and interconnectedness For a growing number of people contemporary life entails new local and transnational interdependencies which transform individual and collective allegiances Contemporary literature often reflects these changes through its exploration of migrant experiences and transcultural identities Calling into question traditional definitions of culture many recent works of poetry and prose fiction go beyond the spatial boundaries of a given state emphasizing instead the mixing and collision of languages cultures and identities In doing so they also challenge recent and contemporary discourses about cultural identities fostering a more nuanced understanding of the complexities of identity formation processes in diverse transcultural frameworks This volume analyses how traditional understandings of culture as well as literary representations of identity constructs can be reconceptualized from a transcultural perspective In four thematic sections focusing on migration cosmopolitanism multiculturalism and literary translingualism the twelve essays included in this volume explore various facets of transculturality in contemporary poetry and fiction from around the world Contributors Malin Lidström Brock Katherina Dodou Pilar Cuder Domínguez Stefan Helgesson Christoph Houswitschka Carly McLaughlin Kristin Rebien J B Rollins Karen L Ryan Eric Sellin Mats Tegmark Carmen Zamorano Llena Irene Gilsenan Nordin is Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden She is founder and director of DUCIS Dalarna University Centre for Irish Studies and leads Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group Julie Hansen is Research Fellow at the Uppsala Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies and teaches Russian literature in the Department of Modern Languages at Uppsala University Sweden Carmen Zamorano Llena is Associate Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden and member of Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group The Outsider Interviews Jim Henderson, Todd Hunter, Craig Spinks, 2010-07-01 Statistics tell us that Christianity has an image problem But what are the stories behind the stats This question led Jim Henderson Todd Hunter and Craig Spinks to host a national interview tour with young non Christians and Christians in Kansas City Phoenix Denver and Seattle They wanted to hear why Christians get such a bad rap and what we can do to improve Inspired by David Kinnaman's bestselling book unChristian The Outsider Interviews provides close encounters with what a new generation really thinks of Christianity and helps readers learn to live faithfully in a fast changing world The Poetics and Ethics of Attention in Contemporary British Narrative Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2022-12-27 This book uses attention as a prism through which to interrogate the literary text. It starts from analyses of the changes that the mediasphere and communication technologies have brought for the contemporary subject submitting him/her to the tyranny of a new attention economy. My point is that the contemporary novel and memoir resist such influences and evince a great deal of resilience by promoting an ecology of attention. Cillon based on poetic options whose pragmatic effect is to develop an ethics of the particularist type. To do this I draw on critical and theoretical literature hailing from various fields: psychology but also more prominently phenomenology, political philosophy and analytical philosophy essentially Ordinary Language Philosophy alongside the ethics of care and vulnerability. By using a selection of fictional and non-fictional narratives I address such issues as social invisibilities, climate change, AI and cognitive disability and end up drafting a poetics of attention. The Routledge
