John By Niall Williams:

John Niall Williams, 2008-02-05 A tale based on John the Apostle's final years places the elderly blind John in exile on the island of Patmos until the Roman emperor lifts the ban against Christianity enabling John's return to the religiously torn region of Ephesus

John Niall Williams, 2010-12-15 What invisible drama plays what passes to and fro in the columns of air above them none knows but the disciples think perhaps the time is arrived at last Aged blind and perilously frail John the Apostle has walked ten thousand miles to tell of love In a hundred years he has lived to witness sights and scenes that now cloud his mind Of his followers there are few remaining banished with him to an island where they wait as storm clouds whip the island with rain They wait for the world to free them from exile They wait for signs that seem like they will never come But eventually a sign does come and together the disciples leave the island They embark on a journey that will change their lives forever a journey filled with purpose and fear which will test their belief in love and in each other to breaking point and John must face his biggest battle yet John depicts the inner life of a man of faith and doubt with extraordinary poetic vision Romantic wild and passionate this is the story of what it might be to love for a lifetime History of the Rain Niall Williams, 2014-04-10 LONGLISTED FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE 2014 By the author of Four Letters of Love the international bestseller now a major film starring Helena Bonham Carter and Pierce Brosnan A love letter to literature and storytelling Eimear McBride I am utterly obsessed with Niall Williams Ann Patchett In her attic room with the rain rushing down the windows Ruthie Swain is trying to find her father through stories Brought home after a collapse she lies surrounded by her father's library of three thousand nine hundred and fifty eight books But Ruthie's story and the story of the Swains before her is rooted not in these books pages but in the land fourteen rain sodden acres of earth useless for farming but teeming with stories From her bed Ruthie writes Ireland with its weather its rivers its lilt and its lows The stories she recounts bring back to life multiple generations buried in this soil and they might just bring her back into the world again too Extremely moving By the final chapter I was weeping Sunday Times Dazzling Paragraph after paragraph begs you to stop and reread it to relish the lilt of it in your inner ear The Times Beautiful and enchanting A novel that weaves a love of literature into its own moving tale Guardian Fresh from the Word Rosalind Brown, 2016-03-24 Many illustrious names have written the Church Times weekly reflections on the Sunday Lectionary readings but none received as many requests for their work in permanent book form as Rosalind Brown who contributed a regular column between 2012 and 2014 For every Sunday of Years A B and C as well as Principal Holy Days feasts and festivals Rosalind offers informed reflections and commentary on the Lectionary readings for all who preach week by week With great sensitivity to congregational needs a dependable capacity for relating the Bible to real life and with her outstanding gifts as a writer Rosalind offers encouragement and guidance for the privileged task of preaching

Patmos in the Reception History of the Apocalypse Ian Boxall,2013-04-18 This monograph explores the significance accorded to John s island of Patmos Rev 1 9 within the wider reception history of the Apocalypse In contrast to the relatively scant attention paid to John s island in modern commentaries this reception historical survey reveals both the greater prominence accorded to Patmos by earlier interpreters and the richer diversity of readings the text has provoked These include interest in the physical character of Patmos and its significance as an island the date and reason for John s sojourn there attempts to locate Patmos in a geography which is sometimes more mythical than literal the meaning of the name Patmos in the context of a biblical book which treats other place names symbolically This diversity is supported by a close reading of Rev 1 9 which highlights the extent to which even its literal sense is highly ambiguous Ian Boxall brings together for the first time in a coherent narrative a wide range of interpretations of Patmos reflecting different chronological periods cultural contexts and Christian traditions Boxall understands biblical interpretation broadly to include interpretations in biographical traditions about John sermons liturgy and visual art as well as biblical commentaries He also considers popular and marginal readings alongside magisterial and centrist ones and draws analogies between similar hermeneutical strategies across the centuries In the final chapter Boxall explores the wider implications of his study for biblical scholarship advocating an approach which encourages use of the imagination and reader participation and which works with a broader concept of meaning than traditional historical criticism

Critical Moments Fintan O'Toole,2003 Few figures are more respected and quoted internationally than Fintan O Toole both as a controversial and provocative political commentator and theatre critic This extensive collection brings together a wide range of his writings going back to 1980 It provides a privileged insight into the great moments of contemporary Irish theatre marking the contributions of playwrights Carr Murphy Friel McGuinness directors Hynes Byrne actors Hickey McKenna and designers Vanek Frawley It also demonstrates his unsettling of the usual canon with his thoughtful arguments promoting certain playwrights who deserve to up be there with Ireland s best including Antoine O Flatharta Paul Mercier Dermot Bolger and David Byrne
