No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate, 2020-10-13 Children's literature isn't just for children anymore This original study explores the varied forms and roles of children's literature when it's written for adults What do Adam Mansbach's Go the F k to Sleep and Barbara Park's MA There's Nothing to Do Here have in common These large format picture books are decidedly intended for parents rather than children In No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate examines a constellation of books that form a paradoxical new genre children's literature for adults Distinguishing these books from YA and middle grade fiction that appeals to adult readers Abate argues that there is something unique about this phenomenon Principally defined by its form and audience children's literature Abate demonstrates engages with more than mere nostalgia when recast for grown up readers Abate examines how board books coloring books bedtime stories and series detective fiction written and published specifically for adults question the boundaries of genre and challenge the assumption that adulthood and childhood are mutually exclusive

The Ancient World in Alternative History and Counterfactual Fictions Alberto J. Quiroga Puertas, Leire Olabarria, 2024-08-22 Focusing in turn on history powerful individuals underrepresented voices and the arts the essays in this collection cover a wide variety of modern and contemporary narrative fiction from Jo Walton and L Sprague De Camp to T S Chaudhry and Catherynne M Valente Chapters look into the question of chance versus determinism in the unfolding of historical events the role individuals play in shaping a society or occasion and the way art and literature symbolise important messages in counterfactual histories They also show how uchronic narratives can take advantage of modern literary techniques to reveal new and relevant aspects of the past giving voices to marginalised minorities and suppressed individuals of the ancient world Counterfactual fiction and uchronic narratives have been largely up until now the domain of literary critics However these modes of literature are here analysed by scholars of Ancient History Egyptology and Classics shedding important new light on how cultures of the ancient world have been and still are perceived and to what extent our conceptions of the past are used to explore alternate presents and futures Alternate history entices the imagination of the public by suggesting hypothetical scenarios that never occurred underlining a latent tension between reality and imagination and between determinism and contingency This interest has resulted in a growing number of publications that gauge the impact of what if narratives and this one is the first to give scholars of the ancient world centre stage
