(Re)Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Cristina Pividori, David Owen, 2024-07-09 Re Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Beyond Post Memory is an exploration of war narratives through the lens of postmemory offering a critical re evaluation of how contemporary literature and cultural products reshape our understanding of past conflicts This volume presents a rich tapestry of perspectives drawing from an array of conflicts and incorporating insights from international experts across various disciplines including contemporary literature film studies visual arts and cultural studies It critically builds upon and extends Marianne Hirsch's concept of postmemory engaging with complex themes like the ethical dimensions of war writing the authenticity of representations and the creative power of art in reimagining traumatic events This study not only challenges traditional boundaries in war literature and memory studies but also resonates with contemporary concerns about societal engagement with violent pasts making it a significant addition to scholarly discourse and essential reading for those interested in the intersection of history memory and literature

Contemporary European Crime Fiction Monica Dall'Asta, Jacques Migozzi, Federico Pagello, Andrew Pepper, 2023-04-20 This book represents the first extended consideration of contemporary crime fiction as a European phenomenon Understanding crime fiction in its broadest sense as a transmedia practice and offering unique insights into this practice in specific European countries and as a genuinely transcontinental endeavour this book argues that the distinctiveness of the form can be found in its related historical and political inquiries It asks how the genre's excavation of Europe's history of violence and protest in the twentieth century is informed by contemporary political questions It also considers how the genre's progressive reimagining of new identities forged at the crossroads of ethnicity gender and sexuality is offset by its bleaker assessment of the corrosive effects of entrenched social inequalities political corruption and state violence The result is a rich vibrant collection that shows how crime fiction can help us better understand the complex relationship between Europe's past present and future Seven chapters are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
