Literature and Postcolonial Studies ,2023-04-17 What is the role of literature in our global landscape today How do local authors respond to the growing worldwide power of English and the persisting effects of the colonial systems that paved the way for globalization today These questions have often been approached very differently by postcolonialists and by students of world literature but over the past two decades a developing dialogue between these divergent approaches has produced robust scholarship and sometimes fractious debate as issues of language politics and cultural difference have come to the fore Drawing on a wide variety of cases from medieval Wales to contemporary Syria and Australia and on works written in Arabic Basque English Hindi and more this collection explores the mutual illumination that can be gained through the interaction of postcolonial and world literary perspectives Post-Yugoslav Literature and Film Gordana P.

Crnkovic,2012-02-02 Reveals select post Yugoslav literary and cinema works as groundbreaking exploratory achievements of global relevance Bosnian Authors in a European Window Keith Doubt,2023-12-18 The study compares three Bosnian authors with three European titans The poet Mak Dizdar to Homer the novelist Me a Selimovi to Fyodor Dostoevsky and the novelist Ivo Andri to Leo Tolstoy The purpose is to move the appreciation of the writing of the most important Bosnian writers of the 20th century closer to the European literary community and to the wholeness of the literary phenomenon Secondary literature on the Bosnian authors is too narrow focusing on their ethnic heritages and the Balkan milieu in which they write and missing something essential to a critical appreciation of their works The study creates not only affinities but more importantly amiti s between the authors The discipline of comparative literature reveals what is missing in the secondary literature namely a vision of the literary universe inclusive and comprehensive The Facts on File an under researched area The volume offers an overview of the diverse Jewish experiences in Southeastern Europe from the 19th to the 21st centuries and the various forms and strategies of their representation in literature the arts historiography and philosophy thus creating a dialogue between Jewish studies Balkan studies and current literary and cultural theories
