SHORTLISTED FOR THE SHIRLEY JACKSON AWARD Prolific author and screenwriter Robert Shearman has won numerous awards for his short stories of dark fantasy and horror In this collection Shearman visits worlds that are unsettling and strange Sometimes they are just like ours except landlocked countries may disappear overnight marriages to camels are the norm and the dead turn into musical instruments Sometimes they are quite alien where children carve their own tongues from trees and magic shows are performed to amuse the troops in the war between demons and angels There is horror and dreams fulfilled and squandered of true love Venture into the world of Robert Shearman s darkly exhilarating imagination many distractions So years ago I decided I d only write first drafts in art galleries And the best of them all is the National Gallery in London a pigeon s throw from Nelson s Column I can walk around there with my notebook thinking up stories and if I get bored there are lots of expensive pictures to look at Perfect A lot of those paintings however have angels in them They re all over the place wings raised halos gleaming perching on clouds blowing trumpets hovering around the Virgin Mary as if they re her strange naked childlike bodyguards And I began to notice That whenever the writing is going well the angels seemed happy and would smile at me And whenever the words weren t coming out right when I felt sluggish when I thought I d rather take off and get myself a beer they d start to glare I wrote this story in the National Gallery Accompanied by a lot of glaring angels Enjoy      Mammoth Books presents Demonic Dreams Christopher Fowler,Norman Partridge,Robert Shearman,2012-07-26 Oh I Do Like to Be Beside the Seaside Christopher Fowler Christopher Fowler explains Seaside came about firstly because I was commissioned to write a story for the World Horror Convention souvenir book and as the event was to take place in Brighton it seemed logical to set a tale on the South coast of England I had written a fantasy novel Calabash some years earlier hinting at the dark madness of such seaside towns which are the antithesis of their Mediterranean counterparts I thought of the depressing Morrissey song Every Day is Like Sunday which captures the awfulness of English resorts Coincidentally Kim Newman and I were discussing the inherent creepiness of pantomime dames and I decided it was time to give vent to my horror of these coastal pleasure domes I wish I d thought to include screaming gangs of hen nighters as well And I thought it was a nice touch to have everyone in the story telling the hero to fuck off until he finally does Featherweight Robert Shearman I don t like writing at home much admits the author Home is a place for

Partridge I was surprised to receive an invitation for S T Joshi s Black Wings reveals Partridge an anthology of Lovecraftian fiction Although I knew S T admired my work I ve never quite seen myself as a Mythos writer While I respect H P Lovecraft and his contribution to horror I've never felt that his worldview or maybe I should say universeview meshed with mine In the end that's what made the story work at least for me I concentrated on my differences with Lovecraft and approached the material from a place where Jim Thompson would be more comfortable than HPL And I'm delighted that so many people have enjoyed the tale it was a lot of fun to write
