Marie Grubbe Jens Peter Jacobsen, 2013-05-18 From one of the world s greatest writers the classic novel of the passion driven life George Brandes calls this book the greatest tour de force in Danish literature It is a rattling historical romance the story of a woman who loved for the sake of having her love returned A grim realistic biographical novel It gives an interesting picture of Denmark of the latter seventeenth century and of the heroine who casts her fortunes first with a natural son of the king and then with a peasant This is the first fruit in Danish fiction of the scientific spirit and one of the earliest manifestations of the modern ideas introduced in Scandinavian letters by Georg Brandes      Marie Grubbe J. Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature Poul Houe, Sven Hakon Rossel, 1997 Documentary literature became an international phenomenon on the cultural and political scene in the 1960s and 1970s From the American New Journalism in works by such writers as Norman Mailer and Tom Wolfe to the German Industriereportagen by Gunther Wallraff and others documentarism presented a variety of controversial interplays between facts and fiction labeled as faction fables of fact or the like Scandinavian literature made important and unique contributions to this international movement and Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is the first comprehensive volume ever published on the historical significance and future implications of these Nordic dimensions of documentarism and their international context The volume is centered on Swedish documentary literature in the 1960s and 1970s and on such major writers as Per Olov Enquist Sven Lindqvist Sara Lidman and Per Olov Sundman but the powerful voices of Danish writer Thorkild Hansen and Norwegian novelist Dag Solstad are also heard in its critical concert The diversity of Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is further enhanced by surveys and analyses of the historical background for more recent works and activities and by theoretical inquiries into the epistemological status of documentarism its theoretical narrative and theatrical devices its predominant genres and links to other modes of mass communication and its political affiliations and implications For readers already familiar with its subject matter Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature offers an opportunity to revisit and recontextualize a crucial moment in their recent cultural past For readers who have yet to be exposed to documentary works of fiction the volume presents a timely theoretical historical and critical introduction to the key problematics and potentials of their novel field of interest Whether viewed as part of the past or part of the present documentarism remains an intellectual challenge which this volume is aimed at addressing Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is edited by two Scandinavian scholars living abroad and its essays are written by senior and junior scholars and critics from Scandinavia Europe and America an interview with Per Olov Enquist and an autobiographical piece by Sven Lindqvist complete the volume Marie Grubbe J. P. Jacobsen, 1931

Marie Grubbe : A lady of the 17th century J. P. Jacobsen, 1975 Reinventions of the Novel, 2021-11-01 The history of the Novel is a story of perpetual change so that its identity still remains open to question The sixteen articles in Reinventions of the Novel investigate connections differences and similarities in the Novel around the world for the past three hundred years Rather than searching for the essence of the genre they look for the formal and thematic patterns on which the novel thrives considering such matters as tradition and modernity realism rhetoric and identity tableau and spatiality and wondering whether epic and avant garde are not quite contradictory terms Close readings combined with historical overviews and theoretical discussions open up new constellations in the history of the novel Untraditional cross readings are made between Rabelais and Jens Peter Jacobsen and between Balzac and Nicholson Baker Transformations of traditional modes of epic biography and Bildung are traced as far as Georges Perec and Günter Grass while canonical classics like Proust Joyce Richardson and Goethe are read in prosaic pragmatic and media specific contexts In the 1920s many people predicted the death of the novel now more than ever it seems to be the dominant literary form perhaps because it is the same yet always different
