recommended for readers who seek a thoughtful and thought provoking exploration of identity and alienation Lincoln's masterful storytelling and keen observations of the human spirit make this book not only an engaging read but also a valuable contribution to the canon of American literature Manufacturers' Record ,1926 Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1864 The Commercial & Financial Chronicle ... ,1891 Rebuilding Zion Daniel W. Stowell,2001-09-20

Both the North and the South viewed the Civil War in Christian terms Each side believed that its fight was just that God favored its cause Rebuilding Zion is the first study to explore simultaneously the reaction of southern white evangelicals northern white evangelicals and Christian freedpeople to Confederate defeat As white southerners struggled to assure themselves that the collapse of the Confederacy was not an indication of God's stern judgment white northerners and freedpeople were certain that it was Author Daniel W Stowell tells the story of the religious reconstruction of the South following the war a bitter contest between southern and northern evangelicals at the heart of which was the fate of the freedpeople's souls and the southern effort to maintain a sense of sectional identity Central to the southern churches vision of the Civil War was the idea that God had not abandoned the South defeat was a Father's stern chastisement Secession and slavery had not been sinful rather it was the radicalism of the northern denominations that threatened the purity of the Gospel Northern evangelicals armed with a vastly different vision of the meaning of the war and their call to Christian duty entered the post war South intending to save white southerner and ex slave alike The freedpeople however drew their own providential meaning from the war and its outcome The goal for blacks in the postwar period was to establish churches for themselves separate from the control of their former masters Stowell plots the conflicts that resulted from these competing visions of the religious reconstruction of the South By demonstrating how the southern vision eventually came to predominate over but not eradicate the northern and freedpeople's visions for the religious life of the South he shows how the southern churches became one of the principal bulwarks of the New South a region marked by intense piety and intense racism throughout the twentieth century The ... web atomic spectrometry laser induced atomic emission spectroscopy aes is a fast technique to determine directly elemental sulfur practically no matrix effects occur and the method is virtually nondestructive and easy to use a disadvantage is the rather poor sensitivity for example a typical detection limit for sulfur in steel is 70 μg
